24SUR Toy Hauler

Rove Sur

Built to Last, Designed for Adventure
Travel Lite RV's lightest weight toy hauler, the 24SUR boasts a 13-foot garage and is made of 100% composite material and aluminum. The 24SUR is built to last! The one-piece fiberglass roof connecting to our durable Hydrolite walls protects from year round elements. This coach is half the weight of any model in its class on the market and can be pulled behind most smaller vehicles, allowing for more adventure with less hassle.
