Reflection for Trinity Sunday

God so loved the world that he gave his only Son, so that everyone who believes in him might not perish but might have eternal life, Jn. 3:16.

Trinity Sunday, also known as the Feast of the Holy Trinity, is a joyous day when Christians worship and thank the Holy Trinity- Father, Son, and Holy Spirit, for revealing this mystery to us and creating us to share their love. Since it was after the first great Pentecost that the doctrine of the Trinity was proclaimed to the world, (Go therefore and make disciples of all the nations, baptizing them in the name of the Father and of the Son and of the Holy Spirit, Mt. 28:19) Holy Trinity Sunday becomingly follows that of Pentecost.

There are two principal dogmas of the Christian religion. The first, called the Incarnation, is that Jesus Christ is true God and true man, born of the Virgin Mary. The second is the doctrine that God is three persons: Father, Son, and Holy Spirit, in only one divine nature. We teach our children to say, "God is three and God is One; three Persons, one God." The Sign of the Cross is an expression of our Christian faith in the Incarnation and the Holy Trinity. We say, "In the name of the Father, and of the Son, and of the Holy Spirit," as we touch first our forehead, then our breast, and then the left shoulder followed by the right shoulder. The devil hates us to make the Sign of the Cross. It infuriates him. When we come into the church, for instances, we may dip our fingers into the holy water font and with moistened fingers bless ourselves making the Sign of the Cross saying, "By this holy water and the precious blood of Christ cleanse me of my sins. In the name of the Father, and of the Son, and of the Holy Spirit." This is an incredibly powerful invocation.

The Sign of the Cross says that God so loved the world that he gave his only Son. The Son is the Word of God, the Second Divine Person of the Holy Trinity. Only the Son assumed human nature and was born of the Virgin Mary. That is what the expression: "the Word became flesh" means. It is because the Son of God united his Person to our human nature that we know God as Father. Jesus said, "No one knows the Son except the Father, and no one knows the Father except the Son and those to whom the Son chooses to reveal him," Mt. 11:27; "Anyone who has seen me has seen the Father," Jn. 14:9. As for the Holy Spirit, Jesus said: "But I tell you the truth: it is expedient to you that I go: for if I do not go, the Paraclete, the Holy Spirit, will not come to you; but if I go, I will send him to you," Jn. 16:7. Most wonderful of all, if we love and follow Jesus, the Holy Trinity will dwell within us by grace and charity: "If any one love me, he will keep my word, and my Father will love him, and we will come to him, and will make our abode with him," Jn. 14:23.

When you make the Sign of the Cross, do not be in a hurry. Take your time and reflect what a beautiful and powerful profession of your Christian faith this sign is. Reflect on the meaning of what you are doing. As I said, this sign is hated by the devil and all who are in his camp, whether they know it or not. Do not be afraid to make the Sign of the Cross when, for instances, you are at a restaurant, and you ask God to bless your meal. Also, take note of how thoroughly imbued our Catholic worship is with this faith in God as three divine Persons in one divine nature. Reflect also that God is love. The three Divine Persons are a unity in one Love. The Holy Trinity in a communion of Persons in Love. We are made part of this communion by the sacrament of baptism. Rejoice always in this wonderful truth. Let us journey together in faith.

Prayer to the Holy Trinity

Glory be to the Father,

Who by His almighty power and love created me, making me in the image and likeness of God.

Glory be to the Son,

Who by His Precious Blood delivered me from hell, and opened for me the gates of heaven.

Glory be to the Holy Spirit,

Who has sanctified me in the sacrament of Baptism, and continues to sanctify me by the graces I receive daily from His bounty.

Glory be to the Three adorable Persons of the Holy Trinity, now and forever.

Amen!
