25 Buffington shares, “Meet Carson, one smart little kid who loves all things 26 Christmas, especially the songs! Known by just about everyone as the “Little 27 Professor,” he’s expecting the best holiday ever. Unfortunately, throughout the 28 three days before Christmas, his hopes are challenged. Event after event forces 29 Carson to defend Santa; deal with fifth-grade bullies, handle his nemesis, 30 Wanda; and outsmart a physical education teacher. Finally, Christmas Eve 31 arrives, and he’s more than ready for the best Christmas ever until the 32 unexpected, unthinkable happens.

33 The night before Christmas, he and his favorite grandma are arranging the 34 family’s antique Nativity set. Then it happens. Carson “drops” the littlest angel in 35 the set and breaks his wings. Devastated. What could be worse than breaking an 36 angel’s wings? Carson uses his wits, love of Christmas, and belief in angels to 37 find help. All it takes is a trip to Angel Land, where he’s all set to ask for a 38 miracle. How he gets there, the new friends he meets, the lessons he learns, and 39 the truths he finds are all included in the round-trip ticket to Angel Land. It’s a 40 holiday mystery revealed with joyous themes, perfect, not just for the holidays but 41 all year round.”
