About the Instructor: Ross Rice completed a distinguished career as a special agent with the Federal Bureau of Investigation in December 2012. He spent nearly 20 years investigating a wide variety of criminal cases, primarily from the Orland Park and Tinley Park offices. From 1999 to 2011, he served as director and spokesman of Public Affairs for the FBI's Chicago office. As spokesman, Rice handled media inquiries and responses on several highly publicized cases, including the indictment and trial of former Illinois Gov. George Ryan, the "Family Secrets" organized crime investigation, the arrest and trial of then Illinois Gov. Rod Blagojevich, and several international terrorism investigations. In addition, he helped manage the Community Outreach program and launched a Citizens Academy class. Rice also served as office liaison to the Illinois Congressional Delegation. He has provided instruction on media relations to FBI executives, the FBI National Academy, the Illinois State Police and the Chicago Police Department. He also serves as a safety and security consultant for CBS News in Chicago and does private media consulting.
