Instructions for Students

- We will begin promptly at 0800 on Monday morning. Please have all equipment with you at that time. Thursday will be a late start to accommodate low light training.
- Students should be qualified and familiar with any firearm brought to the course.
- Please leave weapons in your vehicle until called for during class- we will do a safety brief first. There is a designated weapon clearing area. Do not load or unload in the parking lot.
- Safety is paramount. Anyone causing a negligent discharge will be immediately without recourse. Persons with recurrent gun handling safety errors may have to complete the course with an empty firearm.

Packing List:

- Eye and Ear Protection– We will NOT have extras at the training site
- Ballistic Vest
- Vest or Belt Kit
- Light Gloves
- Foul Weather Gear for the Season
- Weapon light for Primary Weapon
- Spare Flashlight
- Notepad and Writing Equipment
- Spare Magazine in Pouch
- Sling for Carbine or SMG if issued
- Instructor requests no short barreled rifles. 16” barrel minimum. If you request an exception, please contact the instructor.

FBG Distraction Device if issued

(This is not intended to be an equipment race. Bring what you are issued)

Ammo Count:

Primary Weapon– 300 Rounds

Handgun– 100 Rounds

If your pistol is your primary weapon then bring 400 rounds for the pistol

With team flow events it is almost impossible to predict the exact number of rounds that each student will fire. Extra ammo is recommended, however most students will end up bringing ammo back.

The attached Liability Waiver needs to be signed by the agency head prior to attending training
