Course Description: The elderly members of our community are some of the most vulnerable members. Many times physical and mental impairments go along with aging. There are certain other members of our community who will prey on those elderly members by exploiting them anyway they can for personal gain. Law Enforcement is there to protect those who cannot protect themselves. Mary Koll is here from the Macon County State's Attorney's Office where she works with both Domestic Violence Victims and the Elderly Victim Crime Unit. Mary will talk about subjects police officers need to understand such as: Physical Abuse, Sexual Abuse, Emotional Abuse and Neglect. She will also talk about Physical and abuse and financial exploitation as well as the best ways to investigate these horrible crimes. Not only that, she will outline strategies for working with seniors.

Please do not miss this training day, many of our older generation count on us.

Directions:

From Rt. 316 (West State Street in Charleston). Turn South on Decker Springs Road. Take second right hand turn and follow the road around the curve. The training center is on your left.

From Rt. 16 (Reynolds Drive, This intersection will have a Marathon Station on the south side of the street and Lincoln Gardens Family Restaurant on the north) Turn north onto Reynolds Drive and follow that to the bottom of the hill where the road comes to a T. <-> Turn left and follow the road. It will take you under the railroad tracks. The road curves to the right, around a large building in the middle of the road. The training center will be just past it on the right.
