Course Objective:

A five day course to provide trainees with the skills need to conduct close protection procedures from single protection officer to full team operations. Core topics include attack on principal drills; formation and tasks; arrival and departure drills; planning and surveys; motorcade driving and culminates with a full scale FTX conducted in public. The techniques and procedures presented derive from end-user courses for operational teams.

Goals:

Provide comprehensive skills for multiple facets of dignitary protection operations from single PPO to large team.

Trainees perform in all team position of large scale protection team.

Trainees participate in advance planning, venue security surveys and route surveys.

Trainees can plan and execute a single day dignitary protection detail with changing events and itineraries under real-world conditions.

There will be a limit of 15 officers for this training. If you are interested in attending, please sign up early. ALSO– Please fill out and return the liability waiver that is attached.
