POLICE FIREARMS INSTRUCTOR COURSE

Overview: A 40 hour training course to provide instructor candidates with the fundamental skills to train entry level persons on essential pistol operating skills and conduct sustainment training for their agency. The curriculum maintains a major focus on instructor traits and teaching abilities, with numerous student teaching exercises in the classroom and range operations. Topics expound to low light training and more advance skills to provide a well-rounded aptitude to conduct on going training. Candidates will be versed in related legal concerns regarding use of force and liability.

The course concludes with a daylong graded student teaching exercises simulating an in-service training date. Candidates prepare written lesson plans and conducting individual blocks of instruction with a live fire range session. Each is graded by peers and the course instructor. Candidates also complete a written test and firearms proficiency course of fire.
