Key Note Speech-

Lt. Wynn motivates his audience to look at domestic violence through the eyes of a twenty-year public servant and a ten year survivor of domestic violence. He discusses the importance of an ongoing commitment to guaranteeing individual civil rights. He focuses on addressing: Why victims are reluctant to report? Why they stay? Why offenders batter and how it impacts children?

He inspires his audience to further their understanding of victim's lack of protection and loss of trust in government and the community, as well as who pays the price for failing the victims of the often hidden crime. He draws a clear connection of the power and control used in terrorism to domestic violence and challenges his audience to change the system to insure the safety of the victim, the police and the community.

Victim Impact– This course will also include victim impact statements from Janet Paulsen. Janet will tell “Her Story” while discussing from a survivors perspective Protective Order Shortfalls, Stereotypes/ Victim Shaming, and the Cycle of Violence.

Note about the class-

There are two time slots for this class on the same day. The first class is an 8 hour class and the second is a 5 hour class. You can attend one or you can attend the other and still receive the mandates.

Observed Mandates Include:

Civil Rights

Constitutional use of L/E Authority

Human Rights

Lead Homicide Investigator

Legal Updates

Psychology of Domestic Violence

Beyond the Obvious

This lesson will guide the investigator/officer through the difficult cases of dual-assault. It will provide a clear definition and understanding of probable cause, self-defense, interpretation of injuries and dominant/primary aggressor. The goal will be will to reduce the inappropriate dual arrests that frequently occur at the scene of domestic violence crimes.

Sexual Assault – Myths and Misconceptions

This presentation will explore societal myths and misconceptions about sexual assault including “victim blaming” and false reporting and how these myths and misconceptions impact our beliefs, response, investigations and the pursuit of justice. The presentation will discuss how to overcome these barriers; including men’s role in prevention and encouraging reporting of these crimes to help support victims and ensure justice.

Victim and Officer Safety

This lesson exposes the student to the reality of violence committed against victims and police officers and its’ impact. A review of statistics for the past ten years encompassing the number of officers killed in the line of duty and the “Most Dangerous” duties for police. Common characteristic of a domestic violence offender, common denominators in assessing the lethal risk to victims and officers will be discussed.

On-Scene Investigation

This lesson guides the investigating officer from the 911 calls to prosecution. Designed to improve the officer’s skills in conducting an investigation illustrating the CALM technique of gaining control and stabilizing the incident. The student will see the five objectives of domestic violence investigation including documentation of the evidence and interview techniques for the offender-victim-children.
