Effective July 1, 2021: PA 21-173 Section 1(c) Any owner of real property who identifies an unlawful restrictive covenant in an instrument recorded on the land records that relates to real property owned by such person may file either an affidavit pursuant to section 47-12a of the general statutes, as amended by this act, or a form described in subsection (f) of this section, with the town clerk in the municipality where the real property is located, identifying the existence of such unlawful restrictive covenant. There is no fee to file the completed form or affidavit with the Town Clerk.

Election Worker Harassment

A new legislative act makes it a felony to influence or attempt to influence through force, threat, or harassment an election worker performing election administration duties. This applies to town clerks, registrars of voters, deputy registrars, and election, primary, and recanvass officials.

The act also makes it a misdemeanor to publicly disclose an election worker's personal identifying information with the intent to harass, terrorize, or alarm the worker or improperly influence them in performing their election administration duties.

Additionally, election workers have a civil cause of action against violators of either provision under the act (PA 24-148, § 7, effective July 1, 2024).
