

A Toast to Dads and Grads!

By Danielle Panessa, Hannoush Jewelers Store Manager

Dads and grads share a common thread—dedication and hard work. Their perseverance and commitment make them individuals we deeply admire. Dads shape family values, offering guidance and encouragement while working tirelessly to provide for their loved ones. They don't always receive the recognition they deserve, but June is the perfect time to celebrate their importance in our lives.

One way to celebrate grads, dads and all the special men in our lives is with jewelry. The founders of Hannoush Jewelers, the eight Hannoush brothers (pictured below), knew this well. When they immigrated from Lebanon, their goal was to establish a company that would stand the test of time and honor their family's heritage.

Since 1980, Hannoush Jewelers has expanded to include second- and third-generation members, making us one of the largest family-owned jewelry store chains in the U.S. Today, most of our stores are operated by second-generation family members alongside six of the original brothers, who still visit all of our locations to see the fruits of their labor flourishing 45 years later. We remain committed to quality, integrity and the values of family, ensuring that every piece of jewelry reflects the deep connections we share with loved ones.

As a Store Manager who has worked with the Hannoush Jewelers family for over 13 years, I've always admired the tight-knit family feel, which we share with every client. My first experience with Hannoush came when I was searching for the perfect Christmas gift for my dad. After visiting nearly every store in the Poughkeepsie Galleria without success, I was ready to give up—until I stepped into our then tiny store in center court.

Michael, our owner, immediately understood what I was looking for and effortlessly helped me find the perfect replacement for the cross and rope chain my dad had inherited from his father but sadly lost. That personal touch—finding exactly what someone needs in a way that feels effortless—is how Michael continues to serve our customers today.

Not long after, I joined the Hannoush team and quickly adopted the same approach. To this day, I run my store the “old school” way, because building close relationships with clients allows us to create meaningful connections—not just between us, but between them and the person they are gifting. This tradition of personalized service has helped us build loyal clients for generations, just as the Hannoush brothers have done for the business all these years.

A SPECIAL FATHER'S DAY WISH

We have a special Happy Father's Day wish for Michael, the proud father of three amazing boys, our third-generation Hannoushes. Michael spends most of his time running our business behind the scenes while working full time in our sister store, Lenox Jewelers, in Fairfield, Conn. As owner alongside his father-in-law Anthony Hannoush, one of the founding brothers, Michael has come full circle—from learning the luxury side of watches at Lenox to owning two thriving stores.

His love, passion and dedication to our business and clients set a high standard for his sons—not only teaching them the family business but also showing them the value of hard work. We wish you a very Happy Father's Day, Michael! Thank you for being an incredible role model to your team and your amazing boys.

THE GIFT OF TIMEPIECES

If you're looking for a high-end luxury watch—whether for yourself or a loved one—brands like Rolex, Cartier and Breitling are among the finest. Feel free to contact us to help you find your desired timepiece. With our access through the sister store, we oftentimes bring in or have you meet with Michael in our Wappingers location, allowing you to see the watches firsthand and get your questions answered. We are a certified Pre-Owned Rolex dealer in that location, so we can also help you find those older, harder-to-get models. As always, at Hannoush Jewelers, we pride ourselves on being a one-stop-shop destination for all your jewelry and watch needs!

THE PERFECT GRAD AND DAD GIFTS

Whether shopping for your dad or grad, we have an amazing assortment of last-minute gifts for your special guy. We believe wholeheartedly that “time is the best gift you can give,” and watches are one of the most meaningful pieces in a man's jewelry collection—a timeless gift they can wear throughout their personal and professional life and even pass down.

We have Citizen watches that can be engraved to commemorate the special day. The newest collection features superior automatic movement, meaning it runs on the motion of the wrist—no battery needed! Just wind it and go. This type of movement is found in luxury brands like Rolex and Omega, but our collection offers the same elegance with a more fashion-forward appeal, featuring stunning classic and jewel-tone dials. Priced under $500 and backed by a five-year warranty, they are available for immediate purchase in-store.

Priced under $250, our men's Alor collection features stackable bracelets made of leather and stainless steel in many different colors. A sentimental choice is a nice gold chain and gold cross to protect them and wear daily, or a tie tack or cufflinks for when they dress up. These gifts are versatile for all of life's special occasions and will stand the test of time.

We believe men need a quality jewelry collection, and we're all about finding them a style that works for their everyday lifestyle, not just special occasions. Shop our men's collections or explore our custom design options to make it even more distinct. Stop in Monday through Saturday from 10am to 6pm. Our sales associates are happy to help you find—and beautifully wrap—the perfect gift! ♦
