

Helping leaders

MAKE WORK LESS WORK

KATHERINE ROBINETTE

Katherine Robinette, CPSM, helps leaders make work less work.

A theater-trained speaker, consultant, and facilitator with more than 30 years of experience, Katherine helps organizations see what's really going on at work so they can stop fixing the wrong problems. She uncovers the hidden conditions shaping workplace behavior and shows leaders how to create environments where progress becomes self-sustaining, work is meaningful, and participation is hard to resist.

SIGNATURE KEYNOTES

- What Am I Missing? What's Really Going On At Work
- Where Organizations Get Stuck - And Why
- Your People Aren't Broken. The Workflow Is.

TESTIMONIALS

"Katherine delivered an impactful talk that resonated strongly with the audience. Her suggestions were actionable." - Jennie M.

"I appreciate Katherine's analytical approach to complex topics and the way she breaks down processes into clear, easy-to-implement components." - Jodi S.

"Katherine creates a space where people feel seen and understood while inviting us to think in new ways." - Erin R.

YOUR AUDIENCE WILL BE ABLE TO...

- See the conditions influencing behavior
- Focus on what matters most
- Shape the work environment they intend
- Make work less work — and keep it that way

FEATURED SPEAKING ENGAGEMENTS

Perkins&Will

