TESTIMONIALS

“Katherine is equal parts sage and scientist. I applied her framework the very next day after her talk.” - Nick T.

“Katherine breaks down the process with such clarity that it feels effortless.” - Erin R.

“Watching Katherine is like a master class. She helped us solidify our goals and tactics, so we’re finally making headway.” - Kelly J.

ABOUT

Often, leaders are promoted for their technical expertise or job-specific knowledge, prompting them to armor up to face the uncertainties of leading. Katherine has always led from the middle, shifting the culture from work into a creative, energized, productive space. She focuses her theater, nonprofit administration, and marketing and business development expertise inside the organization, to transform company culture from within.
