ATTENTION ALARM OWNERS:
IF YOUR HOME HAS A SECURITY SYSTEM,
IT MUST BE REGISTERED.
THE REGISTRATION IS FREE OF CHARGE.

As mandated by Sarasota County Ordinance #97-115, you are required to display a Sarasota County Sheriff's Office alarm decal for identification purposes.

You may register your security system by contacting the Crime Prevention Office at #861-4084 or go to the Sarasota County Sheriff's Office website at www.sarasotasheriff.org and print out and complete the "Residential Alarm Compliance Form" and forward it to our office. Please note: You are encouraged to register your residence or business even if you do not have an alarm system, so deputies responding on other matters will have emergency contact information available should it be needed in your absence.

This information applies to the unincorporated portions of Sarasota County. If you live within the city limits of Sarasota, Venice, or North Port, you should check with your city police department to determine if registration of your security system is required.
