

Lady Audra is a native of Greensboro, NC. She is the daughter of the late James Mitchell & Deborah Mitchell. She attended Greensboro Public Schools. She graduated high school and came to Charlotte to attend UNCC, where she earned a BS Degree in Economics.

Lady Audra is the wife of Revered Cornelius N. Atkinson, Pastor of Wilson Heights First Church of God. She is a mother of three beautiful children, Aubrey, Jessica, and Jadda. Lady Audra is an employee of Belk Department Stores, serving in many capacities from Manager, Buyer, and recently Planner.

At Wilson Heights, Lady Audra leads the Women's Ministry where she is always available to the women for prayer, teaching leading, and fellowship. She also leads the youth choir where she inspires the youth to worship God through Song and Praise. She Leads by example-""If Jesus could serve, then so can I". Under the Women's Ministry, Daughters of Destiny was formed which is a Ministry for young ladies 12 and up.

Daughters of Destiny were created to teach young ladies how to Grow and Be Bold Christian Women, teaching them life lessons and Christian Values.

Recently Lady Audra has completed her commissioning for Ministry under the teaching and leadership of Revered Atkinson. God is calling her to reach higher, to lead, and to teach on a higher level in ministry. He is leading and guiding her through his Word, Prayer, Teachings, and Life Lessons. Most importantly, Lady Audra models her life from 1 Peter 4:8" Above all Love each other deeply, love covers a multitude of sins".
