WHAT ARE SOCIAL RELATIONSHIPS?

Connections and bonds that children make based on communication and shared experiences and interests.

IMPORTANCE OF SOCIAL RELATIONSHIPS:

Social relationships help build confidence, emotional well-being, and a sense of belonging.

SOCIAL SKILLS NEEDED FOR RELATIONSHIPS:

- Communication
- Conflict Resolution
- Respecting boundaries
- Compromising
- Empathy

SOCIAL RELATIONSHIP DIFFICULTIES:

- Joining in typical play activities
- Understanding social cues
- Having narrow interests
- Rigid thinking

TEACHING EMPATHY

Daily Modeling and Conversations

01.

Children learn by watching how you speak to and treat them and others.

- Use emotional validation- “I see that you’re upset”
- Show active listening- pause and make eye contact
- Show vulnerability and apologize for mistakes

Perspective Exercises

- Inside out drawing- showing what a person looks like outside vs feels inside
- Book/movie discussion- pause and ask your child how they think the character feels.
- Role play- act out a situation and ask your child how they would feel in the scenario

02.

Acts of Kindness

03.

- Kindness jar- add notes for kind acts; celebrate when full
- Gratitude notes- write thank you letters to friends and family
- Secret kindness- do something nice for someone without telling them

Games and Activities

- Emotion charades- act out feelings for your child to guess
- Observing others- sit at a park or mall and guess the moods of a passerby and why
- Mirror game- make slow movements or facial expressions for your child to copy
