

BIM

For everything there is a season, and a time for every matter under heaven;

A time to be born, and a time to die;

A time to plant, and a time to pluck up what is planted;

A time to kill, and a time to heal;

A time to break down, and a time to build up;

A time to mourn, and a time to dance;

A time to cast away stones, and a time to gather stones together;

A time to embrace, and a time to refrain from embracing;

A time to seek, and a time to lose;

A time to rend, and a time to sew;

A time to keep silence, and a time to speak;

A time to love, and a time to hate;

A time for war, and a time for peace.

Ecclesiastes 3: 1-9.

A TIME FOR GUIDANCE

A Time to Lead

For twelve years, I have had the great pleasure of observing the young people of Bement grow in stature, achievement, standards of conduct, and character.

All should seek training beyond high school. Seek a profession that will give you security, pride and enjoyment for the forty years or more that you will be gainfully employed.

One must give something to his community and country during these years. Live honorably among your fellowmen. Be kind and tolerant. Act with courage and conviction. Fulfill your obligations as a citizen. Stand with men of good will for truth, justice, and equality. May your journey among men be a rewarding one.

Remember the substitute for freedom is anarchy.

and a Time to Plan

It is hard to realize that another school year has slipped by, another Annual is going to press, and that another class is preparing to graduate. It seems only yesterday that the Class of 1969 was a group of green freshmen. It has been a pleasure to be associated with the Class of 1969. To have shared with you the joys and happiness, the work, the sorrows that have been yours these past four years. I wish you well upon graduation and look forward to seeing you in the years to come.

The layout staff designed the pages in the yearbook. Seated are Sharon Sparks, Mark Hudson, layout editor; Fred Manny. Standing: Gwen Barber, Margaret Glennon, and Paula Stanton.

and a Time to Design

Yearbook staff members were chosen at the beginning of the year. Every Thursday night after school, the members worked hard to make this year's annual successful. The members worked individually and collectively to strive for imaginative and new ideas to make this year's annual unique. At right, seated, are Kay Glennon, editor; and Mrs. Hughes, co-advisor. Standing are Beth Koebel, assistant editor; and Mr. Taylor, co-advisor.

The editor and advisors worked together to design the annual, meet the deadlines, and give assignments to the staff members.

LOSE

Coach Schnierle and Coach Hughes were the co-coaches for the Bullpups and assistant coaches for the Bulldogs. The varsity Bullpups were unable to turn in a winning performance this year due to a lack of depth, size, and experience. A few bright prospects were, however, apparent, and we hope that they can contribute to a successful varsity team for the next year.

At left, we see varsity coach, Bob Johnson. In his first year at BHS, Coach Johnson helped the Bulldogs achieve a fairly successful season.

The Bement Bulldogs were successful in accomplishing a five win—three loss record. Bement was also honored in the Okaw All Conference with John Marker being named quarterback and Chuck Bentley as halfback. Those who received honorable mention were: fullback Tony Walsh, center Mike Walsh, ends Ed Hillard and John Moery, tackle Brian Selle, and guard Mike Flenniken. Halfback Chuck Bentley was voted most valuable player by his teammates. He scored a total of 108 points for the season.

John Marker, captain; and Chuck Bentley, co-captain worked to win victories for the mighty Bulldogs.

A Time for

Mr. Hargrave was amused by the menu of ham, 'taters and gravy, corn, jello, and pie.

Mr. Taylor's facial expression showed the excitement that prom brought BHS.

"Sly Fox" McCullough was entranced by the music of the band which played on the "Showboat."

The ball on the "Showboat" was enjoyed by these two fine couples.

Elegance

Cindy Flenniken welcomed the guests to the banquet. Neil Bateman, senior president, gave a response to her welcome.

Mr. Jarand provided the entertainment at the banquet by singing and playing his guitar.

Sue Walsh and Carolyn Rittenhouse made the bridges which were used as decorations on the tables at the banquet.

Gwen Barber was a willing worker when it came to decorating for Prom.

A Time for Pleasure

John Moery and Andria Hendrix were only a few of the students who "cut loose" at this coke dance.

Santa (Don Fay) filled hearts with joy at the Annual Christmas Party.

Always ready to have their pictures taken, these happy students enjoyed the fresh air.

Hard studying was the consequence which students faced in ninth hour study hall.

and Achievement

The chorus provided fine entertainment at the Spring Concert.

Mark Woodward, Joyce and Judi Hess, Sue Burton, and Laurel Morrison were speechless when they placed in the speech contest.

The F.F.A. Sweetheart this year was Sondra White.

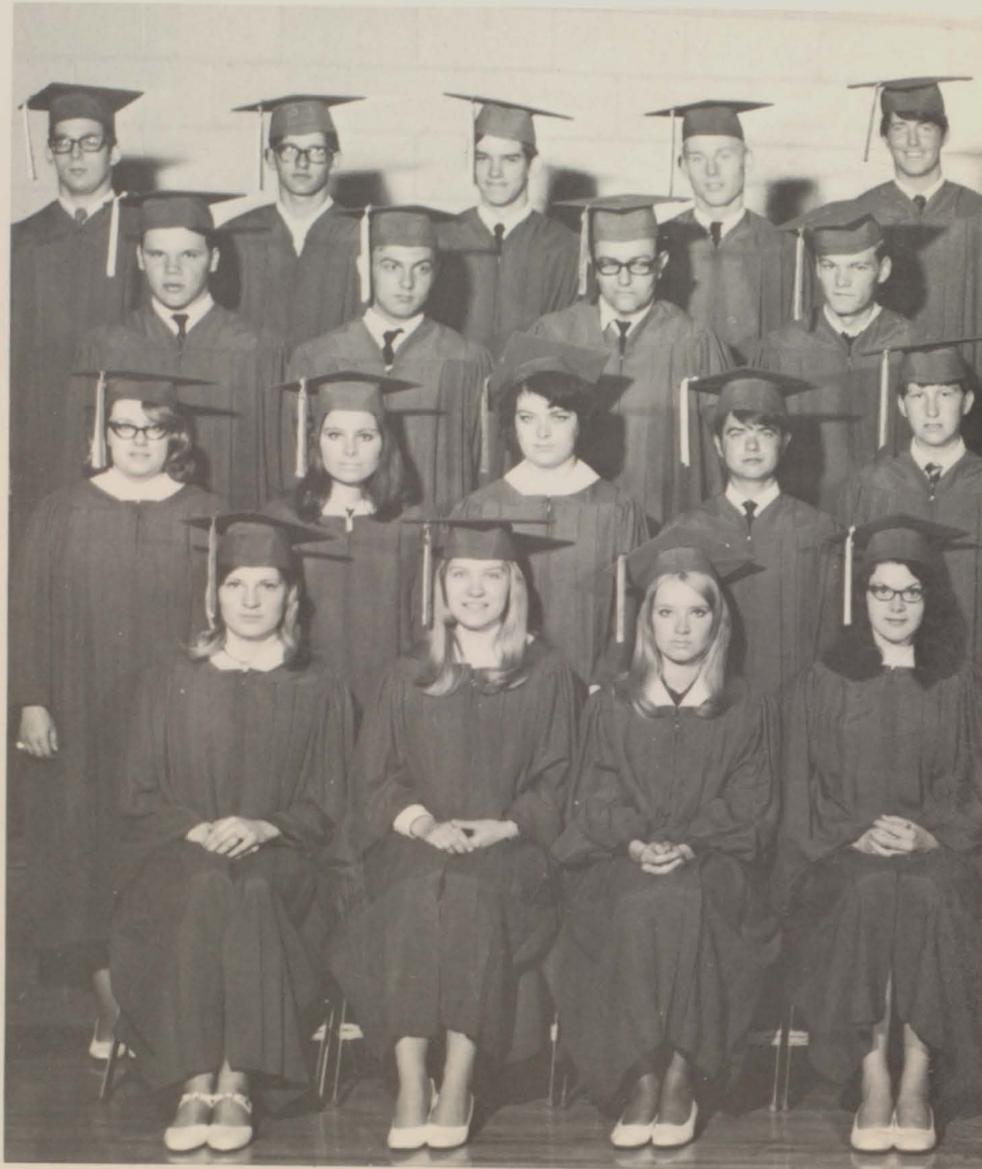

Coach Johnson honored the basketball players by listing their achievements at an assembly.
