Year after year, Bement High School discovers new talent for teaching. However, there is one teacher at BHS whose character can never be replaced. She has taught music here for eighteen years. The people of Bement are grateful for the splendid choruses she has developed. Our annual will portray "The Sound of Music" in recognition of the one element needed in every life—music. With our thanks to her, we dedicate this yearbook to our own classic educator of music, Miss Charlotte Glenn.

Our Leaders

As your superintendent, I think you are great. You have learned the meaning of the three R's; respect, responsibility, and reliability. Most of your real education did not come from textbooks, but it came from your actions, associations, and attitudes. Therefore, you have learned how to deal with the three A's.

One must always be true to one's self. You will be remembered most for the small but important things you have contributed to your school. A comprehensive high school is not a finishing school.

When a survey is made of your accomplishments during the next ten years, may the ledger show a large credit.

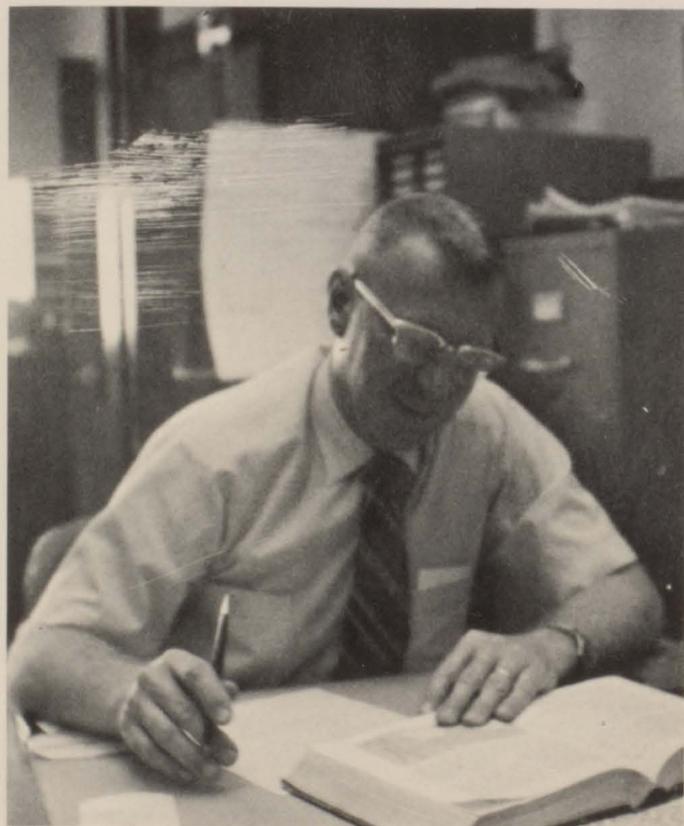

J. Ebb Hargrave
Superintendent

In the past four years I have come to know the "Class of 71" very well. Many I have known since you were tiny babies.

It is a class with much potential and ability. You have made great progress during the past years and now stand ready to go into the world. You are well equipped to face the challenges in the unknown future ahead. I know you will do so with courage, with understanding, and with humility.

Best wishes to you.

On Thursday night, October 9, a few of the more noticeable people were James Leitz, that beautiful GRIL walking down the halls, and Joan Ard, wearing an original just off the rack. Joan wore a stunning purple sweater, with a bright apron tied over a flowered dress. Her face took on a very dark tan overnight, almost matching her black hose and high-heeled shoes. Also, there was Ann Fay, who wore the latest fashion trend — a midi! WOW!! — did she look sensational!

Last Monday night, October 5th, the J.V. team played its second game with the Tuscola Warriors as challengers. The game started with Bement kicking to the Warriors. They received and, after a number of plays, scored their first touchdown. They failed to score for the two extra points. The Bulldogs now had the ball but ended up giving it back after four plays.

Bement's hard-nosed defense forced Tuscola to give up the ball and on Rutledge's option, ran the touchdown to make it 20-12 the half.

Starting the second half Tuscola kicked off to Gallagher who returned it for 30 yards. Bement gave possession of the ball back to Tuscola who finally scored against a stubborn defense led by John Walsh to make it 27-12. The next Bement score came in the fourth quarter when Che broke loose at the fifty and gain twenty yards until he was pushed out of bounds. Then on a third

Coach's Comment

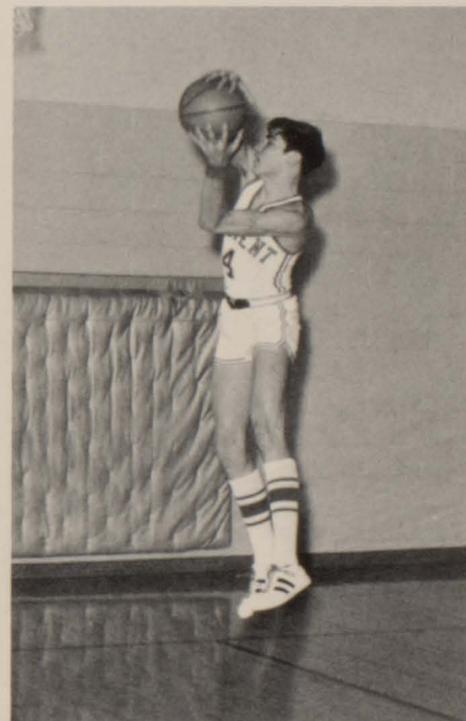

"We felt that our 1970-71 basketball squad was successful mainly due to the fact that our three lettermen came through for us throughout the season and that our large group of sophomores improved much faster than we had anticipated. Without a doubt the most satisfying aspect of this very young team was the togetherness and teamwork that was displayed throughout the season. Each member of the team was highly unselfish and this is, in itself, the most sought after characteristic of the truly fine basketball player. As coach, I was very happy to have been a part of such a fine group." . . . Coach Carson.

GOING "70"

Her Majesty

As excitement rustled the crowd, Miss Cindy Lawson was crowned Homecoming Queen of 1970. The tri-captain, Don Rutledge, granted the traditional kiss. The theme of the evening, "Bridge Over Troubled Waters," was played as the newly-crowned queen and her escort danced. 1970 Homecoming was truly a memorable event for her majesty Cindy Lawson and her attendants.

THE DAYS

Words and Music by GUSTAVE KAHN

seventeen, it was a very good year
 good year for small town girls
 summer nights,
 in the lights on the village green
 seventeen!

When I was twenty one, it was a very good year,
 It was a very good year for city girls
 Who lived up the stair,
 With perfumed hair that came loose,
 When I was twenty one!

IT WAS A VERY GOOD YEAR

 With perfumed hair that came loose,
