Administrators Keep School System

Dear Students:

I am thankful for the opportunity to write a note for the BIM. This affords me the opportunity to thank the seniors and all other students for this, my first year here.

You, the seniors, are entering a world that is more fascinating and challenging than at any time in history. Through further education, honest effort, and loyalty to your country, each of you should contribute much to the society in which you will live.

The Class of 1974 has contributed greatly to our school program through its leadership. The student council members, class officers, editors, cheerleaders and athletes have set an outstanding example for future classes.

Sincerely,
Roy B. Belcher
Superintendent

I wish to say "Thank you" to the class of '74.

Tie for Second

Debbie Tiffin drew this likeness of a Bulldog in the Varsity locker room.

This player was ready for action in the Homecoming game.

Football "73"

The 1973 football season was one of almost for Bement's Bulldogs. The team posted a 4-5 overall record; a record that was almost 7-2. In conference play Bement recorded a 4-3 slate which was good for a share of second place. The Bulldogs almost won it all; their record could have been 6-1 just as easily as 4-3.

The almosts in our season were provided in the second, third, and fourth games of the season against Jamacia, Homer, and Oakland. Bement dropped all three of these games in the last 40 seconds of play, two of them on fourth and goal situations. Couple these defeats with our opening debacle at Gibson City and you have the lowest point in Bement's 1973 season.

The Bulldogs bounced back with two tough victories over Arthur and Villa Grove. It was the first time in 13 years that Bement had beaten the Grovers, and things were looking up for Bement.

The Homecoming game against Newman proved to be the biggest single disappointment of the season for the Bulldogs. Bement blew a 14-0 first quarter lead, and Newman took to the air for the final three quarters to pin a 36-22 defeat on the Bulldogs.

The offense, which had been sputtering in early season, erupt-

Rich Walsh applied the final crunch to Jeff Moery's tackle. Mr. Jurgens lets his opinion be known. Jeff McCabe and Les Jennings are about to combine on a handoff. Bill Walsh gets help from several purple jerseys on this tackle.

Zane Giannonatti, Junior Halfback--First Team All-Conference Running Back--958 yds. rushing, a new Bement record.

Charles Flenniken (40) has a slight mishap on Homecoming. Rick Bentley looks on.

Bill Gorrell, Senior Guard and Linebacker--First Team All-Conference Guard and Linebacker; All Area Guard and Linebacker, Champaign Courier--Most Valuable Player.

ed in the Bulldog's final two games. Bement outscored Cerro Gordo's Broncos 32-22, and then the Bulldogs pasted Atwood-Hammond's Rajahs 29-14 in the season finale.

The change in Bement's season came just before the game with eventual conference champion, Oakland. Head coach, Mike Jurgens installed a Power I offense, and Bement was never held to under 200 yards rushing in any game after the switch.

The contributions to an individual player's character or the lessons gridiron competition taught to the 1973 Bement players and fans will be reflected in the deeds of these people in years to come. Whether this was a winning or losing season will depend on the deeds of these people.

Dave Rutledge, Sr. Center and Def. Tackle--First Team All-Conference; All Area Def. Tackle, Champaign Courier and Decatur Herald--Tri-Captain.

Offensive line gets set as Jennings barks out the signals.

Marty Hinton picks Atwood receiver up off his feet. Coach talks strategy. Italian Stallion strikes again. Strategy worked.

Bill Walsh, Sr. Noseguard and Off. End--First Team All-Conf.; All Area, Champaign Courier and Decatur Herald--Tri-Captain.

Activities

Allerton Sets the Scene Homecoming

Allerton Park, a colorful and natural setting, provided a more than adequate background for the 1973 Homecoming Court. The five senior girls, each in their own way, added sparkle to the Homecoming activities. A sunny but windy day did nothing to deter enthusiasm and spirit. The parade enhanced with a record-breaking number of entries delighted the young and old alike. First Place in Float Competition went to the Girls Athletic Association--a blue ribbon well deserved. A football loss didn't break the Bulldog spirit and the excitement was high all the way to the finale when Annette Foran was crowned 1973 Homecoming Queen. Homecoming '73 will always "Colour My World."

Seniors

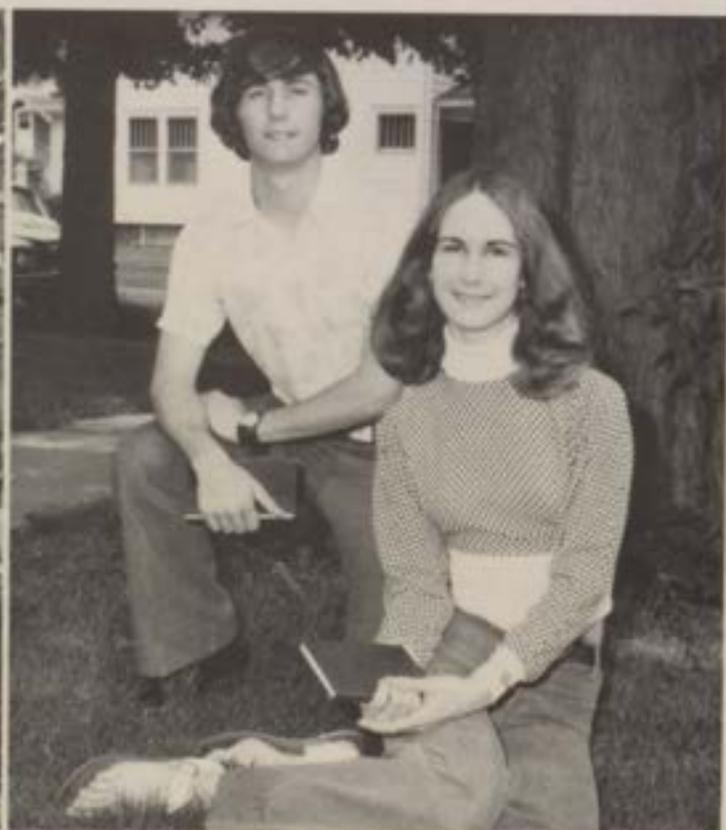

Seniors Receive Recognition

Senior Class Officers, Dave Rutledge, Annette Foran, and Kim Barnstable brave the elements to pose for the '74 BIM.

SAR and DAR Award Winners, Jeff McCabe and Annette Foran, add to local color.

The sun shines on I DARE YOU award winners, Kim Barnstable and Ann Selle.

Fellow musicians selected Dawn Hixson as the recipient of the ARION award.

Ann Selle received a gold "B" recognizing her as the top senior scholar.

Class President David Rutledge emphasizes a need for all school activities.

Annette Foran feels no disadvantage for having attended a small school.

To Kim Barnstable, Vice-President, a friend is any one of his classmates.

Honor student Ann Selle pays tribute to faculty as friends as well as teachers.
