BEMENT HIGH SCHOOL

BEMENT, ILLINOIS 1918

NEW FACES VISIT BHS

BHS welcomed many new faces during the year. Through the efforts of the Bement Drug Awareness Program, Darrell Porter and David Toma shared their personal experience with drugs. Students from area high schools attended the assembly. Darrell Porter, a former catcher for the Kansas City Royals, is now a catcher for the St. Louis Cardinals.

David Toma, a former policeman, is a writer and a speaker on drug abuse. The television shows Barretta and Toma are based on his life as a policeman. He is currently working on a movie based on his life history.

Laura Holonen, a student from Finland, was a guest of the Art Wilkinson family during her senior year. While staying at Bement, Laura made many new friends. She played Miss Garvey in the senior play, "Onions in the Stew."

New windows gave Bement High School a new look. Tinted windows were installed in the middle of the year. Earlier in the year, the school was also tuckpointed. As you can see in the pictures, these changes improved the overall look of BHS.

FACES OF

The seniors wore a face of accomplishment as they tried on their caps and gowns. These seniors were eagerly waiting to be the 101st class to graduate from BHS. This year marked the 100th anniversary of the first class to graduate from Bement High School.

For the past few years, French Club has been collecting gifts to give to needy families in Piatt County. As always, the project was a huge success. French Club and those people who donated gifts helped bring joy and happiness to these families during the Christmas season.

The Bement Bulldogs Marching Band had a successful year. The band participated in many competitive parades. They received trophies, money, and ribbons for their performances. The band's new uniforms added to their achievements.

Scholastic Bowl became a brainstorm for some students. Scholastic Bowl participated in everything from dual meets to county meets. These students dedicated their trivia knowledge to gain points for their team. Mr. Hays sponsored the team; Chris Price was varsity captain.

Accounting students got a sneak peak at the prom pictures while Mr. Taylor rated them. For the first time, prom was held out of town. Everyone seemed to enjoy the meal before the dance.

Jim Quick spent some of his spare time working on the Apple II. This computer was bought by the school. Plans are to use the Apple II for organizing the student's schedules and the payroll.

SMILING FACES

The high school art students visited the Museum of Science and Art in Chicago. They stopped for lunch at D.B. Kaplan's in the Water Towers Place. Cindy Guffey posed by an unusual piece of artwork at the Museum of Science and Art.

The students raced to the lunchroom in fear that there might not be enough for them. The fighting and pushing was worth it because tacos were being served—one of the kid's favorites. The boys indulged their food in a hurry so they could get in line for seconds.

Students and teachers found time to have fun and act crazy between their studies and activities. The cheerleaders added a little fun to the pep meeting by having a pie throwing contest. Mr. Wingle and Mr. Bishop won the students' votes for getting hit with a pie. Afterwards, they thought they would go a step further and bomb each other!

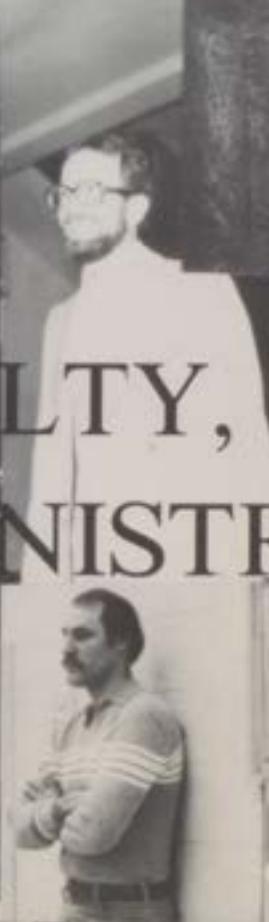

The seniors were getting senioritis with only a few days of school left. They decided to add some fun to one of their last noon hours at Bement High School. After much struggle, this was the highest their pyramid got. Many people walked off with aching backs, but the laughter seemed to ease the pain. After more seniors came outside and wanted to get in the picture, they decided to try something a little easier and less painful. These proud seniors let everyone know that they were No. 1!

ADMINISTRATION FAMILIAR FACES

The administration played an important role in the day-to-day operations of the school system. They performed many policy-making tasks. Major decisions dealing with all aspects of school life were made. One such decision led to the face lift the school received including the new energy-saving windows following today's energy conservation trends.

ACTIVITIES ORGANIZATIONS

FFA REBUILDS

The FFA started the year out with a new advisor, Gary Shupe. He and his fellow FFA members built the FFA back up with lots of activities throughout the year. The FFA took in a lot of money with the selling of the "Farming Game" and the seed sales. They also sent two members to the State FFA Convention. Jack Laley, Richard Kirwan, Jeff Wildman, David Foran, and Mr. Shupe were Bement's first National FFA Convention delegates in Kansas City, Missouri. The boys at the convention had fun and recommended that Bement should send members to the next convention. The FFA also had participants in Land, Meat, Crop, and Soil judging contests. FFA had two "Building Our American Community" projects in which they repainted the Bement Township Library sign, and they landscaped and planted grass around the Ag building. The FFA basketball team won the championship in one tournament and won second place in another tourney.

Near the end of the year, the FFA held its annual FFA Banquet and announced that Jack Laley won the Dekalb Award, David Foran was awarded the Outstanding Junior plaque, and Tim Morton was honored as the Outstanding Sophomore. Bill Gifford and Chuck Bales were honored as Outstanding "BOAC" participants. Miss Mary Shupe spoke and discussed agriculture in Poland. Miss Shupe was a 4-H Exchange Student in Poland.

At the end of the school year, the FFA visited Great America with the FHA ending a very busy year with a lot of fun.

FHA FACES UP TO BUSY TIMES

FHA was kept busy this year with all of their activities. The year started out with selling treasure chests to raise money. There were FHA members participating in rallies and the State Convention throughout the year. FHA and with the help of FFA sponsored morp this year. The dance was held as a western dance. The members of FHA and FFA picked a queen and a king. They were Cindy Allen and Mike Klein. Other candidates for queen were Laura Bates, Jan Johnson, Carol Barnhart, Pam McNew, and Debbie Burton; for king were Kirk Birch, Tim Morton, Mark Klein, and Dave Ard. The officers were Pam Kirwan—President, Cindy Guffey—Vice President, Cindy Allen—Public Relations, and Debbie Burton—Secretary Treasurer. There was a Mother-Daughter Salad Supper and Fashion Show at the end of the year; and FHA and FFA took a trip to Marriot's Great America.

MARDI GRAS SHOWS MANY NEW FACES

French Club was a very active group at BHS. Mardi Gras was a big success with Darla Henson and John Wooley reigning as King and Queen. The French Club traveled to Chicago to see a French-Spanish concert and to eat at Maxim's restaurant for a French dinner. French Club also traveled to Springfield to see the French play, Le Médecin Malgré Lui. French Club traditionally collected presents at Christmas for the needy.

STAFFERS KEEP UP WEEKLY ISSUES

Selling subscriptions for the Bulldogs Bark was the first thing the new staff members accomplished. Many things were done during the year—Mrs. Flood and Editor Cindy Allen visited the publishing plant to see exactly how the paper was printed so they could better prepare for publication. The staff held a cake raffle during the basketball season to help raise money to send next year's editor to camp. Weekly papers certainly kept the staff busy for the year.

Assistant Editor Debbie Roberts and Editor Cindy Allen read over an article for the next issue.

DEADLINES BRING ON FRUSTRATION

The yearbook is not easy to put together; it is difficult, time consuming, and especially trying to meeting deadlines. It takes a lot of time and patience, but in the long run, all the hard work pays off. The yearbook editors were Nancy Fendley and Karla Fritz. Ad selling was a huge success; it helped keep the student price to a minimum. Mr. Taylor helped out a great deal with his advice and, of course, his sense of humor.

MADRIGALS PRACTICE, PLANNING PROVE WORTHWHILE

Hours of practice and planning in the months prior to December 13, proved that the time was well spent. Certain activities could only wait until the final hours; the Music Boosters prepared food and decorations and made last minute adjustments. Finally the performance began with jitters and stage fright. While enjoying the occasion, throughout the evening, people ate, drank, and of course, were merry. Another Madrigal dinner became history. The aftermath of the evening's activities began to surface a week later. As a result, several students were reprimanded for their behavior during the performance.

OFFICERS ELECTED

For the first time, Chorus officers were elected to help decide what music the Chorus would sing. The Chorus officers were Jan Johnson, President; Debbie Walsh, Vice-President; Sandy Roderick, Secretary Treasurer, and Tammy Harper, Music Librarian; Mr. Mike Manser directed the 1981 Chorus. During the year, the Chorus performed several concerts and were involved in organizational contests.

BUMPERS BOUNCE BACK

The Bement girls' varsity volleyball team finished the season with nine wins and twelve losses. The Bumpers seemed to have started off on the wrong foot as they lost their first three games against Fisher, Deland-Weldon, and Monticello. The girls happily defeated Tuscola but again tasted defeat when they opposed Macon. Bement stepped over Tuscola once more before they were put away by Arcola, Oakland, and Arthur. The Bumpers hit a winning streak as they conquered Newman, Atwood, Homer, Shiloh, and Villa Grove. Once again, the team felt the agony of defeat as Cerro Gordo and Sullivan stomped Bement. The team sailed over Lovington before they destroyed Arthur in the LOVC Tournament. The girls' dream of being the conference champs was shattered when Cerro Gordo again showed who was boss. The Bumpers ended the season as they began it when they lost their last two games to Villa Grove and Cerro Gordo.

The three captains for the volleyball team were seniors Pam McNew, Debbie Walsh, and Nancy Fendley. The team was coached by two new faces this year. Marianne Larimer was head coach and Tim Bishop was the assistant coach.

At the girls' volleyball banquet, Coach Larimer announced that Pam McNew was selected to the LOVC First Team All-Conference and was this year's best offensive player and server for Bement. Debbie Walsh was chosen for the LOVC Second Team All-Conference, and Nancy Fendley received Honorable Mention. Kim Auth was mentioned by Coach Larimer as being Bement's best defensive player.

The junior-varsity team was coached by Mr. Tim Bishop. The girls ended the season with seven wins and nine losses to their record. Players on the JV team were Darla Henson, Debbie Roberts, Tammy Harper, Shelley Grindley, Sandy Roderick, Polly Wright, Leisa Fritz, Laura Bates, Angie Gallagher, Lori Foran, Sue Fristoe, Janet Gooch, Angie Rexroad, and Pam Zindars.

YOUNG TEAM FAIRS WELL

The Bulldogs were a very young team with no returning starters. They still had a fair season, with 4 wins and 6 losses. Injuries also hurt the Bulldogs this year. The team picked Dave Clark as the Most Valuable Player, and Morgan Taylor and Dana Foran were chosen as co-Captains. Chuck Bales was named to the First Team All-Conference. Named to the Second Team All-Conference as Offensive and Defensive Tackle and to the News Gazette's All Area Team Offensive Tackle was Kevin Romack.

Despite these injuries, the Bulldogs did finish the season with a respectable 3-4 record, defeating Homer, Arthur, and Cerro Gordo. JUNIORS TAKE PROM OUT OF TOWN

The Class of '82 was the first class to have Prom out of town. It was held at the University Inn. The Juniors were given the magazine sales to raise money for Prom.

This was an exciting year because the Juniors got their class rings and took the ACT test to help plan for college. Class sponsors were Miss Gudauskas and Mr. Taylor.

“EVERY FACE TELLS A STORY”

We leave BHS with many fond memories. One of these memories has been working on the yearbook. At times we were discouraged with the yearbook, but we are pleased with the way it turned out and feel it was very worthwhile. We hope Barb Laley and Cindy Guffey receive the support they need to have a good yearbook.

Merle Taylor deserves recognition for his help and advice. Thanks to Gene Schnierle, Chris Price, and Greg Barnhard for taking photographs for us. A special thanks to Sandy Roderick, Deb Walsh, and Theresa Ganley for extending their responsibilities as annual staff members.

We hope these "Faces" will help preserve the memories of high school for the class of '81. When you open your yearbook ten years from now, "Every Face WILL STILL Tell A Story."

Karla and Nancy
