BHS SEES CHANGES

Bement High School has seen many changes — a new superintendent for 1986, some new board members, and a new food service.

Dan Mash, superintendent for the last three years resigned at the end of the school year. Mr. Mash said he enjoyed his three years and will still "stay in touch".

Because of other obligations, veteran board member Jack McHale and John Strack relinquished their positions. Mike Lawson and David Martin were appointed to fill their vacancies.

The locally run cafeteria service was replaced with ARA, a professional catering service. A snack line, a salad bar, and other new concepts were added.

JUNIORS TACKLE PROM

Everyone knows how special Prom is, but it wouldn't be possible without the Junior class. The Juniors have been preparing to make this year's Prom a bigger success than last year's. They have been saving money their freshman and sophomore years and finally hit it head on their junior year. All year long they are busy raising money for Prom by selling magazines and working concession stands.

In memory of Ted Adams
(February 15, 1969-September 15, 1985)

It's too late to say good-bye,
It's not too late to say we cared,
But it's not too late to remember.
The special times we shared.
We're going to be thinking of you,
That's hard not to do.
We'll be wondering why you left us,
And just what you were going through.
We cry a tear of frustration,
We cry a tear of sorrow,
When we said good-bye on Saturday,
We didn't know good-bye was tomorrow.

Frosh Fit In

This year's freshman class seemed to have no problem fitting in at Be-ment High School. Of course a few rules were added to try and minimize the "hazing". Most freshmen agreed that there wasn't much difference between middle school and high school.

CLUB SHARES GOOD WILL

The French Club started the year by electing officers: Jody Lewis, president; Amy Cook, vice-president; and Sarah Jones, secretary.

Many of the sixty members went on a field trip in Springfield to see a French play "Le Malade Imaginaire" written by Moliere.

They also took concession stands. They had a Christmas party hosted by Michelle Wilkinson and also gave out Christmas baskets.

Breaking tradition French Club didn't have Mardi Gras due to "lack of interest", said Madame Gaigalas, sponsor.

STAFF BARKS UP NEWS

Newstaff works to meet deadlines for 'The Bark'. They sold subscriptions, and the top sellers won money prizes. They also had a Christmas party. Cathy Flood was advisor. Beth Cook and Lori Bowen were editor and co-editor.

“WORKIN’ 7 TO 9”

Many Monday nights were spent from seven to nine, working to finish the yearbook. It took staff members until March to finish selling ads. There were only nine staff members who worked.

Sophomore Michelle Cody expressed her views on the situation. "I think there should be a yearbook next year, but I think it's up to the whole school to work on the yearbook, not just a few people."

The staff did have some laughs, mostly at Mr. Taylor's sense of humor.

SOPHS GO TO "HEAVEN"

From Bryan Adams' album, "Reckless" came the theme "Heaven" for the 1985 Homecoming. The Class of 1988 won the blue ribbon with its parade entry, "Heaven's Just a Win Away." The seniors won second with the freshmen placing third.

Spirit Week included activities surrounding Rainbow & Heavenly Day, Accessory Day, Sweats Day, Toga Day, and the traditional Purple and White Day.

JODY, ANDY — 'HEAVEN,' SO CLOSE

"Heaven" didn't seem so far away when one walked through golden gates at the entrance of the gym. There was an overwhelming silence. Picture Queen Jody Lewis and King Andy Brennan when their names were announced. For such silence, a thousand words must have been going through one's mind.

After the coronation, pictures were taken, and the "heavenly" couple was quickly surrounded by people. The King and Queen were the first to dance to "Heaven".

Three DJ's entertained and played music for the night. The Mistress of Ceremonies was Michelle Wilkinson.

CHANGES BRING NEW DIMENSIONS

The days of Bulldog skirts, saddle shoes, and Fifties tunes have been replaced by sequined suspenders, bow ties, and professional choreography for BHS show choir DEEP PURPLE. "We added a new dimension by incorporating movement," said director Karen Wilkinson. "We will still continue to do a lot of music from the Fifties and Sixties, but will include songs from the years before and after that also." The seventeen member group performed a diverse selection of music as they combined movement with popular songs such as Neutron Dance and You're the Inspiration while continuing a tradition of excellence that is apparent in all of its appearances.

CHOIR RECEIVES FIRST RATING FOR 2nd YEAR

Performing at the Fall, Holiday, Spring, and Awards Concerts kept the mixed and treble choirs busy since they also worked in time during their twice weekly class to again repeat their first rated performance at contest, and participated in the November 21 LOVC Choir Festival. Both the mixed and treble choirs are directed by Karen Wilkinson who selects a variety of music and works to achieve an excellent sight reading skill for the choir when preparing for contest. The Directors Award, given to an outstanding senior chorus member, was presented to Heidi Radmaker, and the Show Choir Award went to sophomore Christine Warner.

BAND MEMBERS ON THE GO

Bement's band played at many occasions such as the University of Illinois Marching Band Competition, the Fall Concert, Holiday Concert, and Spaghetti Supper, just to name a few. They came home with some trophies from band competitions such as Tuscola Old Fashion Days Parade with a 3rd place trophy and Farmer City Christmas Parade with another 3rd.

The band raises money with an annual Spaghetti Supper and by selling cheese and sausage in the fall.

A CLUB MALE DOMINATED

The Industrial Arts Club, including students who have taken or are in industrial arts classes, was under the leadership of President Mike Day; Vice President Kenny Nelson; Treasurer Mark Woolley; and Secretary Eric Zoch. The main project for the club during the year was the construction of two sheds on which chances were sold for a raffle. The club's activities were under the supervision of advisor Terry Melvin.

SCHOLASTIC BOWLERS IMPROVE RECORD

Starting practice in October, the Scholastic Bowl team members worked their way to a 3-4 record in conference play. Both the Junior Varsity and the Varsity teams were coached by Marge Burgett. Junior Varsity members were: Lori Bowen, Seth Burgett, Amy Jamison, Marc Manint, Chuck Slagle, Mark Stoerger, Kevin Swaim, and Varsity members were Sharon Stoerger, Theresa Jamison, Mike Manint, Pat Schweighart, Beth Stengle, and Jeff Vezina. They spent the season working toward earning a letter, as this was the first year participants were able to. Coach Burgett said that she enjoyed working with the team, and added that the team would improve next year.

MEMBER OF MONTH SELECTED

The Librarians Club officers were Joy Lewis, President; Tracy Pierce, Vice-President and Ginger Loggins, Sec-Treasurer. Librarians decided to select a Librarian of the Month. The Librarian of the Month was based on good performance and the quality of work. The officers and Miss Gudauskas determined Librarian of the Month.

Lone Thespian Donna Mitchell kept active during the school year. Donna drives the FHA-HERO float during the homecoming parade.

THESPIAN DONNA MITCHELL

Donna Mitchell was the only Thespian this year at Bement. Donna was the female lead in this year's Spring Play. Thespians became inactive this year due to only one member.

NATIONAL HONOR SOCIETY

The members of National Honor Society are Beth Cook, Jody Lewis, Denise Quick, and Beth Stengel. To become qualified to be a member of NHS, a student must achieve a 4.4 average in school. The faculty selects from those eligible individuals who show the following qualities — leadership, scholarship, service, and character.

The National Honor Society members are, from top to bottom; Beth Stengel, Beth Cook, Denise Quick and Jody Lewis.

HOMECOMING BUSIEST TIME

Although Student Council was not always busy, there were times when they were. Deciding what activities to have for Spirit Week — the week before homecoming, there were always decisions to be made and decorations to be readied for the coronation. Another activity for the Council was the Christmas dance; although not as successful as last year, it was fun for those who attended. The Council also maintained a suggestion box in the library for everyone's use. Senior members included: President Lisa Martin, Heidi Radmaker, Beth Cook, Jackie Forgerson, and Denise Quick. Juniors Mike Day, Vice President; Tonya Bowdre, Secretary; Amy Cook, Corey Larimore, and Sharon Stoerger. Sophomores Lori Bowen, Michelle Wilkinson, Michelle Cody, Barb Gentry, and David Jamison. Freshmen Tara Bowdre, Jon Lewis, Jeanniene McHale, Tom Tracy, and Cara Bentley.

FHA-Hero Keeps Busy Schedule

FHA-HERO has been involved in many activities. Some of the thirty-five members helped in concession stands, doughnut sales, and Easter candy sales. Jeff Price won the "Legs Contest" sponsored by FHA-HERO. Some members went to a rally. Officers and the most active members accompanied Mrs. Borelli to the state convention.

BHS RETURNS TO FAMILY SITUATIONS

After several years of humorous plays that featured a large cast, play director Donna Sharp chose to return to a family oriented play. The play chosen, "Meet Me in St. Louis" by Christopher Sergel, was based on the life of the Smith family during the early 1900's as they prepared for the 1904 World's Fair. The Smith family encountered many trials throughout the one and one-half weeks portrayed in the play, including a possible job transfer, a cranky neighbor and several love affairs.

FOREVER

The 1986 Junior-Senior Prom was held at Jumer's Castle Lodge April 26 in Urbana. There was a lot of positive "reaction" to the band.

The best-dressed were Junior Michael Manint and Senior Jody Lewis. The cutest couple were Freshman Stephanie Jones and Junior Tyler Morton. Seniors Heidi Radmaker and Mark Woolley were named best dancers.

"Obsession" played for after Prom at the Bement Legion. Many juniors and seniors won prizes. Souvenir mugs were received by everyone who attended prom.

WHEN THE GOING GETS TOUGH . . .

Many things contributed to the 1-8 record of the Bement football team. There was a variety of injuries in the 1985 season which forced the Bulldogs to turn to underclassmen.

Coach Lane hopes that, "valuable experience at the Varsity level will put the Bulldogs on a winning track in future years."

Coach Lane remarked about the Bulldogs "Your dedication and leadership was greatly worth the effort. You were truly 'Bulldogs' with a lot of Class and Pride."

The season ended with the sports banquet in which Tim Walsh received the MVP award and was named Best Defensive Player. Best blockers were Mike Day, and Andy Brennan. Best Offensive Player was Tyler Morton and most improved was Jeff Price.

BULLDOGS ON THEIR WAY

Are the Bement Bulldogs on the way to another L.O.V.C. championship?

Freshman Jason Shonkwiler commented, "I think we'll be more experienced, and we're definitely ready for another L.O.V.C. crown."

Jason is just one of the many confident J.V. players at BHS.

"The J.V. football season was a success from the standpoint of experience gained," remarked Coach Harshbarger.

The J.V. conference record was 4-1, allowing only 8 points in the 4 wins. "This group of guys has a bright future in football," were Coach Harshbarger's closing words.

BUMP, SET, SPIKE

Volleyball started out with a loss to the Fisher Bunnies for the girls' team. Coach Nuxoll commented "The girls varsity team ended the season with a 8-14 record. We had a very up and down season due to inconsistency. We could give anyone in our conference a tough match when we were playing well. A indicative of our potential was a third place finish in the conference tournament. We also had three players receive conference honors this season." The three players that received conference honors were Theresa Flavin, Jody Lewis and Lora Manalisay. Theresa and Jody were named to the Second Team All-Conference, while Lora was given Honorable Mention.

The varsity volleyball players were Jody and Joy Lewis, Teri Ekiss, Theresa Flavin, Lora Manalisay, Tracy Pierce, Pam Baker, Teresa Roderick and Tonya Bowdre. The players have a bright outlook on the past season and the up and coming season. Junior Tracy Pierce commented "I think the overall season was pretty good, but as a team we need to do more talking on the floor and work together." Tonya Bowdre, another Junior stated "I think that we had a really good season. It was hard work but well worth it. The saying that 'You play like you practice' was sometimes true. We had our good nights and our bad."

The J.V. Volleyball Team also started the season with a loss. The J.V. team had a lot of girls on it but not enough uniforms for everyone. The J.V. girls shared their uniforms. Some nights some girls would dress, other nights other girls would dress. Miss Simcox the J.V. coach commented about the season. "Working with the Lady Bulldogs was a unique experience. Each individual's talent was evident on the court as well as off. I never really knew what to expect from each girl."

The J.V. team ended the season with a 6-12 record. The Freshmen thought that high school volleyball was alot different than the middle school. Trixie Stoerger, a Freshman, commented "I think we had a pretty good team this year. Miss Nuxoll helped alot of the Freshmen improve. I like high school volleyball; it is alot of fun. The upper-classmen were a big help, they taught us alot. They didn't seem to mind helping us out.

The volleyball season ended with the Awards Banquet. The volleyball awards that went to individual players were the M.V.P. which went to Jody Lewis; the Bulldog Pride Award went to Alisa Fairbanks. The Service Percentage Award went to Tonya Bowdre and Teri Ekiss received the Most Improved Award. Also recognized was Senior Theresa Flavin who had the most dinks and spikes.

BULLDOGS RECORD DECEIVING

When looked at, the Bulldogs record was deceiving. The Bulldogs ended the season with a 8-14 record. Seven of those losses came the first seven games of the season before the Shiloh Tournament. After the Tournament the Bulldogs turned things around and went 8-7. The Bulldogs winning streak came at the end of the season. Coach Wingle said the turn around was caused by confidence, maturity, some home games and two Seniors who hated to lose.

At the Award's Banquet, five awards were made. Tyler Morton received one for being Assist Leader, John Thomas received one for Best Free Throw Percentage and Eric Clements received three. Eric was the team's Leading Rebounder, Leading Scorer and received the M.V.P. award. Also receiving recognition was Tim Walsh and John Thomas for being named to the L.O.V.C. Honorable Mention, All-Conference Team.

YOUNG PLAYERS ADD STYLE

The boys' J.V. basketball team compiled a 7-11 record. Coach Harshbarger stated "The team showed typical J.V. tendencies in that a consistent style of play was difficult to achieve. Overall, each and every player improved their basketball skills, and the team as a whole improved over the course of the season."

Due to the lack of upperclassmen on the Varsity team, many younger players got a lot of playing time at both the Varsity and Junior Varsity levels. Coach Harshbarger said "A very good foundation has been laid for the future, especially the next 2 to 3 years. Bement Basketball is definitely on the upswing."

The Freshmen played three games this season and won them all by 20 points or more.

GIRLS OUTREBOUND OPPONENTS

The Bement Lady Bulldogs had some trouble shooting. The team only shot 24% for the season. They finished with a record of 3-14 defeating Atwood-Hammond, Villa Grove and Arthur. The Lady Bulldogs were rebounders; they outrebounded their opponents this season! The leading rebounder was Theresa Flavin with 142; Theresa also had the most assists of 19 and was awarded Most Valuable Player. Flavin was also named to the LOVC All Conference Honorable Mention team. Teri Ekiss and Stephanie Jones tied for highest free throw percentage.

Coach Nuxoll believes if the girls work on some of their fundamentals over the summer, Bement can become more competitive.

Top: The Lady Bulldogs at their best, rebounding. The Bulldogs outrebounded their opponents this season. Lady Bulldogs Varsity Basketball: Lora Manalisay, Theresa Flavin, Stephanie Jones, Carol Knowles, Amy Cook, Miss Maylo, Tyna Deffenbaugh, and Coach Linda Nuxoll.

FRESHMEN SHOW INSPIRATION

The J.V. Bulldogs fought hard but were only victorious once. Some inspiration came when the Freshmen won their first Freshmen game at Cerro Gordo.

Bement also participated in the Maroa-Forsythe Freshmen Tournament in which they brought home a fourth place trophy. The Lady Bulldogs won the first game of the tournament despite the loss of power when the team was reduced to four players, due to foul trouble.

At the Awards Banquet, Sophomore Alisa Fairbanks was awarded the Hustle Award for which both Varsity and Junior Varsity voted.

RUNNERS SHOW PROMISE FOR FUTURE

A predominantly younger team may have made the start of this track season a bit unsure, but as time progressed, so did the abilities of these athletes. Smaller teams, the boys with twelve and the girls with ten, made filling the events a hard task, so more concentration was put on individual accomplishments. Coach John Wingle taught that self-discipline was the winning factor. "When you get beaten, you just keep trying," Wingle said, and his teams ended the season with four new records set by Rusty Hislope in the triple jump with a leap of 42'11 1/2", Lori Bowen with a time of 55.6 seconds in the 300 meter low hurdles, Theresa Flavin in the 400 meter dash in 62.3 seconds and the 800 meter medley team consisting of Dawn Ellis, Tyna Deffenbaugh, Jeanniene McHale, and Theresa Flavin set a record and placed third in the regional meet with a time of 1:58.1.

RECORD IMPROVES

The record for the Bement Bulldogs was 14-10 overall, and their conference record was 6-8. The Most Valuable Player was John Thomas. Cory Shumard won the "Golden Glove" award. Chad Smith was named best pitcher while Time Walsh was named Best Hitter. There were 11 team members who received letters.

The following were named 1st team All-Conference: Cory Shumard, outfield; Tim Walsh, infield; John Thomas, infielder; and Tyler Morton as catcher.

"The game at Arthur I threw out three players who were stealing; it was a very important game for us because Arthur was Conference Co-Champs," said Junior Tyler Morton, remembering an important game.

SQUAD KEEPS CROWDS ROWDY

JV Cheerleaders had a lot of fun. The squad consisted of freshmen Tara Bowdre, Sherry Cozad, Stephanie Jones, Jeanniene McHale and sophomore Kim Nelsen. The girls appreciated the help of their new sponsor Sue Clark. Mrs. Clark is a third grade teacher and former Bement High cheerleader. The squad worked very hard to keep the crowd rowdy.

Varsity cheerleaders enjoyed the '86 season. Seniors Lisa Martin and Denise Quick, Junior Tonya Bowdre and Sophomore Toyna Deffenbaugh did an outstanding job cheering for the teams.
