HERE WE GO . . .

Doesn't it seem odd the more things change, the more they stay the same? Another school year began with very little fanfare, except for the seniors who anticipated being the leaders and for the freshmen who feared their initiation. The coaching department welcomed Dirk Veldman as head football coach and Craig Rogers as boys' basketball assistant coach. Coach Linda Taylor led her volleyball team to another successful conference season. Faculty surprises come rarely especially with Mr. Hensley's timeless sweater. He said that "it's the only one I really like." Mrs. Defend's pregnancy was unexpected by most. The real doozy was that she was expecting twins. "Everyone was real excited and that made me real excited. I have really appreciated everyone asking questions."

The major change this year came to the annual staff. With a new advisor, Mrs. Henricks, the new staff incorporated many new ideas into the book. Editors Amy Shelton and Kim Carver guided the staff with two goals in mind — to lower the price of the book and to represent the entire student body. Hopefully, this was achieved while maintaining the quality of past editions.

DO YOU KNOW WHERE YOUR KIDS ARE AT 8:30? Junior Carol High and Ms. Rahn sure look excited this morning during the usual humdrum homeroom ritual.

BREAKING NEW GROUND

LOOK OUT VILLA GROVE! Junior Bob Miller leads his class to a first place float in the traditional Friday homecoming parade.

PRETTY BOY! Sophomore Jason Dowell puts a few finishing touches on his hair before class at a quick locker stop.

OPERATION "BULLDOG" STORM. Seniors Jennifer Rexroad and Alan Deffenbaugh support the 2nd place float in the homecoming parade.

BUS BUDDIES. Junior Laurie Einhorn and freshman Erika Larson eagerly escape the cold bus, hoping their homerooms are cozier.

WAKE UP! The freshmen in Mrs. Flood's homeroom wait for the first hour bell to ring. Shella Earles and Paul Fuson daydream while Chris Chestnut chats and Mrs. Flood mentally prepares for the day.

DAY AFTER DAY . . .

A typical morning at BHS began with kids who crowded the lobbies bright and early, excited about going to their classes . . . NOT! The kids who weren't riding around in their cars or shooting hoops in the gym were scattered in the hallway gossiping, finishing homework, or falling back asleep as they waited for the bell to ring. Once the bell rang you could see a line forming in the office, full of students who needed admits or lunch tickets. A couple of seconds before the final bell rang, you could see a few people like Carly Koebel and Allison Fairbanks running to homeroom so they wouldn't be late. Finally the last bell rang and another school day began.

At the end of the school day, the students were eagerly waiting for the final bell. As the clock struck 3:00, everyone got impatient. They started to squirm in their seats and talk about what they were going to do that night. At about 3:01, talking was interrupted as Mr. Doan announced the kids who had detentions. As soon as he finished, the bell rang. Kids dashed out the door running to their lockers to get their books and coats. In about 5 minutes, there was no one in the halls except for the worn-down teachers, the kids waiting for practice, and the those eagerly waiting to serve their detentions.

SO WHAT DID YOU GET FOR NUMBER FOUR? Seniors Tammy Morris and Mandy McCabe take a moment to doublecheck the day's homework at Mandy's locker.

IT'S A BEAUTIFUL DAY IN THE NEIGHBORHOOD. Junior Josh Benson takes a moment to put his coat in his locker before home-room. Won't you be my neighbor, Josh?

WHERE'S THE FIRE? Sophomore Jason Dowell has to make an extra trip back into school for he has forgotten something.

FREE AT LAST! Freshmen Adam Garrett and Jeremy Thompson are pleased that the school day is over.

ROYALTY '92

After the disappointing late start of the football game Friday night, everybody was anxious for a better time at Saturday night's dance. "Students did a good job organizing the parade, the coronation and decorating for the dance. Spirit Week helped students enjoy Homecoming Week. However, this is the first year the Student Council lost money," said Mr. Lefever. A large spectator group welcomed the court around 8:30 and congratulated King Kent Shonkwiler and Queen Julie Fay. After Junior Denise Arney, vice-president of Student Council, announced the king and queen, most people unfortunately danced a few short dances then left. Miss Gaudauskas said, "I was pleased with everything during Homecoming. My only disappointment was that the attendance wasn't as big as it has been in the past." By Monday morning, the tense atmosphere disappeared and was replaced with exhaustion!

A NIGHT TO REMEMBER. King Kent Shonkwiler and Queen Julie Fay will never forget this coronation.

ONE MOMENT IN TIME. Tami Belton and Shannon Dick take time out from family and friends for a picture.

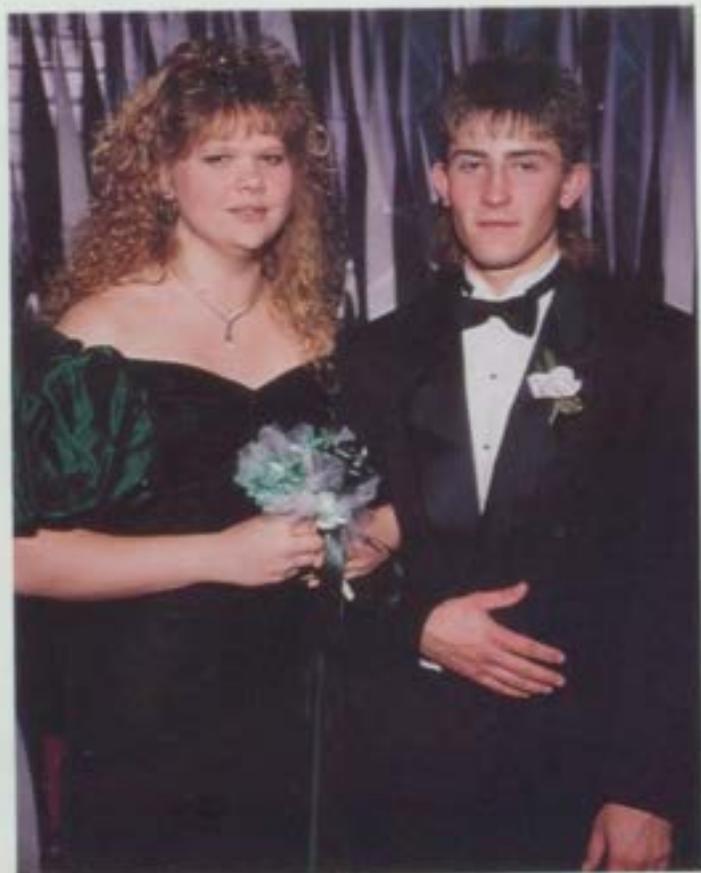

DANCE THE NIGHT AWAY. Tami Wilkinson and David Van Schoyck are enjoying themselves as they dance.

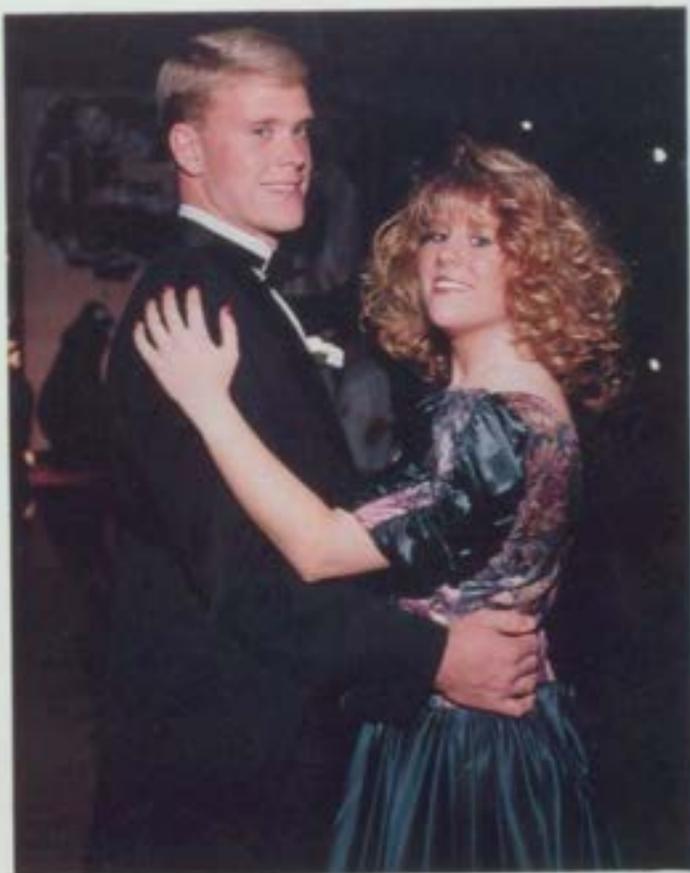

A NIGHT OF ROYALTY. The 1991 court includes David Van Schoyck, Tami Wilkinson, Amy Shelton, Roger Strack, attendants Jordan Swaim, Shawn Harrington, King Kent Shonkwiler, Queen

Julie Fay, attendants Megan Scott, Sarah Hendrix, Tim Gadbury, Carly Koebel, Tami Belton and Shannon Dick.

IN THE SPOTLIGHT. Amy Shelton and Roger Strack beam for the crowd of cameras.

UNFORGETTABLE TIMES. Tim Gadbury and Carly Koebel are taking advantage of the DJ's selections.

SURRENDER TO THE SIXTIES SPIRIT

Not many people participated in the first few days of Spirit Week. Maybe they felt like they'd be the only dork if they showed up in thongs or clashy clothes. But by the time Hippie Day rolled around on Wednesday, everyone saw how much fun it was to dress up! And boy, did they dress up! The flashy new "threads" were flashbacks for the teachers. The week ended with Color Day and Purple & White Day. The homecoming theme made a stir but the Junior Class showed how a great sense of humor wins out. Their class won the float competition. But don't get too big-headed, Class of '93! The Senior Class won the overall Spirit Week competition.

NO TIME FOR FUN? Senior James Brewer still finds time to study through all the excitement of Spirit Week.

MUMMIFIED! Seniors Kim Carver and Kent Shonkwiler participate in the toilet paper wrapping contest during one of the homeroom activities.

FREEDOM ROCK! Sophomore Jaydee Mitchell shows her school spirit by dressing up on Hippie Day.

CHIEF INDIAN! Senior Brian Shewmaker stands up to get a better view of what is going on down on the gym floor.

PEACE, MAN! Freshmen Mary Ann Ayers, Jennifer England and Adam Garrett recreate the Woodstock era.

A BLAST FROM THE PAST! Seniors Tami Wilkinson, Carly Koebel, Jennifer Rexroad, Tami Belton, Amy Shelton and Mandy McCabe are the ultimate flower children.

WE DO LUNCH!

The students at BHS were always waiting for the 12:05 bell to ring. You could tell by all of the growling stomachs of the fourth hour classes. The hallways were a big rush. Some students went uptown to the IGA but others headed to Charlie's for pizza or Super K for a microwave sandwich and fries. Some students stayed at school and ate lunch in the cafeteria.

Around 12:35 the lower hall began to fill back up. Everyone gathered to catch the latest news or fight over the heater in the winter. Then excitement broke as the fifth hour bell rang and everyone headed to class. After the students had gotten gum from a friend and settled in their seats, the tardy bell rang with three hours left to go.

LUNCH HOUR SHOPPING! Freshman Tara Lamb, Sophomore Tom Snyder, Juniors Marc Wright and Jeff McCullough mob the IGA to shop around for lunch goodies.

SOME SERIOUS CHOW! Sophomore Tim Hite eats some snack cakes in the IGA parking lot during lunch.

NOT WHILE WE'RE EATING! Sophomores Josh Gregory, Jason Butterick, Andy Driscoll, and Freshman John Laroe are pleased with the interruption of their lunch ... NOT!

BON APETITE? Sophomore Jason Dowell impatiently waits for his nuked food at the Super K before moochers come along.

SOLVING THE WORLD'S PROBLEMS. Juniors Mark Beasley and Chris Drobenka rest after lunch on the steps by Mr. Hensley's room.

PIG OUT! Tara Sullender seems skeptical about eating her food while Freshman Brandi Ramos has no problem with hers.

NICE APRON, JEFF! Junior Jeff Wells is fixing the chicken for dinner and evening meals at Hardee's.

LET'S SEE YOUR LEGS! Senior Tammy Morris takes a piece a chicken while working at Hardee's.

TOSSIN' PIZZAS! Senior Julie Fay-meister and Sophomore Keela-rama Shumard makin' pizzas at Charlie's.

SPIC AND SPAN. Junior Debbie Dodge buffs the kitchen floor at Bement Manor.

JAMMIN' JOBS

"Could I have a Fun Meal to go, please?" This is just one example of what people who worked at Hardee's heard. People like Julie Fay and Keela Shumard heard, "Could I have a large pepperoni pizza with extra cheese?"

So why did people work? They wanted to earn money for things such as gas and clothes. Amy Shelton thought, "Working at the nursing home gives me an overview of what to expect when I get out of college because my career could possibly involve elders." Students worked at fast food restaurants, nursing homes, grocery stores, gas stations, and banks. We had one senior student who worked for PRO AMBULANCE. That student, James Brewer, was also our school's student trainer.

WHAT'S WITH THE "WIG"? Senior Mandy McCabe prepares dinner for the residents at Bement Manor.

IT'S A BARGAIN DEAL! Junior Shawn Fuss gets motivated to restock the bargain shelf at the IGA.

LOAD 'EM UP! Sophomores Misty Tieman, Mabelle Hill and Junior Denise Shumard pile into Bob Miller's car for one more day of school.

UPTOWN BOYS. Sophomore Jeff Dick and Junior Brian Tieman humbly pose with Senior Chris Stoerger, who is wielding his sword (car antenna) in Camelot (IGA parking lot).

WEEKEND WARRIOR

Weekends! The two days everyone looked forward to throughout the week. Many people already knew what those days would hold. Some people dreaded them because they would be working the whole time. There didn't seem to be an R&R for the working class. Some people went in groups to see movies. Some people chose to remember ... in their own way.

ARE WE HAVING FUN YET? Sophomores Allison Fairbanks, Lisa Fogerson, Paula Wood and graduate Teresa Jamison huddle on the bleachers during a cold Friday night football game.

A LAST HURRAH

STILL SHOWING THEIR SPIRIT! The Senior guys show off their Football and Senior shirts.

WHERE'D HE GO? Senior Tammy Morris looked for her date as a slow song began to play.

SHY GIRL? Junior Lorrie Yokley avoided the attention at After Prom.

TAKING A BREATHER! Seniors Lisa Buckner and Amy Shelton take a rest with their boyfriends, Brian Rollin and Richard McDermith.

GET DOWN! Junior Gwen Bates danced all night at After Prom.

STUFF YOUR FACE! Junior Travis Tieman is amazed at how much food Chris Carver consumes during the night

"I'LL NEVER LET YOU GO"

The 1991-92 Prom was held at the Regent in Savoy with a good turnout. The Junior class went over during the day to finish up the decorations. Junior Josh Benson was recognized for his outstanding job on the balloon heart of the picture backdrop. Prom turned out with mixed opinions. Some liked the Chicken Gordon Bleu and Beef Tips and others didn't. The two silver hearts at each place setting could be turned in for soft drinks. The theme was "I'll Never Let You Go" accented with blue and silver decorations. This year there was a dance contest. Senior Chris Thompson won the gold medal, with his unique dancing. The Senior class gathered around to keep the party going at After Prom. The Senior parents put on the After Prom in Bement at the Legion. They changed the style of food. The years before, there was always junk food. This year the food was healthy like crackers, cheese and vegetables. The Senior parents presented each Senior with a mug and ten dollars. When the night came to an end, everyone was sad. Tim Gadbury and Jennifer Rexroad left with smiles on their faces. They each won a big prize — a CD ghetto blaster.

CHECK'N OUT THE GIRLS! Sophomore Brent Cribbs and Seniors Shannon Dick and Chris Stoerger sat back and watched the dance activity.

SLOW AND STEADY. Senior Tammy Morris and her date Kevin Nolin take it slow during the dance.

MAKE'N CONVERSATION! Juniors Shari Shott, Lisa Carver, Gwen Bates, and Josh Benson talked prior to dinner.

DANCE YOUR SOCKS OFF! Senior Chris Thompson won the dance competition at Prom.

PRETTY IN PINK. Senior Lisa Buckner and her date Brian Rollin are getting ready to dance.

DINNER TALK. Senior Kim Carver and her date Frank Chapman enjoy conversing with their table.

WHAT'S THE JOKE? Senior Amy Shelton jokes with Kevin Nolin at the prom table.

SIGNING YOUR LIFE AWAY! Sophomores Jill Lewis and Michelle Hill write their song selection for the DJ.

BOOGIE WOOGIE! Seniors Amy Shelton and Kim Carver get down to the music at After Prom.

DEAD BEATS ... NOT! Junior Sheri Shott and date Josh Campbell are awake but Junior Teri Hess and Sophomore Troy Shott are just about dead asleep.

NO STOPPING! Senior Tim Gadbury and Juniors Denise Shumard and Ronna Felty show everyone how to dance.

DON'T WORRY BE HAPPY! Senior Amy Slagle and her date get a little close on a slow song.

WHAT'S UP? Senior Mike Pothoff sees something amazing.

SWEETPEAS. Senior Kim Carver and date Frank Chapman enjoy their night out.

AW, MY FEET! Seniors Chris Thompson and Mandy McCabe are starting to feel the foot pain.

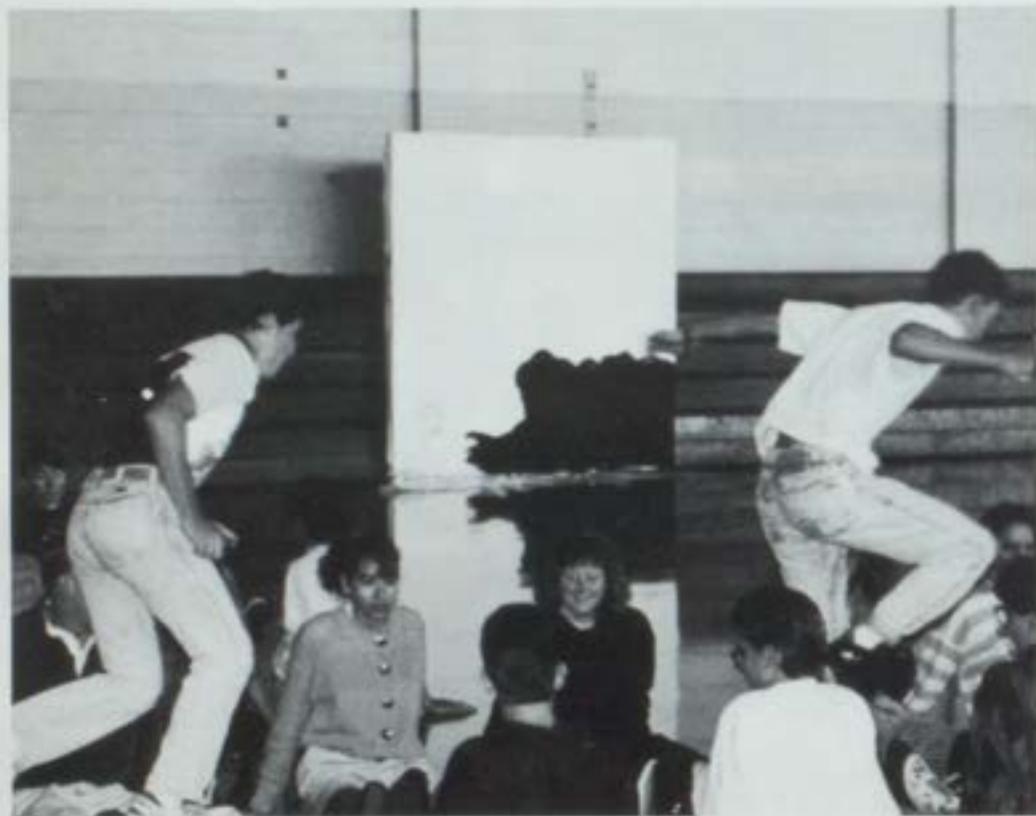

OK HOTSHOTS! Seniors Matt Woolley and Alan Defenbaugh and Sophomore Jacob Mann watch everyone else dance.

WHAT WAS THAT? Senior David Van Schoyck, Junior Bob Miller and Sophomore Jeff Dick watch an incredible antenna sword-fight take place in the IGA parking lot.

AH, GUYS . . . CUT IT OUT! Freshmen Sheila Earles, Tara Lamb and Tosha Hooker maintain a serious attitude during a Friday night football game.

TAKE A LOOK AT ME NOW

RUNNING OF THE "BULL" DOGS. Juniors Marc Beasley and Brian Tieman dart through a homecoming class competition, being careful not to step on anyone's toes!

DON'T MESS WITH ME! Senior Robb Larson intimidates freshmen while strutting down the hallway before class.

BE QUIET, PLEASE. Mr. Lefever discusses his bold experiences in his American History class.

HUGS, NOT DRUGS. Sophomore Misty Tieman passes her happy carefree spirit in the hallway to sophomores Jill Lewis, Nikki Blickenstaff, Nicole Sharp and Keela Shuard.

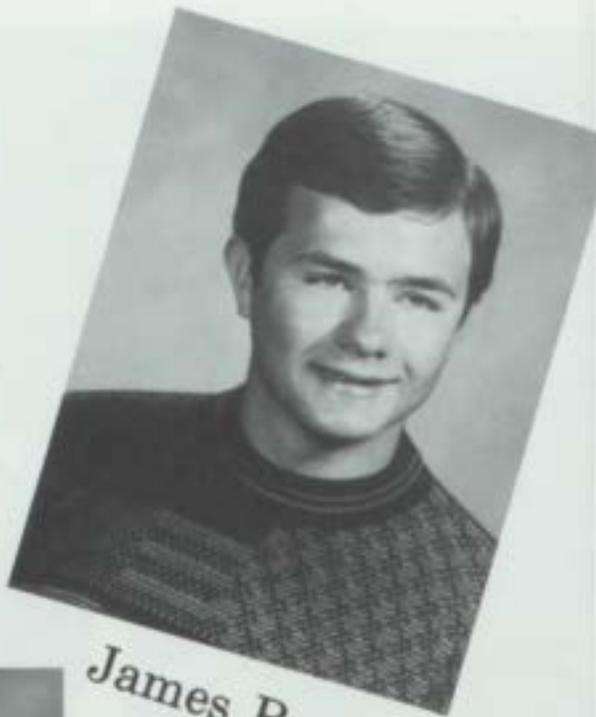

LEAVE ME ALONE. Freshman Jake Moore quickly puts away his books to escape sophomore J.J. England's mighty blow.

ALMOST HOME . . . ROOM! Juniors Amy Hite and Gwen Bates stroll to Miss Eichelberger's homeroom.

INFORMATIONAL MEETING. Mr. Stevens speaks about the referendum issues at a public meeting before the important election, while board member Tim Tracy listens.

PEACE AND QUIET! The camera interrupts Mrs. Bentley, hard at work in the office in between the phone calls and student questions.

The administration faced crucial issues throughout the year. A referendum to fund the school budget without the use of working cash bonds was put on the November ballot. Several new board members were also elected. After the referendum passed, consolidation talks continued with Monticello School District. The talks seemed to cool down when the State said the state aid would be cut in half if such a merger were to take place. Even so, the thought still lingered . . .

CAUTIOUS EYES. Mr. Doan watches the driving demonstration by Country Company to the student body in October.

ADMINISTRATION

SUPPORT STAFF

As the day to day activities of school went on, the people behind the scenes helped keep the process moving smoothly. Students came to school, walked through the lunch line and the halls with little notice to the effort put forth by these staff members. Whether it was the baked goods sold at lunch, the extra help at the concession stand or the uneventful trip to an extracurricular event, the appreciation may not have been spoken but it was there.

JOHN M LASH

ROAMIN' THE HALLS. John struts down the empty upstairs hallway at the beginning of the 1991-1992 school year.

REALLY? John seems amused at what David Thompson is saying in the library during study hall last year.

As we go through our school years,
we are growing

We are learning about life and the world

We each develop our own interests.

Whether you and John had a lot in common does not matter —

What does matter is that he was one of us — our friend and our classmate.

We must keep our memories and we should do what he did every day — talk to our friends — talk to each other about our memories and our thoughts just as we have seen him doing with his close friends uptown because he was one of us and will always be a part of us.

— Denise Arney

GOURMET CHEF? Junior Josh Benson and John hold their own in the Foods Class last year.

NOTHING NEW

SCHOOL HEROES

This year FHA-HERO had the chance to work with two advisers instead of just one. Mrs. Liesner took over the group during the last nine weeks when Mrs. Defend took a leave of absence to have her twin boys, Evan and Eric. FHA-HERO helped the community with Food for Families around Thanksgiving. They also sold Spirit-o-grams and Ghoulo-grams during Homecoming and Halloween. FHA sold flowers to high school students for their sweethearts. The gift kits from Tom-Wat raised money for the annual trip to Six Flags in April. The group sent their new and old officers to the State Convention on April 3rd in Springfield.

WHAT? VOLLEY-BASKETBALL? Sophomore Ryan Schnierle can't help but shoot a few hoops with the only thing he can find at the FHA Christmas party in the small gym — a volleyball.

WHAT'S SO FUNNY? Sophomores Holly Tracy and Lisa Fogerson catch a few laughs during a break from organizing Tom-Wat fund-raising orders in the Home-Ec room.

FHA-HERO. Robb Larson, Jake Mann, Denise Shumard, Keela Shumard, Machel Hill, Jill Lewis, Misty Tieman, Jason Dowell and Ryan Schnierle.

FHA-HERO. Allison Fairbanks, Robin Miller, Amy Slagle, Lis Buckner, Angie Ingram, Crystal Riley, Carol High, Holly Tracy, Laurie Einhorn, Stephanie Poague, Paula Wood, Lisa Fogerson, Tam Belton and Travis Tieman.

DRAMATIZING NEWS

The realization of no spring play was a disappointment. Ms. Sharp commented, "Without a play, it's hard to keep the organization going, but there were students initiated last year who deserved going to Festival this year."

The News-Staff published its own newspaper quarterly. Ms. Flood said, "It was one of the more difficult years because I had such a small class of only five people, but they and the five or six other News-staff people worked really hard."

CHECKIN IT TWICE. Mrs. Flood has Junior Laurie Einhorn and Sophomore Ryan Schnierle look over details for the Senior issue of the newspaper.

HOLD THE PRESSES! Senior and Newstaff editor Amy Shelton makes some last minute corrections.

LET THE SHOW BEGIN! Senior Brian Shewmaker talks it up with the audience while playing the narrator in the winter play.

THE JOKESTERS! Senior Matt Woolley and Sophomore Jake Mann take time out from their busy acting schedules to have a little fun.

YES, YOUR MAJESTY! Senior Tim Gadbury and Freshman Angela Nelsen stand up in shock as the Princess is happy!

NEWSTAFF. Laurie Einhorn, Karla Nelsen, Amy Shelton, Mrs. Flood, Ryan Schnierle, Brian Tieman, Sheri Shott and Denise Shumard.

THESPIANS. Jeff Wells, Julie Fay, Tim Gadbury, Shannon Jarboe, Ms. Sharp and Tami Wilkinson.

CREATIVE IDEAS

MEETING! Freshmen Tara Lamb and Jenny Bates chat before the Student Council meeting starts in the library.

CONCENTRATE. Art teacher Ms. Eichelberger watches Senior Lisa Buckner paint the laundry-mat window at Christmastime.

WISE MOVE! Student Council started recycling all the pop cans disposed during lunch hour. Sophomore Holly Tracy collects the cans in the gym lobby.

DO A GOOD JOB! Sophomore Josh Nichols and Junior Josh Benson help Bement get into the Christmas spirit by painting on the window of the hardware store for the art class.

STUDENT COUNCIL. Denise Arney, Tara Lamb, Jenny Bates, Mary Ann Ayers, Amy Shelton, Holly Tracy, Gwen Bates, Tami Wilkinson, Kristi Becker, Tara Sullender, Angie Ingram, Carly Koebel, Shannon Jarboe, Jenny Pope, Kent Shonkwiler, Jason Dowell, Jake Mann, Chris Thompson and John Laroe.

ART CLUB. Hillary Vance, Jayde Mitchell, Amy Shelton, Lisa Buckner, Kacy Mitchell, Kendra Enyart, Chris Drobena, David Guyot, Ryan Manint and Tim Hite.

ANNUAL LABOR

JUMP FOR JOY! Senora Henricks jumps off her desk when the yearbook is completed.

A GLARING SELF PORTRAIT! Senior co-editors Amy Shelton, Kim Carver and staff Adviser Senora Henricks take a picture of themselves to record the historical moment.

Putting this yearbook together took the effort of two dedicated staff workers. Seniors and co-editors Amy Shelton and Kim Carver worked not only through the school year, but also four weeks after the last day of school. When it was easy to let someone else do the work, these two finished the job they started with new adviser Jane Henricks.

Beebe attended meetings regularly. Senior Julie Fay helped out when deadlines seemed impossible to meet.

The assistance of these people must also be recognized. Mr. Merle Taylor answered numerous questions and provided typewriters. Mrs. Joann Bentley assisted with paperwork problems and mailings. Mr. Gene Schnierle provided many sports photographs, especially for the basketball and baseball sections. A special thank you to all those involved.

Several other staff members worked diligently throughout the school year. Juniors Lisa Carver, Teresa Hess, Angie Ingram, Sophomore Josh Gregory and Freshman Carrie THEY'RE CALLED CROPPERS! Senior co-editors Kim Carver and Amy Shelton crop their faces joking around.

TIME FOR A REST! Senora Henricks gets caught taking a break on her pop can instead of working on the yearbook.

FEEL THE BEAT

There were 29 students in Chorus and 15 Show Choir members. Mrs. Karen Wilkinson, the Chorus teacher, said "I wish there weren't so many class conflicts so more people could be in Chorus. Chorus is the type of class that helps build poise and self-confidence."

A lot of time and effort was put into chorus and Show Choir, both inside and outside of school. Tim Gadbury attended a week long Show Choir camp at Millikin University last summer. In Chorus, Tim and Tami Wilkinson both qualified for District III IMEA Choral Festival. Tami qualified for IMEA All-State for the second year, but also this year she performed in Honors Choir. The enthusiastic Choral director ended by saying, "I really appreciate working with the young adults in Show Choir. The class (Chorus), as a whole, has improved tremendously on part-singing. I'm pleased with the way we ended the 91-92 school year."

SHOWIN' OFF THEIR JAZZ! Freshmen Carrie Beebe, Melissa Ingram, Mary Ann Ayers, Paul Fuson and Junior Jeff Wells sing "Beauty and the Beast" at the Arts and Music Honors Concert.

DO-RE-MI. Choir members perform during the Christmas Music Concert.

CHORUS. Robb Larson, Tim Gadbury, Roger Strack, Jeff Wells, Jason Butterick, Alan Deffenbaugh, Carly Koebel, Tami Wilkinson, Julie Fay and Karla Nelsen.

CHORUS. Kristi Lane, Denise Arney, Shannon Jarboe, Paul Fuson, Chris Chestnut, Melissa Ingram, Robin Miller, Carrie Beebe, Stephanie Poague, Mary Ann Ayers, Tara Lamb, Jennifer Rexroad, Amy Slagle, Kendra Enyart and Jenny Pope.

FINE-TUNED SPIRIT

ROCK 'EM Sophomore Jason Butterick makes the band boogey while Junior Jeff Wells and Sophomore Jason Reilly look on amazed.

WAITIN' FOR THE RIGHT TIME Junior Jeff Wells waits for his part to play in the band.

The band had twenty-five members with Mr. York as director. Even though uniforms and bright lights highlighted the band at football games, the cool attitude didn't stop at the end of the season. The resounding trumpets played by Mr. York, Chris Thompson, and Ryan Manint began every boys' basketball game. At the spaghetti supper, the attire was informal and Mike Hawn's jazzy look of shades and hat matched the evening. During lunch hour, drums could be heard as Jeff Wells taught middle schoolers the basic drum beats. And we must acknowledge the talents of our resident composer, Jason Butterick.

STRIKE UP THE BAND Mr. Mark York conducts the band in the Spring Concert.

FLAG CORP Jennifer Drobena, Robin Miller, Amanda Upton, Heather Beurrier, and Holly Amaan.

BAND Mandy McCabe, Robin Miller, Karla Nelson, Mr. York, Tami Wilkinson, Jason Butterick, Jeremy Jones, Chris Thompson, Ryan Manint, and Mike Hawn.

BARCELONA IN BEMENT

Spanish Club celebrated its second year with a membership of 25 members. The officers were President James Brewer, Vice-President Julie Fay, Treasurer Amy Shelton and Secretary Denise Arney. At Christmas, the club gave each resident of Bement Manor Nursing Home a basket filled with fruit, cookies and gifts. Spanish Christmas carols were sung and club members then enjoyed a Christmas fiesta in the small gym. In the spring, the group saw the Joe Molinas dancers in Bloomington and ate lunch at Chi-Chi's. The strawberry delights were a big hit! At the end of the year, members received pens.

GOTCHA! Freshman Becky Clodfelter and Sophomore Jason Butterick are caught off guard as they help with the Christmas baskets.

CHOICES! Freshman Tara Lamb distributes the gifts for the Bement Manor Christmas baskets.

SPANISH CLUB. Mary Ann Ayers, Brandi Ramos, Nikki Blickenstaff, Julie Fay, Tara Lamb, James Brewer, Jeni McCullough, Kim Carver, Tara Sullender, Teri Hess, Amy Shelton, Kristi Becker, Karla Nelson, Josh Lietz and Clint Zoch.

SPANISH CLUB. Carol High, Denise Arney, Shannon Jarboe, Lisa Carver, Josh Gregory, Angela Ingrum, John Laroe, Holly Tracy, Jason Butterick, Paula Wood and Allison Fairbanks.

BRAIN STORMING

The 1992 Scholastic Bowl Team was very proud when they won the Little Okaw Valley Conference. They were the first team from Bement to ever win it. Practices and meets were difficult at times but the team members managed. Jason Butterick was named Conference MVP, answering 25 correct tossups. They had a one-and-one record in the regional meet. Led by Coach Jackie Tabaka and Time Keeper/Assistant Coach Louise Butterick, the team had a record-breaking year.

WE'RE THINKING! Senior James Brewer, Sophomores Tim Hite, Josh Gregory, Jason Butterick and Freshman Mary Ann Ayers think about a question at the Regional Scholastic Bowl Meet.

LOOK, A FIRST! Sophomore and Conference MVP Jason Butterick and Coach Tabaka stand proudly with Bement's first Conference Championship trophy.

CONGRATULATIONS! Senior Chris Thompson and Coach Tabaka are awarded the trophy by Mr. Stevens at the recognition assembly during homeroom.

SMART STUFF

LIGHT OF KNOWLEDGE. Juniors Lisa Carver and Teresa Hess listen carefully as Senior Chris Thompson explains the importance of NHS.

At Honors Night, two new members were inducted into the National Honor Society. Juniors Teresa Hess and Lisa Carver were added to the list in a ceremony held in the cafeteria. At graduation, Senior Chris Thompson spoke as valedictorian and classmate Amy Shelton spoke as salutatorian. The speeches revealed the two sides of commencement. Amy talked of the many changes that had already occurred in the school experiences of the class of '92. Chris explained the changes the public must be ready to take on in the future. The ceremony ended with the graduates celebrating with silly string and confetti.

VALEDICTORIAN. Chris Thompson gives an impassioned plea to understand social inequality during his commencement address.

SALUTATORIAN. Amy Shelton speaks fondly of the special memories in her emotional address at commencement.

NHS. Teresa Hess, Amy Shelton, Lisa Carver, Julie Fay, Tami Wilkinson and Chris Thompson.

CONGRATULATIONS! Juniors Lisa Carver and Teresa Hess learn their purpose as members of NHS as explained by Senior Julie Fay.

SAY CHEESE!! Mr. Lefever, sponsor of Life-savers is having a little fun at the get together at Miss Sharp's house.

PIG OUT!! Sophomore Nikki Blickenstaff, Junior Lisa Carver, sponsors Miss Sharp and Mr. Lefever grab a bite to eat in the middle of the action.

LIFESAVERS. Brandon Shonkwiler, Marc Wright, Jayde Mitchell, Amy Shelton, Angie Ingram, Tami Wilkinson, Nikki Blickenstaff, Lisa Carver, Denise Arney, Mr. Lefever, and Miss Sharp.

STYLE OR NOT? Freshmen Lora Snyder has a style change but Ernie Radmaker sticks to his old ways.

LEARNING SOME THING NEW

WHAT'S THAT SMELL? Freshman Lana Morgan, Twanna Jessie and Kacy Mitchell congregate with classmates Tara Lamb, Kristi Lane, Alex Logue and John Laroe, ready to conquer the first year of high school.

STROLLIN'! Junior Kevin Walsh casually walks up to Mr. Hensley's desk on a typical hot day.

IT IS LIKE THIS! Senior Amy Shelton explains to Junior Sherri Shott and Senior Amy Slagle what's going on while Freshman Kacy Mitchell passes by.

ROLL 'EM! Senior Jim Brewer rolls up the body he traced in the upstairs hallway during Spanish II.

MAKIN' THE GRADE. Junior Lori Yokley makes up a math test in the hallway during class.

LOOKIN' TOWARD THE FUTURE. Junior Brandon Shonkwiler and Mr. Lefever work on the class schedule for next year.

HIT THE ROAD!

At the beginning of the year, Country Companies presented a program showing the relationship between speed and stopping distance. The event was scary since 2 teachers and 2 students got behind the wheel of a car on a crowded street. At the end of the year, Douglas-Piatt Counties brought two dummies along to talk about seatbelt safety. During a self-esteem assembly presented by David Tallman of L.I.F.E. Ministries, Freshman John Laroe made a 3-point shot to give Freshman Lora Snyder the chance to give Mr. Doan a beauty treatment.

SHOOT THREE! Freshman Jacob Moore shoots, while classmate John Laroe and Junior Kevin Walsh concentrate hard on shooting three pointers.

GOTCHA! Freshman Lora Snyder gets back at Mr. Doan by giving him a whipped cream pie in the face during the self-esteem assembly.

DOING A GOOD JOB! Sophomores Jim Smith and Troy Shott help out with the skid test by measuring the length of the skid marks.

GEE, WHERE'S WALLY? David Tallman, a speaker from L.I.F.E. Ministries of Springfield, screams for self-esteem during an all-school assembly.

BURN RUBBER! Senior Tami Belton gives us a grin after completing the skid test.

LISTEN WELL! Senior Chris Thompson, Coaches Veldman and Taylor await their turns while Harry Porter and the Country Companies representative give them instructions.

BODILY HARM

During the 1991-1992 school year, the students had some good times in Physical Education. They also had some laughs by refusing to dress in the cold gym during winter. The effort proved fruitless. They played many sports, ranging from golf and bowling to softball and touch football. When National Physical testing came, everyone dreaded running the mile but were relieved to get it over.

Even though the students moaned and groaned about dressing, many hilarious experiences were had by all. The PE department consisted of Mrs. L. Taylor, Jr. J. Airsman, Mr. D. Veldman, and Mr. R. Gross.

FORE! — Senior Julie Fay, Juniors Ronna Felty, Angie Ingram, Lorrie Yokley, Sophomore Kristi Becker play golf near the football field in Mr. Airsman's 3rd hour PE class.

WATCH ME NOW. — Mr. Airsman shows his PE class how aerobics are to be done.

BOOGIE DOWN! — Seniors Lisa Buckner and Tammy Morris while they practice their dance moves during aerobics.

WHERE'D IT GO? — Junior Clint Zoch looks for his golf ball as it goes off into the sun.

FACTS 'N MONEY

WAITING PATIENTLY. Sophomore Paula Wood loads the computer so she can start working in Data Processing.

STUDY, BOYS! Freshmen Jessie Wright, Jeremy Thompson, and Scott Reed study for an upcoming test.

TYPE FASTER! Slowly but surely Sophomore Tim Hite types up his assignment on the computer for Data Processing.

WHATCHA DOIN'? Juniors Karla Nelsen and Josh Lietz look at what's happening on the other side of the room while the rest of the class pays attention.

BRAIN BREAK. Seniors Tami Belton, Tammy Morris, and Robb Larson take a moment to rest their brains at the end of Accounting.

TURN TO PAGE 273. Juniors Lisa Carver, Terri Hess, and Carol High are studying hard or are they hardly studying?

THEY WEREN'T TOO BAD! As Ms. Flood hands back a test to Junior Jenny Pope, Classmate Denise Arney and Senior Tim Gadbury wait anxiously.

DAY OF THE DEAD! Spanish II Class celebrated a Mexican holiday by dressing up in ghostly costumes.

FRUSTRATION SETS IN! Freshman Brandi Lawson, Juniors Denise Arney, Karla Nelson, Shannon Jarboe, and Freshman Kim Fay concentrate while they take the Spanish I test.

LOOK AT 'EM GO! The students in Biology take off on their exams enthusiastically.

SNEAKY GRIN. Mr. Wingle seems amused as he shares a funny moment with himself.

LOOK AT THAT FACE! Mr. Hensley takes a minute from his busy day to be Mr. Photogenic.

IF LOOKS COULD KILL. Sophomore Misty Tieman gives a classmate the glare while Mr. Wingle looks for her test at the end of class.

GET TO WORK! Some band members chat during a break at the Spaghetti Supper while others are trying hard to listen to instructions.

ARTISTS AT WORK. Senior Andy McClure looks deeply for a creative thought and classmate Lisa Buckner wants to make sure no black scrapings from her colored scratchboard are on her face.

FINISHING UP THE YEAR. With a smile, Mrs. Wilkinson figures last of the year book-keeping for chorus.

HUDDLE UP! Freshmen Jami Stoerger, Michael Hawn, and Jeremy Wright group together to talk during band while Ryan Manint seeks out a new discussion.

DON'T GIVE UP YOUR DAY JOB . . . HA! HA! Faculty Ensemble was a special treat at the Spaghetti Supper!

A MONSTER CREATION! Freshman Steve Gadbury shows off the mask that he made in Art I class during the art show exhibit.

SING, PLAY OR DRAW

STUDY CORNER

Even though the library was used quite a bit for study halls, it has other hidden treasures. Newspapers and magazines were always in big demand. The girls liked to grab the SEVENTEEN and the guys usually fought over the sports pages of the many newspapers. When students had class projects, Miss G was always willing to help the perfect ladies and gentlemen with all their library needs. She also taped various TI-IN programs for teachers and made sure the AV equipment was available for classroom use.

PEACE AND QUIET. Junior Laurie Einhorn and Sophomore Nicole Sharp study for final exams in the quiet library.

WIDE SELECTION. Freshman Melissa Ingram searches through the stacks of magazines for something interesting to read.

NEW VOCABULARY. Freshman Cindy Totten and Senior Amy Slagle use the big dictionary to help Miss G with a difficult crossword puzzle.

SAFE AND SOUND. Junior Mike Nelsen rests his knee as he reads the newspaper.

BUSY, BUSY! Junior Chris Drobena, Sophomore Brian Shumard and Senior Kent Shonkwiler work diligently on their work to keep from disturbing Mr. Taylor.

CHRIS KNOWS ALL! Senior Chris Stoerger thinks he is pulling a fast one over the study hall teacher.

QUIET PLEASE! Sophomores Adam Auth and Brad Stoerger work quietly on their schoolwork.

PUMPING LEAD! Freshmen Jennifer England, John Laroe study to make their grades while Junior Denise Arney pumps up some lead.

WORK TIME! Freshmen Cory Fay and Senior David Van Schoyck put their pencils to work.

PICK 'N CHOOSE

In TI-IN, Ronna Felty chose to take Anatomy/Physiology everyday after school from 3:00 to 3:50. Mr. Hensley watched over the class especially when Ronna dissected a fetal pig. Chris Thompson started every morning out earlier than most. From 8:00 to 8:50 Chris took Calculus with Mrs. Parrish as proctor.

In the Home-Ec department, people pigged out in Foods while their wardrobes got a boost in Clothing class. The baby eggs and Preschool were a big hit in Child Care. Big dreams of mansions were started in Living Environments. Thankfully everyone passed Management!

If you ventured out into the shop area, sparks really flew in the welding department. That dream house could be wired with the plans of industrial arts class. But, it's a good thing they kept those monster trucks out of the parking lot.

CALCULADORA! Senior Chris Thompson works on a calculus problem.

WELL LOOKIE THERE, Mr. Hensley and Junior Ronna Felty don't seem to mind the gory details of Anatomy/Physiology.

MAYBE I CAN HELP? Mr. Hensley helps Junior Ronna Felty while she is stumped on a problem.

WHAT'LL I DO NEXT? Mrs. Parrish keeps busy while Senior Chris Thompson works on calculus problem.

PREPARING FOR THE KIDS. In Child Care class, Mrs. Leisner explains to Seniors Jennifer Rexroad and Kent Shonkwiler what to expect with the children.

GETTIN' MESSY! Senior David Van Schoyck shows Lindsey how to fingerprint during the preschool session of Child Care.

SPARKS FLY! Sophomore Ryan Hawn finishes welding one of the samples needed to turn in for credit.

CAN YOU SAY CHEESE? Senior Roger Strack tells Annette to smile prettily for the camera during Child Care.

THE RIGHT TURN

High school years brought many hard choices and problems to the student body. But, on the second floor in the guidance office, two friendly faces could be found. Any time during the day, a student could talk to either guidance counselor about a schedule, school or personal conflict.

CLASS SCHEDULES. Junior Lorrie Yokley and Mr. LeFever work out her senior year schedule.

Mr. John Harshbarger could be seen riding around town during the day. But, not many people envied his position. Sitting next to our inexperienced drivers everyday wasn't all it was "crashed" up to be. He was somewhat secure in knowing that he had a brake pedal on his side of the car.

HANGING OUT. Ms. Sharp works her part of the time in the guidance office.

DUMMY! The crash dummies put on a show about seatbelt safety for the high school.

SIDEWALK. Sophomore Keela Shumard and Driver's Ed teacher Mr. Harshbarger go for a cruise around town.

IT'S GOT TO BE PERFECT! Senior Michael Pothoff takes his time completing his assignment, even though his T-shirt indicates he can't wait for graduation.

DOUBLE TROUBLE! Freshmen Jeremy Thompson and David Magos look like they're up to mischief in the resource room.

Ms. Rahn's room, on the second floor helped some students in their academic studies. Not only did Ms. Rahn tutor students, but she also taught different subjects. Her warm personality brought out the best in her classroom. Mrs. JoAnn Carpenter returned for a second year to be a teacher's aid for the Resource Room. Ms. Rahn and Mrs. Carpenter had to keep up with the classroom schedules of different classes in order to provide up-to-date guidance. Whether it was Math, English or Management, these two could handle it.

HELPFUL RESOURCES

CHANGING FACES

The second semester brought two new faces and one familiar acquaintance. Two University of Illinois student teachers came to teach History and English. Mr. Martin Hodel was the new student teacher in History. Mr. Hodel brought new ideas of teaching. Mr. Hodel encouraged his classes to discuss openly current events. Miss Holly Fernalld came and stepped into Mrs. Flood's spot to teach some English classes. When Mrs. Defend left for maternity leave, Mrs. Deb Leisner took over all the Home-Ec classes. The students really enjoyed all the new teachers.

DOUBLE TROUBLE! Mrs. Defend and her husband's hands are full with the twins at graduation.

SEW-MASTER. Mrs. Leisner is caught working on a sewing machine at the end of the year.

LET'S PARTY! Mrs. Defend is amazed by the party the senior class put on for her before her maternity leave.

HOMEWORK BLUES! Miss Fernalld helps Sophomore Eric Kline out on homework while Sophomore Jim Smith works on his quietly.

NOTE TIME. Mr. Hodel prepares his class by first putting some notes on the board.

CLEANING UP. Sophomore Keela Shumard helps classmate Machel Hill clean out her locker in the lower hallway.

STUDY SESSION. Sophomores Holly Tracy and Nicole Sharp take advantage of the quiet library and the extra time before the first exam of the day.

NO PROBLEM. Walking into the school the first day of exams, Sophomore Scott Henderson seems undisturbed by what the day holds for him.

WHERE'S EVERYBODY? Sophomores Tom Snyder and Jeff Dick are amazed to find themselves kings of the hill in the cafeteria during exams.

A WALKER? Sophomore Crystal Riley has to take final exams in the AV room because of a little accident.

The last days of classes followed the same pattern as past years. The seniors were in the gym, practicing for graduation on Senior Day. Meanwhile, the underclassmen were preparing for final exams in the classrooms. Lockers were cleaned out and textbooks returned. Club picnics and last minute get-togethers were held.

Homeroom families celebrated the end of the year with morning parties. At 2:00 on Wednesday, everybody bolted out of the school, only to return on Friday morning to receive report cards.

THE FINAL DAYS

SEASON'S CHANGE

SHOOT FOR ONE! Junior Karla Nelson shoots a freethrow after being hacked while other Juniors Denise Arney, Shannon Jarboe and Senior Kim Carver dash in for rebounding position.

HANG TIME. Freshman John Laroe and Senior Roger Strack try their best to block an offensive player out of a basket.

WRESTLING

HANG IN THERE! Freshman Heather Isbell, Carrie Beebe, Melissa Ingram, Sophomores Misty Tieman and Machel Hill pose in an elegant manner while Juniors Denise Shumard, Denise Arney, Seniors Tami Wilkinson, Tami Belton, Carly Koebel and Julie Fay are monkeying around on the bars.

CAT FIGHT? Sophomore Jeni McCullough battles with Arthur to escape the mess she has gotten herself into.

REACH FOR THE NET! Junior Lisa Carver and Senior Tami Belton practice their excellent volleyball form during warm-ups before a match against Cerro Gordo.

REST OR INJURY? Senior Chris Stoerger takes a break, so he can have his injury looked at.

SERVING TO WIN

The volleyball players began thinking about another great season during the summer, as they lifted weights to get ready. One week before school started, the girls were practicing with double sessions. The season didn't go as well as the year before, but still ended on a high note. Junior Shannon Jarboe stated, "We had a good season this year and next year there is a lot of upcoming potential. So there is a good chance of being even better."

Senior Tami Wilkinson was named Second Team All-Conference and Co-MVP, while Junior Shannon Jarboe made First Team All-Conference (unanimous), Co-MVP, Most Kills, and Best Service Percentage. Junior Jenny Pope received the Hustle Award and Sophomore Kristi Becker was awarded the Most Improved.

LINE UP! Seniors Julie Fay, Tammy Morris, Tami Wilkinson and Junior Jenny Pope practice their bumps before a match.

TIME TO LEARN

First-time head coach Dirk Veldman took over a challenging job with few returning lettermen. Even though the team finished off with a 2-7 record, it was an educational season for both team and coaching staff. "Although we didn't win a lot, I was pleased with their effort," said Veldman. Senior Roger Strack added, "I know I'm gonna miss football."

The JV team suffered many injuries and academic difficulties. John Harshbarger was in the coaching seat once again for the JV gridders. Sophomore Mike Nelsen said, "The worst is being hurt." Sophomore Josh Gregory added, "I felt the record didn't show the talent."

There were many awards given out despite the record. Senior Chris Stoerger was named Second Team All Conference defense, MVP, most tackles and Co-captain. Senior Roger Strack, Tim Gadbury and Shannon Dick were also Co-captains. Senior Dave Van Schoyck received most improved and Junior Marcus Wright was named best blocker.

PASS THE BALL! Senior Chris Stoerger stands at midfield, waiting to haul in the pass from the quarterback.

I'VE FALLEN AND I CAN'T GET UP! Sophomores Jeff Dick, Troy Shott and Senior Dave Van Schoyck wait for the whistle while Senior Brian Shewmaker is brought down by two VG defenders.

CO-CAPTAINS. Seniors Roger Strack, Tim Gadbury, Chris Stoerger, and Shannon Dick.

BEING LIKE MIKE

The Michael Jordan wanna-be's may not have captured many wins, but at least they beat the longtime rival, Cerro Gordo. The underclassmen really made a difference. Freshmen John Laroe and Jacob Moore had starting positions by the end of the season. Almost all the underclassmen saw varsity action.

At the sports banquet, BHS had one player make a conference team. Junior Kevin Walsh made 2nd Team All Conference while also receiving awards for Co-MVP and Leading Rebounder. The only senior, Roger Strack got an award for Co-MVP. Junior Jeff McCullough was recognized for Outstanding Defense. Sophomore Ryan Schnierle not only had hot hands for scoring but received an award for Most Assists. Freshman John Laroe was rewarded for Best Shooting Percentage.

SKI HIGH! Senior Roger Strack takes a jumpshot from the outside corner to help out the varsity team.

SHOT ON THE RUN! Sophomore starter Ryan Schnierle takes an easy layup through defenders.

HOOPIN' TIME! Freshman John Laroe shoots over a defender while Junior Kevin Walsh looks for a rebound.

PUMPIN' UP! Junior Kevin Walsh shoots a jump shot in the lane while classmate Jeff McCullough blocks out!

WINNER! Senior Roger Strack is all smiles after he received his award.

IS THAT JORDAN? Sophomore Jeff Dick concentrates on an open man while also trying to imitate Michael Jordan.

HOOP — MEISTERS

In the four years as head coach, Wingle has won the Bement Round Robin. On this year's all tournament team, Junior Shannon Jarboe and Senior Kim Carver were recognized.

The numbers were smaller but that didn't keep Coach from winning. Bement placed third in the LOVC. The inexperienced JV showed potential even though the record wasn't so good. The freshmen had a lot to learn to be able to play HS basketball.

The sports banquet turned out well for everyone. Coach Wingle was pleased with the girls' season. Receiving conference titles were Juniors Jenny Pope (second team) and Shannon Jarboe (honorable mention). Senior Kim Carver was First Team and All-Area. Junior Jenny Pope had the Most Assists. Junior Shannon Jarboe received Best Free-throw percentage. Senior Kim Carver was awarded MVP, Leading Scorer and Leading Rebounder. Kim was also the second girl in Bement history to make the First Team.

BLOCK OUT! Freshman Kristi Lane jogs in for a rebound while Sophomore Misty Tieman and classmate Tara Sullender block out.

AWARDS! Juniors Shannon Jarboe, Jenny Pope and Senior Kim Carver beam as they show off their awards given to them during the sports banquet.

TRACK OF TIME

Although the BHS track team had no state qualifiers, they did have some great accomplishments. Junior Brian Tieman placed third in the boys Regionals in the triple jump. He had a leap of 39 feet, 11 inches. Senior Alan Deffenbaugh placed fifth at the Regionals in the high jump.

None of the girls had state qualifying times or leaps. But the squad was young with only one senior, Jennifer Rexroad.

Special awards were given out at the sports banquet. Junior Shannon Jarboe received Most Valuable Girl. Junior Denise Arney was named Most Promising. Junior Brian Tieman was also named Most Valuable Boy.

Track was a sport you really had to stick with because meets were held on Friday evenings. Denise Shumard said, "Friday nights are the toughest. Your friends are out while you're supporting the school athletics."

CLEAR RUN. Sophomore Kristi Becker clears the hurdle and pushed for the next.

MUSCLE UP! Junior Shannon Jarboe runs her fastest to keep her relay in a placing spot.

KNEES UP! Junior Jeff McCullough paces himself in the mile.

TUCK! Senior Alan Deffenbaugh tucks his head to avoid the strong wind.

CATCH HIM! Sophomore Jason Dowell pushed to catch the runner in front of him.

INHALE, EXHALE. Freshman Jeremy Wright tries to hang in there in the last 50 meters.

BREATH. Senior Andy McClure grabs some traction from the cinders to help out his team's time in the relay.

A LITTLE BINGO

Varsity Scores

The baseball team had a slow start as the first three games of the season were cancelled. The young team waited a whole month to see its first win. Awards at the end of the season were given to Senior Shannon Dick for All Conference Designated Hitter and Most Valuable Player. Freshman Ernie Radmaker was awarded Top Earned Running Average and Top Pitcher. Freshman John Laroe was named Most Improved while Junior Kevin Walsh received Top Fielding Percentage. Letters were given to Jeff Dick, Shannon Dick, Marcus Wright, Kevin Walsh, Josh Lietz, Jeff McCullough, Ryan Schnierle, Ernie Radmaker, John Laroe and Jeremy Wright. Sophomore Jeni McCullough and Junior Jenny Pope kept stats all season.

COME ON, GUYS! Waiting to bat, Freshman Jason Reilly stands off to the side to watch the action.

CLOSE IN! Junior Brandon Shonkwiler rallies to trap a ball down the third base line.

GOOD FORM. Freshman Ernie Radmaker pitches one in, using all of his concentration and effort.

VARSITY BASEBALL. Ryan Schnierle, Kevin Walsh, Jeff McCullough, Marcus Wright, Ernie Radmaker, Jake Mann, Josh Nichols, Jason Reilly, Josh Lietz, Jeff Dick, Andy McClure, John Laroe, Jeremy Wright and Coach Veldman.

READY TO BAT. Juniors Josh Lietz, Jeff McCullough and Senior Shannon Dick watch the game from the sidelines. Shannon was named First Team All Conference and Second Team All Area.

HOMER TIME! Sophomore Jake Mann connects with the ball with hopes of a homer.

GOOD EYE! Junior Marc Wright waits for a good pitch so he can knock it out of the ballpark.

BREAK! Freshmen John Laroe and Jeremy Wright catch a few z's before it is their turn to play.

STRETCH! Sophomore Ryan Schnierle does all he can to catch the ball and keep his foot on the bag for an out.

SPIRIT MACHINE

The cheerleading squad showed us all year that they were never lacking school spirit. Under the direction of Mrs. Karen Wilkinson, the cheerleaders didn't just decorate the school for Homecoming. During Halloween the lockers and hallways were hidden behind orange and black balloons and streamers. For Christmas, the lockers of basketball players were decorated with wrapping paper and bows. The spirit posters displayed in the hallways throughout the various seasons showed what talented artists the cheerleaders were. The student body must have appreciated it because most of the balloons, streamers and posters were undisturbed. The candy given to players and the homecoming activities were continued but all the extras set the squad of cheerleaders apart from others.

CATCH A BREEZE. Cheerleaders Heather Isbell, Tami Belton, Tami Wilkinson, Carly Koebel, Melissa Ingram and Denise Shumard work to keep the run-through from blowing away.

EATING TIME! Freshman Heather Isbell and Carrie Beebee work the concession to help pay off the debt.

ARE YOU DRENCHED? Senior Tami Belton cheers on the bulldogs after she just ran back from town in the rain.

VARSITY CHEERLEADERS. Julie Fay, Tami Wilkinson, Denise Arney, Denise Shumard, Tami Belton and Carly Koebel.

JV CHEERLEADERS. Machel Hill, Carrie Beebee, Melissa Ingram and Heather Isbell.

OH, NO! Seniors Julie Fay, Tami Wilkinson and Carly Koebel cheer the basketball players on during a tense moment.

DECK THE HALLS. Juniors Denise Arney and Denise Shumard put the finishing touches on the boys bathroom door at Christmas.

WHAT A MESS! Senior Julie Fay smiles despite several attempts to get out the paint splattered all over her sister's outfit. Junior Denise Arney looks on in amusement.

AWARD-WINNING PERFORMANCE. The cheerleading squad shows why the varsity squad won awards at summer camp.

GOOD JOB, GIRLS! Mrs. Karen Wilkinson honors Juniors Denise Shumard, Denise Arney, Seniors Julie Fay, Carly Koebel and Tami Wilkinson at the sports banquet.

TIDAL WAVE! Senior Matt Woolley jumps on the equipment while Seniors Tim Gadbury, Roger Strack, and Chris Stoerger try to steady themselves.

TIME TO MOVE ON. Senior President Tim Gadbury leads the class of '92 towards high school graduation by moving his tassel.

YOU SEE, LADIES AND GENTLEMEN. Senior Julie Fay addresses the audience during a show choir performance.

JUST A THOUGHT...

I've been in a lot of activities at school, but few were so demanding and fun at the same time. A lot of work goes into a yearbook, yet we had an incredible year! I'm just sorry that I didn't go out the years before. You get to know what the high school has to offer. You also see people at their best and sometimes most awkward moments. I wish I could convince more people to go out for Annual Staff because when you are out of high school the book will be your memories! The more ideas the staff has the better the book will reflect how everything really happened. I hope everyone enjoys the book as much as we enjoyed making it. Good Luck next year!

MAKING A BREAK! Senior Tami Belton, Jennifer Rexroad, Tammy Morris, Mike Hothoff, and Kim Carver show that they are anxious to leave.

Everyone makes complaints because they aren't in the yearbook enough to satisfy them. The yearbook is a lot harder than the average student thinks. No one person initially tries to keep individuals out. This year one of the main focuses was to get everyone in at least once. We made our goal!! Now it is the student body's turn. If you have a complaint join the staff and make a change. I really enjoyed working on the staff. My favorite part was the sports but I'm sure you already knew that. GOOD LUCK with next year's book and enjoy BHS.
