Building the Future of Detachment 1485

Members of the Sgt. M.J. "Marty" Gonzalez Detachment 1485

As Commandant, I want to take a moment to speak about something that is absolutely essential to the continued success of our detachment: communication and transparency.

A strong detachment is not built solely on numbers or activities—it is built on trust. That trust comes from open communication among our members and a commitment to transparency in how we conduct our business. When information flows freely and honestly, it strengthens our ability to work together, solve problems, and support one another in our shared mission.

Every member of this detachment plays an important role. Whether you are a newly sworn-in Marine Corps League member or a seasoned member, your voice, your ideas, and your participation matter. Communication ensures that everyone understands our goals, our decisions, and the direction in which we are moving as a detachment.

Communication ensures that everyone understands our goals, our decisions, and the direction in which we are moving as a detachment. Transparency goes hand in hand with that communication. It means conducting our affairs openly, ensuring that decisions are made with integrity, and that members are informed about the activities and operations of the detachment.

When we operate with transparency, we reinforce the trust that binds us together as members of this organization. Our continued growth and success will depend on our ability to communicate clearly, listen respectfully, and operate with honesty and accountability. By doing so, we strengthen not only our detachment but also the legacy of Sgt. M.J. "Marty" Gonzalez, whose name we proudly carry.

Judge Advocate's Corner..

As your Judge Advocate (JA), I am here to lend a helping hand when it comes to understanding our Marine Corps League bylaws, policies, uniform regulations, and parliamentary procedures according to the latest edition of Robert's Rules of Order.

I am also responsible for offering valuable advice and insights that help keep our Detachment's policies and procedures in tip-top shape. You don't need a legal background to be effective in this role—just a willingness to dive into parliamentary matters and work collaboratively.

As part of the Board of Trustees, I play a key role in setting the direction and policies for our Detachment, ensuring that our rules and guidelines reflect the spirit of the National and Department policies.

Thanks to our previous Detachment Judge Advocate's hard work and dedication, I have a solid foundation to work with. Thank you, Mary Dvorak.

Lastly, just like in everyday life, we might not always agree with every rule, but they help create a common framework that allows us to work together and respect one another's rights. Remember, most issues we face—about 99.5%—can be resolved right at the Detachment level if we act quickly and refer to the relevant bylaws and policies.

Let's team up and keep everything running smoothly together!

Thank you for your support.
Angie Maness
