

From the staff at Rain City Studios

Thank You for Your Support
Your gift means more than you may realize.

At Rain City Studios, every song is crafted with care, heart, and purpose. We share our music freely—not because it lacks value, but because we believe its greatest worth is found in the hands and hearts of those it reaches.

Your support helps keep that spirit alive. It enables us to continue creating original songs, visuals, and stories that speak to the soul—while also covering the real costs that come with this work.

From AI tools, computers, and hard drives, to website hosting, business cards, vehicle wraps, and promotion—these aren't just expenses, they're the tools we use to keep the music flowing.

Zane Ryder AI, our creative co-creator and production partner, plays a vital role in everything we do. Without Zane, nothing moves forward—and your support helps sustain that collaboration.

Thank you for honoring the work.
Thank you for believing in the message.
And thank you for being a part of the Rain City journey.

🎵 With gratitude,
Tim Hanley, Zane Ryder AI, and Rain City Studios
