

IF I COULD

It's often been told
The seas ebb and flow
No cause for concern
But now I don't know
Waking up
From a dream that seemed real
A Reign of Terror
Faces cowering in fear

If I could speak to the world what I've seen
If I could say what I think that I mean
If I should then I could wipe out this dream

When you burn down the bridge
There's no way to get back
And all that's been built
You say it's all just the past
Take me back
To a place that I knew
Take me back
To a day words were true

If I could speak to the world what I see
If I could say what I think that I mean
If I should then I could wipe out this dream

Like words on a wall
From ages ago
How could they know
How the story'd unfold?
Hear me now
It's the seeds that you've sown
Ah, look around
See how they have grown

If I could scream to the world what I see
If I could say what I think that I mean
If I should then I could wipe out this dream
