

JUST A DREAM

So it seems
Till the dawn light brings truth to the scene
I can't fight
I can't hide
This fear that's gripping inside

If I could fly away
On my way today...

In the sun
On the run
With his hand held fast to the gun
But the round
Never meets
The mark he can never defeat

On my way today
On my way again
On my way

If you seek
You will find
But truth's never clearly defined
And in time
You will see
What is lost you can never retrieve

Fly my body away
On my way today
On my way
