QUOTE OF THE MONTH

“The good [in the United States] would never have come into being without the blessing and power of Jesus Christ... Whoever tries to conceive the American word without taking full account of the suffering and love and salvation of Christ is only dreaming. I know how embarrassing this matter is to politicians, bureaucrats, businessmen, and cynics; but whatever these honored men think, the irrefutable truth is that the soul of America is, at its best and highest, Christian.”..... Charles Malik,
Lebanon’s ambassador to the United Nations

INSPIRATION

Blessed is the nation whose God is the Lord. Psalms 33:12

PRAY FOR AMERICA

“You and I have a rendezvous with destiny. We will preserve for our children this, the last best hope of man on earth, or we will sentence them to take the first step into a thousand years of darkness. If we fail, at least let our children and our children’s children say of us we justified our brief moment here. We did all that could be done.”

Ronald Reagan

BIBLE TRIVIA ANSWER

D. All of the above. Noah’s three sons and their wives repopulated the earth after the flood. Thus Noah and his nine forebears listed in Gen 5, of which Seth and Methuselah are two, are all fathers of today’s humans.

Genesis 9: 18-19

SOMETHING TO THINK ABOUT

BY LARRY WHITELEY

25 SECONDS

A friend of mine at church sends me YouTube videos from a country boy named Buddy Brown. Of all of Buddy’s videos, there is one that I keep thinking about. Here it is in Buddy’s words.

We had a FedEx delivery guy that changed my life. He only spent about 25 seconds with us each time he delivered a package. Now, what can you possibly do in 25 seconds to help someone? I used to think that. I have learned it can be more valuable than 15 or 20-minute conversations.

His name was Robert. He would come to our house with the most infectious smile and laughter. “How’s the family? How’s the boys? They still fishin’?” When my son caught a big bass, and showed it to him Robert would make over it like a proud daddy. If the boys were playing basketball, he would grab the ball, shoot and make a 3-pointer. Then he would run back to his truck and get to work. It all happened in 25 seconds.

We got looking forward to him pulling into our driveway. My boys would run outside, and I would stop what I was doing to talk to Robert.

We couldn’t have been more different. Robert was a black guy tattooed from head to toe, with dreadlocks in his hair. I’m a white guy in a camo shirt, cowboy boots, and a ball cap. None of that matters – he made every second count. That is what I remember about him. Robert was shot and killed while sitting in his delivery truck in a rough neighborhood last year. He left behind a wife and seven kids.

The reason I am telling you all this is that maybe there are times you spend 25 seconds with people. You think it doesn’t matter. I cried the day Robert got killed. He mattered that much to me and my boys.

So are we going to use that 25 seconds or throw it away? Some people are desperate to receive 25 seconds. In Matthew 24:12, Jesus is talking about the last days. He said that because of the increase in wickedness, the love of most will grow cold. I am not going to let that happen to me.

Ask about their family, ask about their kids. Robert delivered packages and spent 25 seconds with us, yet I still tell others about him long after he is gone.

Buddy and I ask you to think about how you will spend 25 seconds with people. Welcome a visitor, invite someone to church, tell someone about Jesus. Touch their lives. All it takes is 25 seconds.

SRCC CHILDREN'S DEPARTMENT

Hello Parents & Church Family,

I would like to say THANK YOU to everyone who has stepped up to offer help with Children's Church. Currently, we need volunteers for First Service Children's Church at the Stockyards on first and third Sundays. If you are not on our schedule and would still like to help, I can always use you in other ways, or add you to my list of backup teachers. Also, I would like to offer a children's service at the Event Center Stables for the 10:00 service if there is interest. That of course will require more volunteers, so if you attend that service and would be interested, please let me know.

Vacation Bible School will be June 24-27 from 5:30 to 7:30. Volunteers are needed. If you are interested in helping out with VBS, there is a sign-up sheet at the check-in desk (upstairs at the Stockyards or at the Stables at the EC). There will be a planning meeting on June 1st at the Stables from 2:00 – 4:00. June 23rd at 1 p.m., we will begin setting up for VBS at the Stables.

Thank you!

Tami Greene
