Quote of the Month

"They say the world has become too complex for simple answers. They are wrong. There are no easy answers, but there are simple answers. We must have the courage to do what we know is right."

SOMETHING TO THINK ABOUT.....by Larry Whiteley

DIVINE TASKS

If you dread the work you need to do, try changing your attitude toward your work! Max Lucado's book Cure for the Common Life tells of a stay-at-home mom that keeps this sign over her sink: Divine Tasks Performed Here Daily. You see, work can be worship. Volunteering at Cowboy Church can be worship too.

1 Peter 2:9 says, "You are a chosen people. You are a kingdom of priests, a holy nation, God's very own possession. This is so you can show others the goodness of God." So, let every detail in your life—your words, actions, volunteering, whatever—be done in the name of Jesus.

Your work is God's pulpit! When you attend Cowboy Church, you are going to God's house. When you volunteer at Cowboy Church, it is God's pulpit! By helping in any way, you are showing the goodness of God to others.

Step boldly out of your usual circle of friends you sit with or stand and visit with every time you are at Cowboy Church. If you see someone you do not know, introduce yourself. Try to get to know them and make them feel welcome. And, for heaven's sake, don't get upset if someone is in your seat. Let them see you smiling and happy to be at Cowboy Church rather than griping or complaining about something.

If you can pray, be a prayer warrior. Can you work with youth, children, or infants? Then volunteer. If you can cook, clean up, sing, play an instrument, visit the sick, work security, or make coffee and put out doughnuts, then volunteer. Find something for you to do to match the gifts that God has given you. By volunteering, you will be blessing others. You will find that you will also receive a blessing.

You never know when someone might come to Jesus just by watching what you do and listening to what you say. Always remember, you may be the only bible some people will ever read. Maybe we need to put up a sign at the Livestock Center and our Event Center that says, Divine Tasks Performed Here.

Cowboy Wisdom

No matter how educated, talented, rich or cool you believe you are, how you treat people ultimately tells all. Integrity is everything.
