

No Name News

A much needed review of “White Rabbit”

Special points of interest:

- 4/2-6 Spring Break
- 4/8 Gathering Meeting
- 4/15 Bake Sale
- 5/13 Concert Auction

For years youth and adults have asked me what white rabbit was really all about and I never had an answer... but... now I do (kind of). Thanks to my resourceful sister-in-law, I have pages of information regarding white rabbit. From what I can figure, the tradition started in England a very long time ago and was carried to US soil with the early settlers.

Saying White Rabbit on the first of the month, before anyone else, seems to be a blessing for a great month or wishing you a good month. There is a competition factor built in, and I did find some rules online that we may or may not adapt to our group.

1. Full credit will only be awarded for live contact.
2. Contact will be determined based upon the time where the individual is residing when contact is made. In other words, if I'm in Iowa and I'm calling you in Washington, I can only get points if it's 12am or later in Washington.

3. Contact must occur between one second past midnight on the first day of the month and 11:59:59pm on the first.
4. Partial credit may be awarded for unusual and creative contact. This could include items such as flowers, balloons, sky-writing, dancing messengers or other similar efforts.
5. Faxes, emails, texts, and letters will not be considered valid contact. (Texts are valid for distances over 75 miles)
6. January 1 of each year will count for double credit.
7. Contestants must be of age to enable them to initiate contact in future months. In other words, it's not fair to white rabbit a new born.

8. The winner each month is entitled to gloat during the remainder of the month.
9. It is not legal to disguise your voice in order to make other contestants believe that they have reached a party other than yourself.
10. In the event of any question over the interpretation of these rules, final determination shall be made by a mutually agreed upon, neutral arbitrator.

So there you have it... clear as mud! Let the games begin.

Here's wishing you a great month!

Houston Gathering News

87 Days to Launch!
We only have three major fundraisers left and we need to put all our energy and enthusiasm into them. April 1—Easter Brunch—you should already have info on this from Dawn.
May 13—Concert/Auction—

Please let Celia know what you are performing and let me know what your auction items are.
June 18-22—Nason Creek Rest Stop- this fund raiser will determine how much money we can supplement for meals. A sign up will be sent out early May. A couple more bake sales and a couple more meetings and we're on our way.

Yikes! We got this.

Did you know

Look at this big empty space. No one sent me anything to put in the youth newsletter so now I am typing in 26 font to fill in the space.

stuff

Senior High Youth

Sunday, April 8th is going to be affirmation day at youth group. Please wear a light colored t-shirt and clothes that you are ok with getting dirty. You might want to bring a change of clothes as well. It's gonna be awesome!

S/H May Youth Weekend at Holden Village

May 25-27

I have registered us and paid for us but have not collected any fees from those of you signed up. Please turn in your $100 registration fee no later than May 1st.

Confirmation Retreat April 20 –21

8th grade youth, this is for you! Friday, April 20th we will meet at church right after school and head over to East Wenatchee. Rob and Cheryl Salter have opened their home to us for our retreat. Jameson will be joining us as chef extraordinaire. We will be back at church no later than 12:30pm on Saturday, which will give those of you going to wen-con plenty of time to enjoy whatever it is you enjoy. While on the retreat we will talk about what confirmation is, let you try to stump the staff with questions you might have and work on your stoles. Please have some ideas of what you would like to put on them. You might want to start thinking about a confirmation verse as well. Any questions, contact Beth.