FALL 2018

Grace Lutheran Youth

Coming down from the mountain top.

Summertime can often be filled with mountaintop experiences. Camps of all types, vacations, a hike that becomes an adventure, visiting a country for the first time, service trips, the Gathering, the list can go on and on. Mountaintop experiences are a natural high—a time when you are excited, happy, rejuvenated, sometimes ready to take on the world.

What happens when you come down from that metaphorical mountain? When day to day is just "normal", or back at work or school? How do you hold on to the energy and not fall into a funk?

Frankly, I wish I knew.

In my lifetime I have had quite a few mountaintop experiences. I have also walked through some dark valleys. I guess the bonus to being "older" is I have learned how to level out those experiences.

When you come down from that mountain and you feel you are stuck in the valley it's time to share the experiences that brought you joy. Laugh about the memories, look at pictures/videos, and share, and then share again.

Remember that God was with you on the mountain and will most certainly be with you in the valley.

The Lord is my constant companion. There is no need that He cannot fulfill. Whether His course for me points to the mountaintops of glorious ecstasy or to the valleys of human suffering, He is by my side, He is ever present with me.

He is close beside me when I tread the dark streets of danger, and even when I flirt with death itself, He will not leave me. When the pain is severe, He is near to comfort.

When the burden is heavy, He is there to lean upon.

When depression darkens my soul, He touches me with eternal joy. When I feel empty and alone, He fills the aching vacuum with His power. My security is in His promise to be near to me always, and in the knowledge that He will never let me go.

I'm starting something new. You can teach an old dog new tricks :) I will be sending out quarterly newsletters that will fill you in on what's going on and give you calendars for 3 months.

Fall will come out in September and cover September thru November.

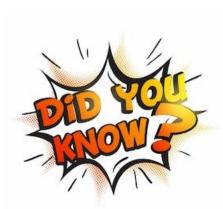

Winter will come out in December and cover December thru February.

Spring will come out in March and cover March thru May.

Summer will come out in June and cover June thru August.

If there is something important that comes up I will send out a postcard and put the info on social media. I'm hoping this will cut down on postage costs as well as help me put my calendar together a head of time.
