Harvest – A Time to be Good Tired

Dear People of Grace;

Being raised in a farming family, the fall was not a time to rest. We worked long hours with fields, equipment and grain bins. I remember so clearly the start of football season, always a few weeks before the start of the school year. We spent the whole morning in physical conditioning, after which I was so very tired and sore. Dad was gracious enough to give me that time to be part of the team. As soon as I would return home, I would be fully involved in harvesting. For me, it meant long hours sitting in tractors, trucks, and combines. The combination of conditioning in the morning and sitting for the next several hours was miserable for my body. Every muscle was stiff.

The Mission of Grace Lutheran Church:

To proclaim and celebrate the gospel of Jesus Christ through word and sacraments so that a community of believers is created, trained, nurtured, and sent into mission.

Mud, dirt, and dusty conditions from the crops made for messy work. I remember developing allergies from the chaff, which cropped up after living in the Northwest during the school year. When I later came upon Robert Frost's poem "After Apple-Picking," I felt an affinity to these words: "For I have had too much of apple-picking: I am overtired of the great harvest I myself desired."

It may sound like I'm saying harvest time is not worth the mess and misery. One can feel overwhelmed with too much to do. However, I think this is the season for what we can call "good tired." There is purpose and meaning in what we do in relationship with the world, and with Christ in our lives. Since God is alive in you, God has something to offer the world through your life. You, by virtue of the love of Jesus in you, are a worker in the harvest.

Blessings to you,

Pastor James Aalgaard

Upcoming Events

Drum Circle

2nd Thursday and Last Tuesday of Each Month
4:30 p.m.

The mind is a story-telling machine. It loves to plan, scheme, look to the future, overthink past events, create story-lines, and organize itself in a way that isn't always beneficial. Rhythm is therapeutic. The consistency and stability of rhythm is able to alleviate stress and relax the mind. <https://drumhelper.com/blog/>

Drum Circle offers an opportunity for all the above and a new way to pray in a group borrowing from Spirituals in call-and-response.

One last thing -- drumming is FUN!!

All ages, abilities, ethnic, & cultural origins are welcome here under the Loft.

October dates: Thursday, 10/8 and Tuesday, 10/27

Monthly Evening Prayer

Monday, October 12, at 6:30 p.m.
1st United Methodist Church

Our next monthly service of prayer, meditation, song and readings will be Monday, October 12, at 6:30 p.m. at 1st United Methodist Church (941 Washington Street, Wenatchee). The service is based on the worship format that was developed in Taizé, France. Taizé music is known for its easy-to-learn refrains and layered harmonies. It is often accompanied by guitar, flute, and other acoustic instruments. Time for quiet reflection and prayer will be offered. This prayer service will not include Holy Communion.

Friday Night Out

With Kara Hunnicutt, cello &
Tammy Kintner, English Horn

Friday, October 9

7:00 p.m.

Grace Lutheran Church

FREE!

(suggested donation of $25 per household)

Friday Night Out proudly presents organist Justin Murphy-Mancini, a keyboardist and composer dedicated to exciting and enriching audiences with music from throughout time and space. He appears regularly in concert as an organist, harpsichordist, and collaborative pianist. Jay is committed to bringing diverse and wide-ranging programs that show off the unique characteristics of the instruments he plays. With an exceptionally wide-ranging repertoire, he juxtaposes familiar and beloved works with pieces by unfamiliar or underrepresented musicians. He is also a champion of music by living composers. Since 2011, he has premiered over a dozen new works for the organ and the harpsichord and has specifically promoted the works of Emma Lou Diemer and Eva-Maria Houben. He maintains an active presence on YouTube (youtube.com/@j_murphy-mancini).

As a composer, Murphy-Mancini inhabits accessible and avant-garde domains equally, writing for both professional and amateur musicians. Ensemble SurPlus, the Callithumpian Consort, members of the Mivos Quartet, and TAK have performed his works. Much of his original output is inspired by themes and texts from the early Middle Ages, especially that of Anglo-Saxon England.

At Pacific Lutheran University in Tacoma, WA, Jay teaches a variety of courses in addition to primary and secondary organ study. He also serves as University Organist and accompanies the Choral Union. In his capacity as a sacred musician, Jay has served congregations across the U.S. for over 20 years. He earned degrees in organ performance, composition, historical keyboards, and philosophy from Oberlin College and Conservatory of Music, and holds a Ph.D. in composition from the University of California, San Diego.

The Friday, October 9 program, American Diversity in Miniature, features Kara Hunnicutt on cello and Tammy Kintner on English horn, beginning at 7:00pm at (Grace Lutheran Church, 1408 Washington Street, Wenatchee). The event is free and open to the public (suggested donation: $25).

Conversations about Government: A Civics Review led by two lay Christians

- Concerned that “churches are just too political” these days?
- Worried government is too big, too weak, too out of touch, too corrupt, too expensive, too_____?
Not even sure what government is these days?
- Want to talk about citizenship in the 21st Century, but don’t want people to yell at you and call you a fascist, a commie, a loser, or worse?

Join a series of conversations (choose your level of participation) and listen; ask questions; make observations; practice civil dialogue; and learn about government and “civic virtue” all in a spirit of love and respect for one another. Partisan politics and theological differences are not topics for our conversations.

All who wish to attend are welcome.

The Leaders

Jim Bailey retired Wenatchee High School Civics Teacher and fourteen-year member of the Wenatchee City Council. Member of Wenatchee Brethren Baptist Church

Suellen Harris retired Wenatchee High School Civics Teacher who served two terms on the Chelan County Planning Commission. Member of Wenatchee Grace Lutheran Church

Funds raised will benefit the World Light Foundation (WLF), founded in 2004 by a former Moses Lake family. The WLF operates three homes in Vapnyarka, Ukraine for abandoned and orphaned children.

The musical program will include musical selections performed by baritone Misha Myznikov. Originally from Azerbaijan, Myznikov received music degrees from The Institute of Arts Perm (Russia). He has performed with the Seattle Opera since 1993, and led choirs at Russian, Lutheran, and Baptist churches in Seattle. He and his family relocated to Moses Lake in 2022.

The recital is free to attend, donations are encouraged. Donations are received by Venmo and PayPal ('WLF' to @Robin-Wientge) or by check.

BeFriender Ministry

A note about the BeFriender logo:

Water helps us think about refreshment, cleansing, healing, and our baptismal call to ministry.

Hands help us recognize we have mutuality with one another. This symbol is an intentional grasp; it is firm yet gentle, implying trust and acceptance.

Wheat connotes nourishment and communion, loaves and fishes.

The church window reminds us that BeFriending is being church for one another, as the care for the whole people of God is a responsibility of the whole people of God.

Being a companion is about being present to another person's pain.

Grace Lutheran Premieres New Hymn Tune

On Reformation Sunday (October 25), we will premiere a new tune for a Psalm 46 paraphrase. Canadian composer/musician Andrew Donaldson was commissioned by Grace to write this singable melody and its accompaniment for a fresh text written by ELCA poet/pastor Richard Leach. Our choir and a trumpet trio will enhance the setting.

Soli Deo Gloria!
