Foxes have holes... birds have nests... the Son of Man has nowhere. (From Luke 9)

Dear People of Grace;

I was up on a ladder, leaning against my house several weeks ago. Birds had claimed some real estate in the corner of a rain gutter. Last year, I thought I had fixed that problem with a few patches of metal screen, but their genetic memory found a way to return to the place of their birth.

It gets more interesting. These gutters have a leaf guard which should have also deterred these little sparrows (juncos, I think). No such luck. They had discovered in late winter a small opening; and once they had a way in, they had a lovely apartment for the next generation. I removed the leaf guard to investigate. Soon, I was scooping out gobs of seasonal grasses, leaves, anything that could have been packed in for bedding. I traced their building material to a downward-pointing elbow in the gutter and found it completely dammed up with mud. There was no way water could have drained to the ground. After complaining about these juncos, I realized they had accomplished an amazing feat of engineering. More scooping, poking and flushing with a garden hose, and finally the way was clear. I reassembled the rain gutter, added more screen, and will have to wait and see how it will go next spring.

Birds forage for home-building material. Their nests are made of the stuff of earth, indeed, of earth itself. Perhaps you have held an abandoned nest and marveled at the craftsmanship involved. Woven clippings from the yard packed and sealed with mud, these tiny houses must require long hours of labor to prepare for birth.

Foxes, birds, and the Son of Man. In the gospel of Luke, Jesus is approached by many would-be followers. They are really drawn to the person and work of Jesus. They want to be part of the movement, part of the spectacle of his healing and teaching ministry.

Jesus responds in a way that comes across as somewhat harsh, or at least a little too “real.” Foxes and birds have homes in nature, but the Son of Man wanders. It’s a purposeful wandering, but it is a long and uncomfortable wandering, nonetheless. Jesus chose to be a street person, a homeless guy, tied down to nothing and at the same time everything.

With that simple response, Jesus is naming the cost of discipleship. The way is hard. You will be weary. Creature comforts and the closeness of loved ones will be distant memories. The cost is too high for some, and Jesus continues on his path toward Jerusalem and his offering of life to conquer death.

Where does Jesus lay his head? Our spirituality opens us up to the possibility that he lays his head on your heart. He has foraged heaven and earth to nest in you. Also, you have a place to lay your head. You can also nest on the heart of Christ. Rest there. Find your home in the heart of Jesus. Forage around for bits and scraps, let your soul craft a tiny house in Christ. You will be safe and sound.

In loving service,

Pastor James Aalgaard

Staff Sticky Note: I will be in Maryland June 9-20 for my spiritual direction program. Pastoral care needs can be directed to Keith Garness or Patton Boyle during those days.

THE MISSION OF GRACE LUTHERAN CHURCH

To proclaim and celebrate the gospel of Jesus Christ through word and sacraments so that a community of believers is created, trained, nurtured, and sent into mission.

Confirmation Sunday June 8, 2025

Jackson Dunckel will be confirmed in the Christian faith through Affirmation of Baptism on Pentecost Sunday, June 8. All are encouraged to bring a card for him that day, sharing a blessing for him, or a memory from your own faith journey. Congratulations, Jackson! We are glad to include you in the congregation's life of faith and service to the world.

Summer Evening Prayer Services

During the months of July and August, we have the opportunity to gather for prayer, meditation, song and readings using the worship format based in Taizé, France. Taizé music is known for its easy-to-learn refrains and layered harmonies. It is often accompanied with guitar, flute, piano, or other acoustic instruments. Time for quiet reflection and prayer will be offered. This prayer service will not include Holy Communion. We are communicating with our ecumenical partners to decide on varied locations for these services. The July 6th gathering will take place in Grace's sanctuary. Stay tuned to learn more about future locations. Day and time: 1st and 3rd Sundays of July and August, 7:00 p.m.

ANNA & MIRIAM CIRCLES

Anna Circle will meet on Tuesday, June 17, at 10:00 a.m. at Grace. If you have questions, feel free to contact Linda Sinnett or Faye DeJong.

Miriam Circle will meet on Tuesday, June 17, at 7:00 p.m. at the home of Lisa Burgett. If you have questions, please contact the church office.

Mim Schwich Memorial Service

The family of Mim Schwich (Jody Marquardt's mother) has scheduled a memorial service for her at Faith Lutheran Church, 171 Eastmont Avenue, East Wenatchee, on Saturday, June 7. The life celebration will begin at 10:30 with a Lutheran hymn-sing. The worship service will begin at 11:00. Following the service, a luncheon will be served by the women of Faith. Deacon Ruth will be the organist, the adult choir of Grace (VOG) will participate in the service, and the choir director will be Judith Tensmeyer, a former member of Faith Lutheran. The family respectfully requests that anyone who would like to sing with the choir attend a choir rehearsal at Faith Lutheran on Wednesday, June 4, at 7:30 pm. All are welcome. The choir pieces, which will be an integral part of the worship service, are familiar and easily mastered in one evening under the direction of Judith and Deacon Ruth.

GRACE

LUTHERAN CHURCH

Dear People of Grace;

In July 2024, we approved $1.5 million for the renovation of our building, including the addition of a new front entry and narthex, and an outdoor plaza. The plan includes a rebuild of our main restrooms with the addition of two single-use restrooms. Several of our offices are also being reconfigured, and there are improvements planned for the kitchen. We are excited to experience the new feel of our building. These improvements are overdue, and we are so grateful to have the opportunity to put significant resources toward the project.

Grace Lutheran Church was blessed to be the beneficiary of a family trust from the Fox family, originally valued at approximately $2.5 million. During the first few years of the pandemic, we prayed and wondered how best to use these dollars, although we were met with practical roadblocks to doing actual planning. Over time, we discerned the need to use a majority of these dollars to take care of deferred maintenance items around the property, as well as pursue a renovation. These improvements will open up possibilities for future ministry.

Almost one year has passed since that congregation meeting. Currently, we are anticipating costs to go above our original target. We are seeking the consent of the congregation to release more funds to carry us through completion. Join us directly following our 9:30 worship on Sunday June 29 for a congregation meeting in which we will hear an update from project leaders and anticipated costs moving forward. Our financial position to date will be reported at the congregation meeting, June 29. All voting members of the congregation, please plan to attend.

Wenatchee Sings Messiah

On May 9, fine artist Dan McConnell served as a sketch artist for Wenatchee Sings Messiah, held at Grace Lutheran Church. Over 100 singers and music-lovers gathered to sing Part I of this famous and beloved oratorio, including soloists, a string quartet, and continuo. During the sing-along, Mr. McConnell sketched a number of community music leaders involved in the event, and painted a picture of composer Georg Frideric Händel (see photos of his work below). Dan served as a unique contribution to the gathering. His works will remain part of Grace Lutheran's permanent art collection.

Donations received during Wenatchee Sings Messiah totaled $1,000 and were designated for the Building Better Tomorrows Foundation, particularly assisting underserved music students and school programs in our Greater Wenatchee Valley. We extend our gratitude to all who participated and made contributions. You help make a positive difference in the lives of our young people. Thank you!

The next Wenatchee Sings Messiah will include Parts I and II, and is slated for May 8, 2026 and the entire Messiah will be shared in the Spring of 2027.

Artist Dan McConnell paints G.F. Händel.

Deacon Ruth and Dan Jackson with a rendering of other music leaders.

Producer Marshall Thomas with sketches of conductors and soloists.

A number of Voices of Grace members sang anthems and participated in a sing-along at Avamere on May 21.

Afterward, they enjoyed food and fellowship at a local pub.

Mark Woolsey and Tom Gausman work to remove the kitchen's pass-through.

Pr. James lends a hand.

Mike Sweeney, Dave Coe and Bob Bartlett empty the Pantry/Packing Friendship Room.

Firewall preparations underway.

Progress with walls and a roof.

Removing the sidewalk around the office wing.

Anna Circle

This Spring Anna Circle was able to meet an opportunity to monetarily assist in the fight against world hunger. Heifer International has a matching gift contribution that multiplies donations by 10 times until June 30, 2025. The Circle sent $108, which became $1,080 to provide chickens, goats, bees, etc. and training to families in need.

Anna Circle is a Bible Study group that meets once a month. Participants often choose to donate to a collection. Every few months the group decides where to send the amount that has been accumulated.

All ladies are invited to join Anna Circle which meets the 3rd Tuesday each month, at the church, 10:00 AM to noon. The Bible studies are published in Gather, the magazine of Women of the ELCA.

Building Update

Excavators have begun to prepare the plaza area between the fellowship hall and the admin wing. There will be a concrete retaining wall to facilitate the level area needed for the plaza. The natural gas line has been relocated. Asbestos abatement for the fellowship hall and downstairs firewall project has been completed. More roof beams and rafters have come together for the new narthex space. Thank you, everyone, for your continued patience and understanding as the project continues.

Second graders from Washington Elementary harvested their radishes on May 15.

Packing Friendship

Many volunteers help keep our Packing Friendship program going throughout the school year. We'd like to say thank you to everyone who helped with our Packing Friendship program this year. Whether you shopped, packed, delivered bags, or supported us financially, you made a difference in the lives of students right here in your community. We would especially like to thank the following volunteers who gave of their time every week, or every other week, to pack and deliver food to schools: Dan Hutchison, Tammy Beschen, Carolyn Bentsen, Pat Strand, Joyce Owens, Alyssa Bones, and Jan Romey. This year Grace Lutheran delivered almost 1,500 bags of food to local students and we couldn't have done it without you - THANK YOU!

Our church serves students at 3 schools: Washington Elementary School, Foothills Middle School, and Pinnacles Prep. More than 20 other churches and services organizations provide food for students at the other schools throughout the Wenatchee and Eastmont School Districts. We will take a break for the summer, but will start again in the fall with a food drive to kick off the school year - watch for more information in the September newsletter. Thank you again for your continued support!

Using the theme of detective work and mystery-solving, children will embark on daily “missions” during which they will gather clues and attempt to decipher the phrases Jesus uses to describe himself in Scripture. Learning is combined with play in STREAM activities (Science, Technology, wRiting, Engineering, Art, and Math), mission projects, and movement.
