From the Desk of Pastor James

All Saints

Almighty God, you have knit your people together in one communion in the mystical body of your Son, Jesus Christ our Lord. (From the Prayer of the Day appointed for All Saints' Day)

Dear Saints of Grace;

We have this tradition of remembering the people who have entered God's rest over the last year. We give God thanks for their life and witness, the many ways they influenced loved ones and the greater community. God works through the life of every person. People leave behind a legacy of the image of God.

We remember our loved ones because although they do not share in daily life with us the same way now, there is a promise through Christ of life eternal. We entrust our loved ones to Christ, who goes ahead of us to prepare a place for us. As we hear in St. Paul's writing, we are baptized into Christ's death, so that as Christ was raised from the dead, we too shall be raised to new life.

We remember the joys and blessings of having these dear people in our midst, and we cling to promises from God for life eternal, and for peace in the presence of the Holy Spirit. Christ Jesus is the One who leads the way, and his personal presence in our lives makes us holy, and whole. We pause to remember:

+Erling Rivedal – quiet, patient, artistic
+Diane Stober – musical, steadfast friend
+Jane Hensel – welcome, laughter, generosity
+Fern Keith – kind, wise, trustworthy
+Nancy Bratz – encourager, musical, faith
+Beth Smallbeck – loving, welcoming, resolute
+Marilyn Schiefelbein – kind, happy, grateful
+Alice Evenhus – nurturing, faithful
+Connie Saracino Smith - compassionate
+John Applegate – careful, calming
+Jared Senn – friend, loved family, humble
+Helen Njus – community-minded, dog lover
+Rev. Carol Nelson – friend, compassionate
+David Sabedra – helper, compassion in crisis
+Richard Whipple – fatherly, provider

Thanks be to God for these dear companions we have known along life's journey. May Light Perpetual shine upon them.

Here are some of the ways you can be in prayer with me this month:

- Church Council - as Suellen Harris finishes her terms as president, we pray for Kristen Thorstenson as she prepares for the leadership role.
- For people living in our community without a home, that they can have basic needs met.
- For clear decision-making and excitement as the congregation looks toward 2027.

Together, Pastor James Aalgaard

Monthly Evening Prayer
Monday, November 9, at 6:30 p.m.
Grace Lutheran Church

Our next monthly service of prayer, meditation, song and readings will be Monday, November 9, at 6:30 p.m. at Grace Lutheran Church. The service is based on the worship format that was developed in Taizé, France. Taizé music is known for its easy-to-learn refrains and layered harmonies. It is often accompanied by guitar, flute, and other acoustic instruments. Time for quiet reflection and prayer will be offered. This prayer service will not include Holy Communion.

Generations in Grace

All generations of Grace are invited to a time of food & learning through song, scripture, and activity on Sunday mornings at 9:30 a.m. Come build relationships across the generations together! Our Generations in Grace gatherings will be in the Multipurpose Room, just down the hall from the offices. Please arrive at 9:30 or a few minutes before for a light breakfast, then we will dive into the lesson of the day.

Together @ Grace Meals (T@G)
Wednesdays at 5:15 p.m.

We'd love to see you at our Wednesday evening T@G meals! These mealtimes are a good way to check in with one another and enjoy a time of fellowship and great food. There is a calendar of meal plans being prepared, which you will find in the Fellowship Hall. We especially would love to have helpers for the cleanup. Please tell others about this opportunity so we can continue to get to know new people here at Grace. Cash donations are appreciated but not required. Invite your friends!

Drum Circle

2nd Thursday and Last Tuesday of Each Month
4:30 p.m.

The mind is a story-telling machine. It loves to plan, scheme, look to the future, overthink past events, create story-lines, and organize itself in a way that isn't always beneficial. Rhythm is therapeutic. The consistency and stability of rhythm is able to alleviate stress and relax the mind. https://drumhelper.com/blog/

Drum Circle offers an opportunity for all the above and a new way to pray in a group borrowing from Spirituals and call-and-response.

One last thing -- drumming is FUN!!

All ages, abilities, ethnic, & cultural origins are welcome here under the Loft.

November dates: Thursday, 11/2 and Tuesday, 11/24

Craft Night

Social Concerns Team

Coats for Kids

Many volunteers from Grace Lutheran and other churches helped purchase and sort coats for local students as a part of Make a Difference Day on Saturday, October 24.

Sherry Krebs and Deacon Ruth purchased coats using Thrivent Action Team dollars.

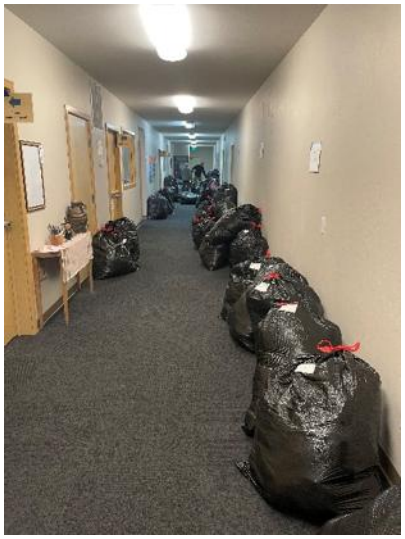

The truck arrives with over 1,000 coats collected by Serve Wenatchee.

The coats were sorted and then packaged according to the needs of each school.

Gift Cards for WHS Students Experiencing Homelessness

The Social Concerns Team is collecting Fred Meyer and Dutch Bros gift cards for high school students who are experiencing homelessness. Gift tags indicating the store and amount needed will be hanging from the Christmas Tree in the narthex. Just pick a tag from the tree, purchase the gift card in the amount shown, and then put it in the box under the tree. If you would rather, you can write a check to Grace Lutheran Church with "gift card" written in the memo line. Please return gift cards by December 13, 2026. If you have any questions, please contact Kay Fisher by email or cell 509-669-3220..

Social Concerns Team Looking for New Members

We'd love to have you join our team! We meet monthly during the school year, typically taking a break during the summer months. Some of our projects include Packing Friendship, Dipes and Wipes Pantry, Caring Meals, 1000 Coats 4 Kidz, Families in Need, Noisy Offering, Gods Work Our Hands Sunday, and Christmas Gift Cards for WHS students that are experiencing homeless. If you are interested in serving on the committee, contact Kay Fisher by email or cell 509-669-3220.

2026 Benevolences

The Social Concerns team is always looking for new organizations to work with. If you or someone you know has an organization in mind, please contact a team member so we can start an application process.

All application will be due by January 31st and applicants will be notified by 3/15/27.

Caring Meals Group Looking for Members

Would you be willing and able to provide a meal to an individual or family, when the need arises? The Caring Meals group was formed in 2023. Since then, many members of our church family have received meals in their times of need. Surgery, illness, a new birth, or a death in the family are the usual times people can use help with meals. If it develops into a long-term situation, the group helps for a couple of weeks until arrangements can be made with an agency that delivers food (Mobile Meals, for example). It has been a very rewarding ministry. Those receiving the meals are always so grateful.

Initially there were many who were participating in providing meals but unfortunately, for various reasons, some are unable to continue, others have moved away and so, the list of willing providers has dwindled to a few. It's time to let others know of this opportunity.

This is how it works: The are NO MEETINGS. Communication is by email. Those on the list are notified of the need. Included in the email is a profile of the recipient, which lists size of family, allergies, food preferences, dates needed, contact information, etc. Those who are able to help with the particular situation then respond (reply all) with what date they can fill in. That way everyone can see what dates are filled or still available. This has worked wonderfully well over the years. There is a small budget through Social Ministries if reimbursement is needed.

If you are interested in joining in this worthy and rewarding ministry, please call Linda Sinnett 509-699-8256.

November Olson Organ Scholarship Fund Drive

This scholarship was funded initially by the Zacher Fund, and thereafter by donations from Grace members and others in the wider Wenatchee community. In this month of Judy Olson's birthday, we invite you to help provide seed money for future students.

On November 15 and 22, designated pew envelopes marked Olson Organ Scholarship will be available. Make checks payable to Grace Lutheran Church with "Olson Organ Scholarship" in the memo line. Website donations (glcwen.org) using the same memo are also welcomed, as is cash. A list of donors' names will be posted on Grace's website unless anonymity is requested at the time of donation.
Thank you for your generosity!

Third Olson Organ Scholar Named

Lorelai Gillenwater recently auditioned for the Olson organ scholarship and enthusiastically received it. She writes:

I'm Lorelai Gillenwater. I'm a pianist and beginner violinist. I go to Wenatchee Valley College Running Start. I'm so excited to be learning organ with The Judy Olson Organ Scholarship. Music is one of my passions, and learning the organ will open up so many gateways for me as a musician and future teacher.

Thank you again for this opportunity!

Best,
Lorelai Gillenwater

Our heartfelt thanks extend to all those who generously contributed to this scholarship fund – Grace members and others from our greater community. In addition, we are grateful to the Scholarship Committee for their audition work: Susie Schell-Dietsch, Judy Olson, Monte Olson and Deacon Ruth Anderson.

Lorelai will participate as an Organist's Assistant and a worship presenter in the coming months.

Music Setting's World Premiere at Grace

It was a delight to offer the world premiere of the musical setting for We Will Not Be Fearful in worship Reformation Sunday (October 25). The text writer and composer both viewed the live stream, and here are some of their responses:

We just watched the service. [Deacon Ruth] taught it beautifully and the congregation sang it also beautifully - including the "getting softer" part. Thanks so much for everything: the commission, your insightful editorial input, and your creative organ leadership for the hymn…what a joy it's been to set another of [Richard's] texts.

- Grace-commissioned composer Andrew Donaldson

A joy for me as well. That's a great setting, and it worked so well. My Psalm 46 version sounded great! 😊 Thanks, Ruth, thanks, Andrew, thanks, everyone at Grace!

- text writer Richard Leach

What a blessing to be a part of providing fresh new resources for congregational singing! We are thankful for the financial support of our Zacher Fund to make this possible.

– Deacon Ruth Anderson

On Nov. 10, Dr. Jay offered an organ masterclass. Dane Schmidt made good progress on the beloved hymn, Holy, Holy, Holy.

Kristi Lee made great strides on the hymn Earth and All Stars.

Lorelai Gillenwater eagerly learned the details of Grace's pipe organ.

Our recorder consort welcomed new members in October.

Grace Lutheran Arts Team

The Arts Team continues to reintroduce art objects into our new space. There have been new items donated to the church including “Blue Mandala”; a print from Christopher Prince. He states that “The object in this picture is a cross-section of a lily anther. (The anther is the part of the flower that holds the pollen.) It was digitized almost thirty years ago as part of a tissue library for a medical school. It is approximately 1/2 of an inch across. It reminds me of a Tibetan mandala. Like the higher meaning associated with a mandala, I have always felt that the structure of the organ is testimony to our Lord’s design for life.” This picture can be found on the wall next to the library.

The Arts Team welcomes any information on the history of the art works that are on display around the church building. Please contact Marshall Thomas if you have information to share.

Also, you can contribute your art skills by making a Friendship Bridge greeting card for a shut-in or someone who needs something to brighten their day. Drop it off at the church office or contact David Belcher at 503-997-2724 or email here.

Habitat for Humanity Community Day

Saturday, November 21

Habitat for Humanity of the Greater Wenatchee Area is starting Habitat Community Day to serve those in need in our community who can't do it alone. Local volunteers and business teams spend a day helping homeowners with work they can't get to on their own: fall yard clean-up, small repairs and simple upkeep.

3 ways to help:

Volunteer: Bring a smile, a warm home and a safe winter to a neighbor. No experience needed. You will work with a team led by an experienced volunteer.

Donate: Every dollar makes a difference. Your gift goes to Habitat Community Day and other critical home repairs for older homeowners, so anything raised beyond this event helps the next homes on our waitlist.

Refer a neighbor: Know a neighbor, parent or grandparent who owns their home and could use a hand before winter? Send them the application or print it and bring it to them

Visit https://wenatcheehfh.org/communityday to volunteer, sign up, or get an application. You can also get a copy of the application in the Grace Lutheran office.

Graceful Garden Fall Work Party

Seven volunteers met on Saturday, October 24 to finish the fall clean up in our Graceful Garden. They pulled the last of the vegetables, removed unwanted grass, and spread fresh compost on each bed. As they worked, they talked about their summer harvests and how they have preserved vegetables to enjoy throughout the winter. If you are interested in growing your own vegetables next summer, watch for information about how to reserve a garden bed next spring.
