LUTHERAN CHURCH

THE GOOD NEWS OF GRACE

April 2022

A Newsletter for Members and Friends of Grace Lutheran Church
1408 Washington Street
Wenatchee, WA 98801-2555
Volume 6 Issue 3

People of Grace;

As I prepare for my sabbatical renewal, I would like to share with you what you can expect before, during, and after.

- Before
 - Some of my itinerary has changed. It does not look like a pilgrimage in Scandinavia and a visit to our partner synod in Tanzania will take place. A guided retreat with my wife in Ireland entitled “Rediscovering Meaning and Purpose” is the biggest travel element of my sabbatical as it stands now. I am planning to spend the bulk of the rest of my time resting in the Pacific Northwest and delving into readings on spiritual direction.
 - I have been in conversation with retired pastor Keith Garness and have planned with interns Anna and Dane about how it will look for Pastor Keith to work on staff as an added support for the congregation.
 - The Council has finalized a compensation plan for Pastor Keith for his ministry.
 - Funding for the sabbatical has been set aside since before 2020.
 - Intern Anna has designed her internship project which will take place during the sabbatical, as a way for the people of the congregation to re-engage with one another.
 - I have invited you to write a seven-word prayer that you can send with me to keep our connection. If you are interested in doing this, I encourage you to write it in my “voice”. Example: “God just give me a little space.”
- During
 - The first day of sabbatical is May 9. I will start back in the office July 25 so I can help Anna finish her internship well. Her last day of internship is July 31.
 - I have not yet decided, but I may be periodically posting on the Pastor’s Blog on our website so you can get a sense of how the time has been for me. This is part of what makes “vacation” and “sabbatical” different experiences. From a book titled “Clergy Renewal”: “‘Just like the soil,’ writes (David Ellingson), ‘we humans need a sabbatical, a time to lie fallow. We require a time to receive rather than give, to get input rather than give output, to carefully nurture and cultivate our lives so that the soil of our spirits might be rid of weeds and have an opportunity to receive nourishment.’ A sabbatical is a life- and soul-changing time – a time when perspective and the Holy Spirit can come together.”
 - I am not available for pastoral activities or other duties during this time. Please do not reach out to me with news or requests.
 - When you want to reach out to a pastor at Grace, I encourage you to first reach out to Intern Anna. She is excited to step into this role of being the first “go-to” person. Pastor Keith is going to be around and available (about 20 hours per week) and Anna will ask him to step in as needs arise. Intern Anna is very capable of being in the leadership position.

THE MISSION OF GRACE LUTHERAN CHURCH

To proclaim and celebrate the gospel of Jesus Christ through word and sacraments so that a community of believers is created, trained, nurtured, and sent into mission.

- Please remain fully engaged in the ministries of the congregation. We will be building our sense of community back as we come out of pandemic times. There will be gathering opportunities along with worship opportunities, and ways to practice generosity and service, and I encourage you to let this also be a time of congregational renewal.
- In my sabbatical, it is never the intention that the congregation goes dormant. Quite the opposite. I am planning for the congregation and myself to be different after sabbatical, nourished and ready for the next chapter in our congregation's story.
- After
 - You can expect some form of written or in-person reflection after my return.
 - I hope there will be an opportunity to celebrate in the company of one another.
 - I envision inviting you into spiritual practices that might be new experiences for you, since my sabbatical will involve intentional practices in receiving from God and others.

God bless you as we enter the season of Resurrection. May new life spring forth from our hearts and minds.

Pastor James Aalgaard

Holy Week

Community Holy Week Services

April 11 - 15 at 12:00 p.m.

Noon community services will be held at First United Methodist Church, 941 Washington Street. Grace Lutheran will not be involved in leadership this year, but we encourage you to join in Christian fellowship with your neighbors! The services will be Monday through Friday.

Maundy Thursday

Thursday, April 14, at 6:00 p.m.

We gather around the rite of confession and absolution, and we participate in the Lord's Supper. Our service concludes with the stripping of the altar, and the congregation will be invited to participate in the removal of items from the chancel. We are also conducting a food drive that day for our Little Free Pantry, with a special focus on breads. Our Holy Communion celebration will include using one of the bread offerings.

Good Friday

Friday, April 15, at 6:00 p.m.

We gather to hear scripture, sing together, and ponder the crucifixion of Christ. We will each be invited to place a large nail on the floor before the cross as a sign of our own brokenness.

Easter Vigil

Saturday, April 16, at 6:00 p.m.

We start our worship around a fire in our Memorial Garden, remembering the time after Christ's crucifixion. We process with candles into the sanctuary and welcome the joy of Easter through scripture, song and baptism. This service will include the baptism of Kelsi Davis. Welcome, Kelsi!

Easter Sunday

Sunday, April 17, at 8:00 and 10:30 a.m.

We gather to celebrate the resurrection of our Lord. Our worship will be supported with scripture, song and instrumental music, preaching and holy communion. Our early service will be in the Grace Memorial Garden. An Easter brunch will follow (location to be finalized soon!), and our later service will be in the sanctuary.

From the Desk of Intern Anna

*The people who walked in darkness
have seen a great light;
those who lived in a land of deep darkness—
on them light has shined. - Isaiah 9:2*

Good Friday has been one of my favorite services, falling second only to Christmas (Easter is third), I love that it is so different from all other services throughout the year. I love that it is a service that invites us to mourn, mourn for the death of Christ, mourn for the sin of the world. Growing up, we had a candelabra with 7 candles on it that we would slowly extinguish as we went through the service. We usually would have two acolytes for the service, one to extinguish the candles and one to turn off lights. When I would acolyte, I would turn off the light and turn it off at the exact moment the bell of the extinguisher would go over the flame. Growing up, this service would be reading of the passion and either singing hymns, listening to the choir sing an anthem or listening to the choir sing from different Requiems. As the service went on, it got darker and darker as we read up to the last moments of Jesus. Then in darkness, Jesus would be sealed in the tomb, with the slamming of the large Bible, scaring many in the congregation, and we would leave in silence, not to come back 'til Easter morning. There are a lot of theatrics in this service, which may be part of my love for the service, but I think also having a service where there is a supposed finality to it that isn't a happy ending has a sacredness in it.

Planning for Good Friday this year, there isn't the turning down of lights, or slamming of bibles as we seal Jesus in the tomb, but there will be the passion story dotted with hymns and anthems, there will be the dropping of nails in a bucket, and the bidding prayer. There is an Easter Vigil service on Saturday, where we sit in the liminal space between the closing of the tomb and the women finding it open and empty and where we practice the ancient tradition of baptism after a Lenten break. It isn't what I am use to, but there is a tradition and sacredness to it. It looks similar in some ways to the old, but is very different in other ways. It's not what I am use to, but I am excited to see in what ways these services fill my being.

My hope for you all this Lenten season is for you to embrace the changes and differences that may be there this year, as we remember and discover how to be church again. My hope is that you are able to find meaning in doing things in ways that are similar to the past and in ways that are different. I hope you are able to give us and each other grace as we continue to rebuild and remember what it means to be Grace Lutheran Church; that we can be light to one another as we continue our Lenten journey.

I will be out most Saturdays and Mondays and am taking vacation from April 18-26th.

May God's light shine in the dark places.

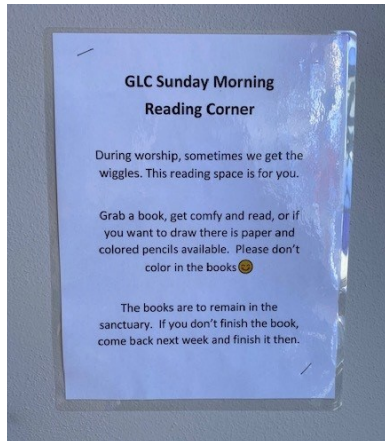

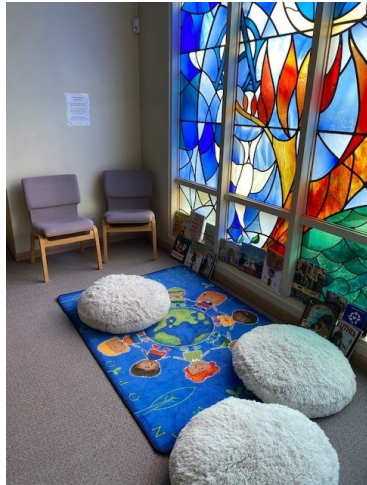

Intern Anna Ferro

Morning Prayer

Thursday mornings, at 7:00, you are invited to join us in the sanctuary. Our morning prayer will typically involve reading of scripture, then a time of prayer, then finish with the Lord's Prayer.

Book Corner for Young Worshippers

We've got a new, cozy space in the back part of the sanctuary just for our young worshippers. We've got books to read, paper and colored pencils for drawing, and a place to stretch and get your wiggles out. Be sure to check it out!

Thank You from LCC International University

Dear Grace Lutheran Church Community,

LCC International University continue to support all our students affected by the war. We are grateful for your help. THANK YOU for your recent donation!

In the photo above LCC students alongside Professor Scott Neumann helped the Red Cross to gather and divide clothing, shoes, sleeping mats and other humanitarian items donated to Ukrainian refugees. In less than one day, Lithuanians donated more than 50 trucks of such items, which were immediately taken to the border of Ukraine.

THANK YOU for your support and your prayers for LCC, and for being part of a global community that cares for one another. We are indeed blessed by you.

With gratitude,

Marlene

Fox Trust Visioning Committee Update

The committee has not met since the most recent congregational meeting. The next meeting is scheduled for Wednesday, March 30, at 12:30 PM at the church. The committee is still seeking a congregation member interested in serving on the committee, replacing a vacancy left on the committee a few months ago. The committee plans to meet approximately monthly and is charged with the task of prayerful discernment of God's mission and the opportunities opened to GLC through the receipt of the Fox gift. The hopeful result of the FVC will be a heartfelt, well reflected, and excited list of ideas in the form of a gift recommendation proposal from the FVC to the Council for review. Following Council's review, with consultation of Lead Pastor, Council will then present a finalized presentation to the Congregation, on behalf of the FVC, to make motions for approval that can then be moved into action and disbursement of gifts. If you are willing to consider serving, please contact one of the committee members: John McQuaig, Judy Connor, Karen Zanol, Bob Bartlett, Milt Herman, Gwen Sparks, Cheryl Salter, Joanne Dalinkus.

Sunday Funday - Faith Formation

Please join us for our twice a month "Sunday Funday" on the 2nd and 4th Sunday of each month at 1:00 p.m. This month we will meet on April 10 and 24 near the playground. We begin with a brief opening, followed by Bible story time, and playtime. Please contact Beth with any questions. All ages are welcome to join us!

SOCIAL CONCERNS TEAM

After two long years It's Noisy Offering time!

For those individuals who still have their boxes from two years ago you can use those boxes. Boxes are available in the narthex during Lent. Decorate a box and start saving all your loose coins from your pockets, shoes, socks, drawers, underneath the bed, the sofa and car seats. Wherever you can find it, collect it and put it in your decorated loose change box and bring it back to the church on Palm Sunday, April 3. So, start collecting all those coins!!! For more information contact Jolane Guthrie at 509-669-9309 or Barbara Tilly at 509-679-3900.

Packing Friendship/ Little Free Pantry Food Drive

As part of Lent, the Social Concerns Team will be collecting food items for GLC Packing Friendship and the Little Free Pantry.

Packing Friendship is a weekend backpack program for students who may rely on school lunches during the week and are at risk of hunger on the weekends. Grace Lutheran is currently serving 47 students from three schools in the Wenatchee School District on a weekly basis.

GLC Little Free Pantry is an emergency pantry that is stocked with food, cleaning supplies, feminine hygiene products, and other essentials. We serve those in our community who are struggling to make ends meet. It is estimated that the pantry serves 20-30 families/individuals per week.

During Lent we are collecting items for both groups before and after Sunday Worship Service. Then on Palm Sunday there will be a blessing for all the items we have collected. There are containers in the narthex to put the items in.

These items include:

Little Free Pantry	GLC Packing Friendship
Feminine Hygiene Products	Fruit cups
Cleaning Supplies	Applesauce cups
Rice	Canned pasta (ravioli, etc.)
Toothpaste	Tuna
Pasta	Macaroni and cheese
Peanut butter	Chicken noodle soup
Hearty soups, stews, and chilis	Tomato soup

Crisis in Ukraine

Thanks to a generous Lutheran parish in Wisconsin, and other congregations across the country, your gift to Lutheran World Relief will be matched — up to $422,000 — for our neighbors suffering in the Ukraine crisis.

Please give by April 25 so your gift can be rushed to the aid of families in desperate need. You can give online at lwr.org/match, or mail a check to Lutheran World Relief, PO Box 17061, Baltimore, MD 21297-1061. Please write “Ukraine Match” in the memo line.

Happy Spring Grace Lutheran!

The grasses are turning greener and the natural world is really starting to wake up, which means gardening! This spring a group of us will be starting an exploratory phase to potentially re-establish and revitalize our historical garden space on our church property. This means dreaming up designs, finding resources (compost, manure, cardboard, wood, etc.), and calling out to the community to see if there is any interest in such an endeavor!

We imagine this new garden to be part sustainable food forest (a regenerative 'lazy' gardening model) and part more traditional community garden. We hope that we can build new soils, nourish relationships with neighbors, and produce healthy foods for the community- all while creating a beautiful, intelligently designed landscape to support beneficial bugs, bees, and pollinators!

If you are wanting to be involved, or think this is just a good idea, please reach out to Intern Dane Breslin (valleyintern@glcwen.com), Linda Sinnett (blsinnett@yahoo.com), or Sue Garness.

Peace Be With You,
Dane Breslin

Summer of Service Nason Creek Fundraiser

Louisiana here we come! We will be taking a group of 25 children, youth, and adults from First United Methodist and Grace Lutheran to Slidell and New Orleans, Louisiana in mid-June. While there, we will be working with Habitat for Humanity, Community Christian Concern, Peace Lutheran, and Bethlehem Lutheran. Our one and only fundraiser will be at Nason Creek Rest Area on Memorial Day weekend. We are planning to have the rest area open round the clock, which means that we need a lot of goodies. If you would be so willing to donate prepackaged treats (granola bars, chips, cookies, etc.) we would graciously accept them. As of right now, Covid restricts homemade yummy cookies. We will begin collecting the first week of May. Thank you in advance!

Walk the Labyrinth Sacred Connections Workshop

St. Luke's Episcopal Church
(509)662-5635
Saturday, April 9
9:30 a.m. – NOON

Come share in a morning of discovery as St. Luke's prepares for Rev. Frances' sabbatical. She will explore early sacred connections while St. Luke's and friends pursues that which connects us to where we are. Kristin Keyes, a certified Labyrinth Facilitator, leads us on this journey exploring the Way of Love through scripture, reflection, pilgrimage, and prayer. We will have an opportunity to walk a labyrinth to support our learnings. We hope you will join us to walk or pray the labyrinth. For those who would like, finger tracing labyrinths will be provided. Call the number above for further information and to let us know you will be joining us.

Easter Egg Hunt

After two years of at home hunts we are hosting the greatest egg hunt ever! Easter Sunday at Grace 9:45a.m. Hope to see you there.

If you would like to donate small candies for the eggs, please bring them to church no later than 4/13.

Thank you!
