Spreading Our Lives Generously, in a Focused Way

Dear friends in Christ,

Growing up farming, I helped with the planting by prepping the soil of a few hundred acres as time allowed (it was always during the school year). My job was to break up the sleepy, sometimes frosty ground so the sun's heat and the clouds' rain could finish the preparation. The field cultivator behind my tractor would also knock down any early weeds. A freshly tilled, 40-acre plot of ground is really a thing to see. It has its own beauty. Stewarding the land is about partnering with the flow of natural forces. The next step in planting was to get out the drill.

It wasn't like a drill you might be imagining now. It was a piece of machinery that held bushels and bushels of prepared seed (wheat, barley, soybeans, sunflowers). Depth and density were adjusted according to the crop type. Many rows of seed were planted at once. Imagine a landscape rake being pulled through soil or sand, leaving slight channels behind. Buried were seeds for future food. My driving skills weren't so good as to be the one doing the planting; that job was for my dad or brother. No one wanted to see my crooked rows and gaps all season long!

This is a nice image for this time of year, the lengthening of days (the liturgical season of Lent) and the challenge to spread our lives generously, in a focused way. As God heals and reconciles the world to God's self through Christ, what is your particular area of interest? Do you watch and witness? Do you wait and pray? Do you stand up for justice for the oppressed? Do you give in a sacrificial way? Do you open your ears to hear about God's mission through others? Do you open your mouth to bless, to love, to challenge?

There's a strange-sounding prayer after communion that I'm remembering now. One of the petitions is this: "By your Spirit strengthen us to serve all in need and to give ourselves away as bread for the hungry, through Jesus Christ our Lord." You are bread. You are seed. Your faith through Christ and love for the world are seed. The miracle is that you don't disappear in the giving. In fact, you rediscover yourself.

You and I are also the field, and we all have seasons when we need to be "fallow" for a while, resting and receiving as the world continues on. Even the time we spend at rest is holy, filled with the presence and purpose of God.

My days off in March: 2, 9, 16, 23.

Together! Pastor James Aalgaard

Morning Mannerisms

Our Holy Scripture starts with the words, “In the beginning...”

Recently, I’ve been trying to establish a more intentional and regular morning routine that honors God’s work in and through me. Truth be told, I was feeling caught up in my own business and thought I needed to establish some practices that would center and slow down my life a bit, starting from the moment I wake up. I’ve listened to podcasts, talked to friends, and done my own soul-searching to try and figure out what is best for me in my first waking hours. I don’t believe there is any perfect formula, but here are some things that I’ve found to be life-giving and energizing in my morning routine:

- Exposure to natural light. This is something I heard on a podcast; as far as your body’s natural rhythms go, it is good to connect with the sun’s rhythms (assuming you are awake during the daytime) both in the morning and at night for a productive day and a good sleep.
- Settling into silence. We have so much “noise” throughout our day that I find starting the day with at least a few minutes’ silence (meditation, if you will) a very grounding practice and reminder to take time to be still.
- Unhurried reading. Sometimes I read Scripture; other times I read a book or article that inspires me. I’m careful not to read anything that I “have to” read for work or school or book club, but something that just feels right or thought-provoking for the start of my day.
- Body movement. This is another podcast insight; doing some form of exercise in the morning is good for your overall health on many levels. Whether it’s going for a hike, doing some light stretching on the floor, or riding my bike to church, I try to get in touch with my body and move it - as our Creator intended!
- Intentional prayer. Of all the things I try to do in my mornings, I confess that prayer is the one I need to work on the most. I believe prayer takes shape in many forms (like in silence or moving your body), but intentional prayer is something I desire more of in my life from the very start of each day.

How do you start your mornings? Do you follow certain practices or disciplines that you find life-giving and energizing? God is present in our every waking - and sleeping! - moment. Let us be good stewards of each blessed moment from the very beginning of each day.

Arts Festival

For three years (2009 – 2011), Grace Lutheran hosted a week-long VBS-Arts Festival during the summer, and it was a huge success. We will be revisiting that program this August and are looking for folks to share their interests, crafts and skills. In the past we have offered: Stained glass, Advanced art, Arts and crafts, Music (all sorts), Liturgical Dance, Beginning Cooking, Knitting, Beginning Sewing, and Sports. I am sure we could add to this list. The tentative dates are August 3 - 7. If you are interested in being a part of the festival, please contact Beth at youthandfamily@glcwen.org

Easter Egg Hunt

The 3rd- 5th grade youth group has excitedly volunteered to host an Easter egg hunt for young children between our two services on Easter morning, April 12. We would gratefully accept donations to fill the eggs (stickers, candy, etc.)

A basket will be available in the narthex for donations. Please bring items by Tuesday, April 7. Thank you!

All Congregation Worship

March 29 ~ One Worship Service at 10:30 a.m.

Fifth Sunday All Congregation Worship

Reminder, March 29 is a fifth Sunday - we encourage you to join us for our all congregation worship at 10:30 a.m. There will be no 8:30 a.m. worship, or Faith Formation, that day. Let's fill the sanctuary with worship "from floor to rafter!"

Lenten Midweek Vespers

Please join us for worship during Lent, 5:15 p.m. on Wednesdays before our evening meal of soup and bread. The sanctuary will be ready for silent prayer and meditation at 5:00 if you'd like to arrive before the start of vespers. Candles and prayer shawls will be available for your use. Our theme this year is "Perfect Love Casts Out Fear", from 1 John chapter 4.

Lenten Soup Suppers

Join us for our weekly Lenten Soup Suppers, each Wednesday during Lent, beginning March 4. Volunteers are needed to provide soup, bread/rolls and clean up. Sign-up sheets are available in the narthex for your convenience. Meals will be served at 5:45 p.m.

SOCIAL CONCERNS TEAM

Sleeping Mats

As part of our Cross Generational Faith Formation Project this year we are putting together sleeping mats for the homeless. We will be working on them during the Faith Formation Classes between the Sunday Services and on the last Friday of the month from 7 p.m. to 11 p.m. We are desperately in need of people to cut and tie the grocery bag strips together to make plarn so we can start to crochet the strips together to make the mats. For more information, contact Beth Smallbeck at 509-663-2189, email youthandfamily@glcwen.org, or Kay Fisher at 509-669-3220, email threefishers@nwi.net.

It's Noisy Offering time!

On March 1, the Social Concerns Team will be distributing boxes that you can decorate and put your loose change in for those who are in need. So, it's time to start saving all your loose coins from your pockets, shoes, socks, drawers, underneath the bed, the sofa, and car seats. Wherever you can find it, collect it and put it in your decorated loose change box and bring it back to the church on March 29 where a Social Concerns Team member will be collecting them. So, start collecting all those coins!!! [For more information contact Jolane Guthrie at 509-669-9309, email: \[jolaneg@live.com\]\(mailto:jolaneg@live.com\)](#) or Barbara Tilly at 509-679-3900, email: bbtilly@nwi.net.

Friday Night Bingo

The second Friday of each month at 6:30pm the Social Concerns Team sponsors a Bingo game night for those that have special needs. Approximately 20 individuals show up and the program runs for 1½ hours. There is also a need for prizes. Any trinkets will do. A box labeled "Bingo Prizes" is in the narthex. If you are interested in volunteering, or for more information, contact Jolane Guthrie at 509-669-9309, email: jolaneg@live.com or Joyce Owens at 509-393-2686, email: cjoyceowens44@gmail.com.

Food Drive

This March, to go along with our hunger emphasis month, we will be collecting food items for those in need. These items will be distributed throughout our community. The donated items will be taken to the Chelan-Douglas Community Action Council Food Bank and will be distributed all over Chelan and Douglas Counties. A list will be available in the Narthex and the office. From Empathy to Action: Supporting Transgender & Gender Expansive Youth

~~~~~
Thursday, March 5            6:30 PM
Wenatchee High School Commons
1101 Millerdale Ave

Jamie Bruesehoff (she/her) is an award-winning writer, speaker, and advocate. She is an openly queer woman married to a Lutheran pastor and mom to three spirited children, including a twelve-year-old transgender daughter. She is passionate about sharing her family's story, because she believes our stories are bridges to understanding, compassion, and celebration. We are excited to have Jamie join us in Wenatchee March 4-8 for Gender Diversity Week. During that time, she will be speaking to students at Westside and Wenatchee High Schools and Wenatchee Valley College, and will give a public presentation on Thursday, March 5 (see below for more info). On Sunday, March 8, Jamie will be our guest preacher and will also be speaking during our Faith Formation time. Jamie will be available to visit and answer questions while she is here. If you would like to submit questions in writing, you may give them to the office or email them to Beth at youthandfamily@glcwen.org.

Supporting Transgender & Gender Expansive Youth

Thursday, March 5, 6:30 p.m. at Wenatchee High School Commons

Rooted in her own personal experience, Jamie Bruesehoff will share some of the joys and challenges of raising a transgender child in a world that all too often isn't ready for them. We know these youth face devastating rates of depression, anxiety, and suicide, but the data overwhelmingly shows that support and affirmation greatly reduces those risks. What does that affirmation look like? How as parents, family, educators, faith leaders, and community members can we be that support? Jamie will inspire, empower, and equip us to better show up for the young people in our lives and in our community.
