

All Saints Day - add the names of saints who shaped your faith

All Saints Day reminds us that God's family includes those who came before and those still growing in faith. This week, give thanks for them and ask God to make you a blessing in someone else's story.