Item 3 – Disciplinary Information

Mr. Jenkins has no civil, criminal, administrative or regulatory events to report. Additional information regarding Mr. Jenkins's registration as an investment adviser may be found by accessing the SEC's public disclosure website at <http://adviserinfo.sec.gov/>.

Item 4 – Other Business Activities

Insurance Products:

Mr. Jenkins is a licensed insurance agent through our affiliate Legato Insurance Group, Inc. As an insurance agent, Mr. Jenkins sell other products or provide services outside of his role as an investment adviser representative with LFG Wealth Partners, LLC ("LFG"). As part of the client's overall financial planning services, Mr. Jenkins has the option to recommend the use of certain insurance products to accomplish the client's financial or investment objectives. This could be in conjunction with their existing advisory services in lieu of separately managed accounts (specifically, in lieu of cash and fixed income asset classes).

Although LFG and its investment adviser representatives owe you a fiduciary duty, it should be noted that the receipt of a commission by the financial professional and our affiliate provides a variety of incentives to recommend these products. For example, Mr. Jenkins and the affiliate will earn a larger upfront commission the more assets are invested in an annuity, therefore they are economically incentivized to recommend that you purchase an annuity over placing those assets in a brokerage or advisory account, which may provide lower total compensation. Our financial professional and affiliate could also be incentivized to recommend a product that pays a commission now, versus an advisory product that pays fees over a longer period. As an example, all other variables held equal, a 5% commission paid by an insurance company upon sale of a $100,000 annuity product may be more attractive to a financial professional than a one percent (1%) advisory fee charged on a $100,000 account paid over a period of five (5) years despite the overall pre-tax compensation paid to the financial professional being equal. Note that some products pay a higher street or bonus commission than others, increasing this incentive and creating an economic incentive to favor higher fee-paying products.

In exchange for selling insurance products, Mr. Jenkins and our affiliate may also receive additional compensation or incentives in the form of bonus commissions, gifts, meals or entertainment, reimbursement for training, marketing, education, advertising, or travel expenses associated with sponsored conferences or events. The exact compensation cannot be accurately calculated at the time of recommendation because they rely on sales goals, but you should be aware that there are a variety of forms of indirect compensation paid by carriers and insurance marketing organizations, and this compensation creates a conflict of interest.

You should be aware you have the option to implement any insurance recommendations through outside insurance brokers or agents. You are in no way required to implement any insurance product recommendations through your LFG representative in their capacity as a licensed insurance agent.

Additional Outside Business Activities:

Mr. Jenkins is the President of Legato CPAs and Advisors, PLLC, an accounting firm that does tax preparation and other accounting services. This presents a conflict of interest because it is advantageous for Mr. Jenkins to refer clients to Legato CPAs and Advisors, PLLC, as he retains a portion of the profits from the services rendered. Not all clients of LFG Wealth Partners, LLC are clients of Legato CPAs and Advisors, PLLC.

Mr. Jenkins is the owner of Jenkins Holdings, LLC. This LLC was established in August 2020 and is used as a holding company for real estate properties that Mr. Jenkins has an interest in. This business is not investment-related and does not pose a conflict of interest to firm clients.

Mr. Jenkins owns and operates 21st Investments, LLC. 21st Investments, LLC is an entity created by Mr. Jenkins to allow him to invest into specific small business endeavors. These businesses are not related to the financial industry. Clients of LFG are not affiliated with this business. Clients of LFG are not referred to this business for any services in any capacity, nor does 21st Investments refer clients to LFG.

Mr. Jenkins is the Chapter President of American Financial Education Alliance, a non-profit organization.

Mr. Jenkins is a Board Member of First 48 Financial Education Alliance, a non-profit organization.

Item 5 – Additional Compensation

Mr. Jenkins may receive compensation or benefits through his affiliation with Legato Insurance Group, Inc. Such additional compensation generally consists of cash bonus payments and reward trips based on insurance product sales performance. This presents a conflict of interest, as it creates an incentive to meet sales goals. LFG Wealth addresses this potential conflict with disclosures and supervisory procedures, which require all investment advisory recommendations to be in the best interests of our clients.

LFG Wealth investment adviser representatives may also receive bonuses based on their or the Firm's overall assets under management during a specific period of time. These bonuses may include cash payments and reward trips. These benefits are not a result of achieving sales quotas related to specific product lines. This presents a conflict of interest that LFG Wealth addresses by providing disclosures, following procedures, and acting in accordance with the Firm's fiduciary obligation to each client.

Item 6 – Supervision

Mr. Jenkins is supervised by Matt Swendiman, the Firm's Chief Compliance Officer who supervises all activities of the Firm. Matt Swendiman's contact information is mswendiman@keybridgecompliance.com or (513) 562-1675. Mr. Jenkins adheres to all applicable regulatory requirements, together with all policies and procedures outlined in the Firm's code of ethics and compliance manual.
