

Discussion Questions

1. What is Paul's attitude toward God for confronting him while in sin (1:12)? Should we have the same attitude if we are Christians? Why? Do people often have the opposite reaction for being confronted by God?
2. How does Paul feel about his past (1:13)? Do people struggle to move beyond their history? Why do you think that? How can we change that?
3. What does Paul credit for his deliverance (1:14-16)?
4. What attributes does Jesus have that make it possible for Him to save and sustain us (1:17)?
