

Tallahassee Women's Newcomers Club Celebrates Summer with Fashion Show and Luncheon

By Mary Kay Wilder

TALLAHASSEE — Members of the Tallahassee Women's Newcomers Club enjoyed an afternoon of fashion, friendship, and fine dining during the club's June meeting, highlighted by a lively style show presented by Beall's Department Store. Anthony Rizzo, Assistant Manager of Beall's, served as emcee for the fashion show providing lots of information about the styles and the models.

Ten club members took to the runway as volunteer models, showcasing a variety of seasonal fashions selected from Beall's latest collections including outfits from the Michael Kors and DKNY designer collections. The show featured casual, resort, and summer-ready styles, giving attendees inspiration for warm-weather wardrobes while celebrating the confidence and enthusiasm of the club's members.

The annual fashion show has become a favorite tradition for the organization, thanks in large part to the dedication of Janie Fuchs and Ro Kemper. For several years, the pair has coordinated and organized the event, working closely with local department stores to ensure a successful and enjoyable presentation for club members. The June fashion show served as a fitting celebration of the club's spirit of camaraderie, with members enjoying an afternoon filled with style, laughter, fabulous food and shared connections.

Before the fashion show, attendees enjoyed a delicious catered luncheon prepared by TasteBudz Catering. The menu included Strawberry Spinach Salad, Pepper Steak, Chicken and Wild Rice Casserole, Potato Artichoke Au Gratin, Steamed Broccoli with Hollandaise, fresh rolls with butter, and two kinds of cake.

The Tallahassee Women's Newcomers Club welcomes women who are new to the area, recently retired, or simply looking to expand their social circles and become more involved in the community. Through monthly meetings, special-interest groups, and social events, the club provides opportunities for friendship, networking, and community engagement.
