DECEMBER 2021 NEWSLETTER

Finding Holy in the Holiday

I've had my share of Christmas Holidays that felt more like a gauntlet to be endured than a season of celebration. Spreadsheet for tracking gifts for family Christmas and Birthday celebrations? Check. A whiteboard full of deadlines for music choices, bulletins, poinsettia orders, and checking candles for Christmas Eve? Check. More checklists for packing small children to travel to see family? Check. A multi-color calendar crammed to the gills with holiday parties, programs, and events.... So many checks.

By Christmas morning, I was exhausted. Mentally, Physically and emotionally wiped out. Feeling anything but Joy, Hope, Peace, or Love. yes. Even as a pastor who preaches that the advent season is one for slowing down, for focusing on what matters.

So how do we choose a different way?

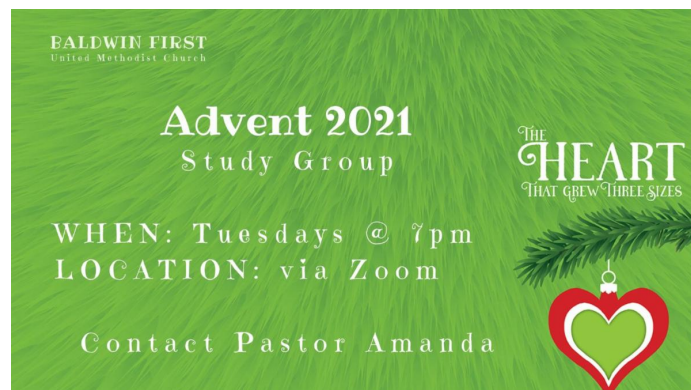

Perhaps we begin with embracing the messiness of it all.

The birth of Jesus was not perfect and serene. It was a young mother, praying her betrothed could somehow believe that the child she bore was of God. It was a young couple, making a journey to be counted for taxes to a greedy government. It was a search for lodging in the third trimester of pregnancy. It was a birth in a stable, an announcement to those at the margins, an insecure monarch, a genocide, and a flight into Egypt as refugees.

And in all of it, it is the in-breaking of Emmanuel. God with us.

There is a different kind of Christmas we can experience when we embrace the messiness and lean into a more realistic hope, peace, love, and joy.

Maybe that looks like a weekly pause to light the advent candles together as a family, naming where you have seen hope, or peace, or love or joy in your lives.

Maybe it looks like setting aside time to join others in the zoom Bible study Pastor Ross and I are leading to deepen the experience of advent.

Maybe it looks like inviting someone you know to the Longest Night service on Dec. 21 in Edgerton to lament their grief in this season.

Maybe it just looks like taking a little time each morning or evening in the light of your Christmas tree with the tv off, to ask God to keep you centered in this season.

Whatever it looks like for you, may you find renewed joy in the birth of the Prince of Peace. Emmanuel.

STAFF PARISH PASTOR RELATIONS COMMITTEE
SPPRC TARA WELCH, CHAIR., TSWELCH@KU.EDU

This month, the SPPR committee met with the leaders of Ives Chapel to fill out some conference paperwork and to discuss our new relationship with each other. They shared how they have adapted their traditional ministries to pandemic protocols, and we did the same. Both churches are eager to help each other, especially in those ministries in which we can roll up our sleeves together to help the community. Look for opportunities in the new year!

Our Ives friends also described their leadership structure, which streamlines the many committees into one “Leadership Table.” We all left the meeting with a renewed sense of the opportunity we have to see and be the church beyond the walls of either building.

LOVE JOY HOPE PEACE

FOOD PANTRY – Thank you to all who have supported the Baldwin Community Food Pantry throughout 2021! It has been a difficult year for many of our neighbors in Baldwin City and afar who are facing food insecurity. We have witnessed a consistent increase in the number of persons served each Saturday at the pantry. Though a gallon of milk, a small voucher for groceries, and a bag of extras may not seem like a lot, we hear each week the gratitude from those receiving these gifts. Thank you for your gifts!

GIVING TUESDAY - LOVE, JOY, HOPE, PEACE – Where might we provide a light in the world on Giving Tuesday? There are so many places to plug in and shine the light! Giving Tuesday emerged as a movement beginning in 2012 to encourage people all over the world to embrace generosity by giving to nonprofits whose work benefits the lives of others. November 30, 2021, signifies a day of Giving. $2.47 billion was donated to US non-profits by a reported 34.8 million people on Giving Tuesday 2020. umcmmission.org/givelove

Gifts for Baldwin Care Center and Vintage Assisted Living – We will continue to gather puzzles (300 pieces or less) and large print books until Christmas. A box is in the narthex for donations of those items.

GIVING THANKS

"For our human community, our common past and future hope, our oneness transcending all separation, our capacity to work for peace and justice in the midst of hostility and oppression: We give thanks this day."

Happy 100th Birthday Ruth Ann Nutt

Ruth Ann celebrated her 100th birthday on Nov 14. A lifelong resident of Baldwin City, she currently lodges at Brandon Woods Retirement Center in Lawrence. If it seems like you have read about another 100th birthday associated with this last name it's because you did. Her husband of 79 years (anniversary Sept 20th) celebrated his centennial birthday on May 30th of this year. She and Don raised three sons.

Ruth Ann was active in the community, as well. She was a member of the Baldwin City Business and Professional Women, PTO, HESTA, and served chaired United Methodist Women.

Beyond Baldwin City, she had the distinction of being the first woman to serve as chair of the Douglas County Extension Council Executive Board. During her time as chair, Extension built its new home on the Douglas County Fairgrounds and founded the Douglas County 4-H Foundation.

holiday hol y day

Rabbi Sidney Greenberg wrote "On holidays we run away from duties. On Holy-days, we face them. On holidays, we let ourselves go, on Holy-Days we try to bring ourselves under control. On holidays, we try to empty our minds. On Holy-days, we attempt to replenish our spirits. On holidays, we reach out for the things we want. On Holy-days, we reach up for things we need. Holidays bring a change of scene. Holy-days a changed heart."
