

Enhance Your Watercolor Paintings

With Beth Ostapiuk, Artist,
Instructor

Do your paintings lack pop and pizzazz? Join Beth Ostapiuk as she walks you through her unique process of enhancing and embellishing your watercolors. Achieve special effects using transparent collage' papers, tissue paper, metallics and more. It's a fun and creative way to transform and elevate any painting- old or new.

About the Artist

Beth Ostapiuk is an award-winning California artist whose creative journey began in the wintry climates of northern Minnesota, where she developed her indoor talents in fiber arts, ceramics, painting, and the creation of Ukrainian eggs. As a young woman, she was drawn to California's Central Coast, where she pursued a degree in Fine Arts.

Beth taught art to children in public schools, directed an art gallery, and eventually became an Art Instructor at Hancock College. She has taught workshops in Pysanky, painting, and botanical art throughout the country and in Italy.

She is a Signature Member of the Central Coast Watercolor Society and an active member of the Morro Bay Art Association, San Luis Obispo Botanical Gardens, and the Lompoc Cypress Gallery. Beth received Best of Show at the Santa Barbara County Fair, along with numerous awards around the country.

Her artwork can be found online at Fine Art America, as well as at the SLO Botanical Gardens, Oasis Senior Center, and Morro Bay Art Center.
