The CCWS General Meeting on Tuesday, August 25, features local artist and CCWS member Jennifer Spotten with a presentation about exercises to help motivate and energize your artistic brain.

Jennifer Spotten lives and paints on the Central Coast of California, in the small town of Templeton. She is a self-taught watercolorist, and has taken many classes and workshops with local and national instructors. Jennifer has earned recognition for her paintings over the years at local art shows across the Central Coast. The scope of her art ranges from animal portraits to landscapes to abstract pieces. Currently Jennifer teaches Beginning Watercolor classes for the Atascadero Community Center.

Presentation at 1:30, SLO UMC Wesley Room, 1515 Fredericks St., SLO.
