The CCWS General Meeting on Tuesday, May 26, features award-winning artist and CCWS Signature member Kathy Miller with a presentation and demo. Join us for this rare opportunity.

Kathy began her formal art career in early adulthood. Primarily self-taught with a few classes at Bakersfield College, she also honed her style in workshops and studies with established artists. Some of these include Joyce Pike, Robert Reynolds, Buck Paulsen, Jo Tarabula, Paul Buxman, Jane Hofstetter, and Charles Reid.

Brilliant color and gesture are her main objectives, aiming for an impressionistic yet representational image. Preferring the experience of outdoor painting, her compositions primarily include natural landscapes, seascapes and florals in a fresh spontaneous approach. The vibrancy of her watercolors are noted for brilliant outbursts of color. Kathy finds that California's central coast provides abundant inspiration for her continuing efforts.
