Join us for this important annual meeting that now includes a delicious luncheon and time for socializing, and a pop-up gallery—always fun and illuminating to see the work of our artist colleagues. Enjoy chatting with members new and old and voting your favorites in the pop-up. Members will also vote on officers for the coming year. It's an excellent opportunity for anyone interested in finding out more about our friendly and active organization.

More details about this once-a-year event will be coming out soon via email— mark your calendars now, and stay tuned!
