Artist	DVD Title	Brief Description
Brommer, Gerald	From Line and Shape to Complex Surfaces	This DVD focuses on line and shape and then Gerald adds collage, watercolor and gesso to the surface.
Castagnet, Alvaro	Inspired Watercolour	Watch Alvaro use his colorful style to capture the soul and mood of the places he paints: Streets, squares and cafes in Girona, Catalonia, and Cadaques, the home town of Salvador Dali.
Castagnet, Alvaro	The Passionate Painter in Paris	In his strong colourful style, Alvaro paints historic buildings and busy boulevards including wet pavement and bustling cafe scenes.
Couick, Nancy	What do you Mean Watercolors are Hard? The Things Teachers Think you Already Know	An excellent primer for the novice watercolor artist. Covers materials, paints, brushes, papers, palettes, Nancy breaks down the process of watercolor painting into all of its many steps and phases.
Crouch, Susan	Painting in Living Color: Carolina Morning	This is a friendly and informative 3-part demo that breaks down the process of watercolor painting using a layering process.
Divine, Aine	Watercolour Portraits	Learn how to create stunning portraits with Aine as she paints 4 portraits.
Grastorf, Jean	Pouring Transparent Watercolor	Jean shows her signature pouring technique without using a brush. After masking, she pours and allows the colors to mingle on the surface.
Hoar, John	Simplifying Watercolour	John's dynamic impressionistic style is based on simplifying the painting process. Using only two brushes and five colours, John shows how to stip a scene down to it's basics.
Hoar, John	Watercolour Without Tears	John firmly believes that one of the reasons people find watercolour frustrating is that they overcomplicate it. In this painting he will show you how to keep it simple – keep it loose.
King, Ian	Watercolour: Line and Wash	Town and riverscapes in brush, pen and ink. Ian also uses water-soluble pencils and water-soluble pens to enhance his beautiful British cityscapes.
Miller, Joe	Goof-Proof Greeting Cards	Cheap Joes founder, Joe Miller is also a great artist and instructor. In this DVD he demonstrates a card making system you will be able to use over and over again.
Rogers, Janet	Expressing the Bouquet in Watercolor	Janet feels "painting should be fun, fresh and exciting without the pressure of trying to make a masterpiece." She will help you learn to "interpret, not copy" the floral still life.
Raynes, John	Drawing & Painting People	A 3-part video showing how to capture a likeness, achieve accurate anatomy and paint realistic skin tones.
Swenson, Brenda	Negative Painting with Watercolor	A master at this technique, Brenda shows step-by-step the benefits of focusing on the space around and in between the object being painted.
Tookey, John	Contrast in Watercolour	John will show you how to use tone and contrast to energize your paintings. Direct, bold and lighting fast, he paints with a large brush producing stunning paintings that command attention.

van Hasselt, Tony	Creative Realism in Watercolor	Based on a preparatory field sketch, Tony develops an exciting studio version, painting the same scene on top of a non-objective underpainting.
Wade, Robert	Wade's Watercolour Solutions	Robert is one of Australia's leading watercolour painters with a worldwide reputation for his teaching methods. In this DVD he covers soft and hard edges, brush work, water to paint ratio, wet-in-wet, and many other techniques.
Walsh, Janet	Expressive Watercolors from Floral Photographs	This DVD focuses on using your own photographs as a reference for still-life painting. A very popular instructor, Janet works through 8 chapters including material selection to final brush strokes.
