Standing on the corner suitcase in my hand Jack is in his coat, and Jane is her vest, and me I'm in a rock'n'roll band Ridin' in a Stutz-Bearcat, Jim Those were different times! They studied rules of verse And the ladies rolled their eyes Sweet Jane! Sweet Jane, Sweet Jane! Solo	Jack he is a banker Jane she is a clerk Both of them save their money when they come home from work Sittin' there by the fire, The radio does play A little classical music there, kids "The March of the Wooden Soldiers" All you protest kids You can hear Jack say Sweet Jane! Sweet Jane! Sweet Jane! Solo	Some people like to go out dancing And other peoples have to work, And there's even some evil mothers they're tell you that everything is just dirt that, women never really faint Oh that villains always blink their eyes that children are the only ones who blush! And that life is just to die! Anyone who had a heart They wouldn't turn around and break it Anyone who ever played a part They wouldn't turn around and hate it! Sweet Jane! Sweet Jane! Sweet Jane! Sweet Jane Sweet Jane (repeat and fade)
