Welcome to North Beach!
Where Corpus Christi’s History & Future Meet

The founder of Pier 99, Mike Astin, built the place himself over the span of two decades, adding a little more each year in an effort to serve more guests great seafood at a reasonable price. Mike believed in North Beach and saw a day when the world would Rediscover one of the most special waterfront settings in the country. Sadly, we lost the beloved Captain of our ship in 2012 and the future of Pier 99 seemed uncertain. Mike’s wife and daughter, with the support of staff and the most loyal customers and supporters, have managed to carry on Mike’s dream to be part of the best years for North Beach. Today, he surely looks down with a smile, knowing that those times are soon ahead.

A Rich History and Big Future for North Beach
A century ago, North Beach was the center of recreation in Corpus Christi, and today is home to the two most popular attractions in the Coastal Bend, the Texas State Aquarium and the U.S.S. Lexington Museum on the Bay. Soon, our new $1 billion Harbor Bridge will open, and big plans are in motion to create the top visitor destination on the Texas Coast - North Beach, the Happiest Place in Texas!

The Pier 99 Story
Mike Astin started with a washed out bait stand on North Beach, and built around it stage by stage over 20 years. Serving up the best seafood in town to thousands of guests every year, Pier 99 today stands as a Corpus Christi icon.
