EMPTY SPACES, EMPTY PLACES

A Cinematic Metal Rock Ballad

Verse 1

I fill these empty spaces with visions of truth...
I fill these empty places with thoughts of you,
I fill them with echoes of dreams never told...
Always remember, I am the hunter, the teacher... Darlin', don't let go.

Chorus

Empty spaces... empty places... where you used to be!
But fear keeps you distant... afraid of what we see.
I reach for your hand, but you're fading again... hold tight baby
Empty spaces... empty places... just a whisper away.

Verse 2

You were told we came from the same star, Darlin'...
But questioned how we could come so far...
Battle scars from how we died before... is the mark.
Still, whispers in time kept us apart...
Destroy your burdens to make it clear that I am near.

Bridge

I am the hunter, the teacher, the fire in your storm...
You are my seer, the healer, trust fate will protect who we are.
You fill my empty spaces, the void inside my heart...
To never disappear again, Darlin'... Never disappear again.

Chorus (Repeat, Full Power)

Empty spaces... empty places... where you used to be!
But fear keeps you distant... afraid of what we see.
I reach for your hand, but you're fading again... hold tight baby
Empty spaces... empty places... just a whisper away.

Final Breakdown (Soft, Haunting)

In another life, I made a vow...
To find you, protect you, no matter how...
Through lifetimes of searching, through pleasure and pain...
The promise remains... Darlin'... the promise remains.

Final Chorus (Explosive, Climactic Release)

Empty spaces... empty places... where you used to be!
But fear keeps you distant... afraid of what we see.
I reach for your hand, but you're fading again...
Empty spaces... empty places... just a whisper away.

Outro (Whispered, Fading to Silence)

"Still waiting... still searching... just a whisper in time, Darlin'..."
"Maybe love is waiting... in these empty spaces..."
