

SHE SHOULD'VE BEEN MINE

Verse 1

Saw your picture on my phone last night
White dress, green eyes, smiling by his side
I stared a little longer than I should
Guess some goodbyes don't stay gone for good

Pre-Chorus

I had forever, let it slip away
Now there's one thing I can't help but say

Chorus

She should've been mine
I had her heart, I had my chance
Let forever slip right through my hands
Now he's living all our dreams
And I'm left with what could've been
She should've been mine
Yeah, she should've been mine

Verse 2

I wonder in the night
Does he treat you right?
Does he hold you close
When you turn out the light?
Does he stare into those green eyes
Like I used to do?
Or does he take for granted
What I'd give anything to hold on to?

Chorus

She should've been mine
I had her heart, I had my chance
Let forever slip right through my hands
Now he's living all our dreams
She should've been mine
Yeah, she should've been mine

Bridge

I hope he gives you everything
I never learned to give
If you're happy in his arms
Then I'll have to love you enough to let you go

Now you've changed your name
And it should've been mine

Final Chorus

She should've been mine
I had her heart, I had my chance
Let forever slip right through my hands
Now she's wearing someone else's name
And I'm the only one to blame
She should've been mine
Yeah, she should've been mine

Outro

Yeah, she should've been mine...
Still seeing my reflection in those green eyes.
