

Autumn on the Allegheny – Vendor / Purveyor Application

Presented by Confluence Initiative

Event Location: Freeport Riverside Park, Freeport, PA 16229

Mailing Address: P.O. Box 222, Freeport, PA 16229

Event Overview

Autumn on the Allegheny is a two-day community festival celebrating food, local vendors, nonprofit organizations, family activities, and river culture.

Participation Fee

Vendor Fee: $75 (covers both festival days)

Applicant Information

Business / Organization Name:

Primary Contact Name:

Email Address:

Phone Number:

Description of what you do / sell / provide (used for promotion):

Hands-on or Interactive Experience Description

Electrical & Power Policy

This is a park-based outdoor festival. Electrical access is limited.

All participants should plan to be self-powered using generators or battery systems.

Food vendors are required to supply their own electricity.

All power setups must be safe, quiet, and secured.

Confluence Initiative assumes no responsibility for power interruptions or equipment damage.

Signature: _____ Date: _____